
Dear Adam,

We were completely shocked to hear you had abruptly become sick; you have consistently been so solid. We comprehend that you are in acceptable hands now, so we believe in your quick recuperation. Try not to give work doubt.

You have a lot of old buddies who are taking up the leeway. Your activity presently is to recover. All the best from us all.

Truly,

Ian