

Resources

Public Discourse:

- How to Be an Ecosattva, 2020, David Loy
- The Time to Act is Now: A Buddhist Declaration on Climate Change, 2015, Signed letter by many Buddhist organizations, including Dalai Lama, to COP21 in Paris
- Four Noble Truths of the Climate Crisis, 2016, Bhikkhu Bodhi at the White House
- Eco-Dharma, 2009, Allan Badiner
- Can Buddhism Save The Planet?, 2008, Lion's Roar Staff
- A Buddhist Concept of Nature, 1992, Dalai Lama, address at New Delhi
- Universal Responsibility and the Global Environment, 1992 Dalai Lama address at the Rio Earth Summit
- Dalai Lama on Environment, 1986-2017

Scholarship:

- "Buddhism and Ecology", 1998 - Mary Evelyn Tucker, Duncan Ryūken Williams
- "Buddhism and Ecology: Theory and Practice", Leslie E. Sponsel, University of Hawaii
- "Buddhism: A Mixed Dharmic Bag: Debates about Buddhism and Ecology", Christopher Ives, Stonehill College
- Extensive annotated bibliography, by Christopher Ives, Stonehill College

Films/Videos:

- The Way Out, 2018, about the climate crisis, activism and mindfulness, following members of the Plum Village community in the UK
- Dropka, 2016, portrait of a Tibetan nomadic family
- Cambodian Monks and Tree Ordination, 2016, a decades-old practice to protect trees, see also here.
- Dekila on Faiths for Conservation, 2014
- Pad Yatra, 2012, weaves ancient Buddhist spiritual traditions, global environmentalism, and Tibetan and Himalayan culture
- Shielding the Mountains, 2010, about Rinchen Samdrup, the leader of a Tibetan community environmental association in a remote area of Chamdo in the eastern Tibet Autonomous Region, and Tashi Dorje, a leading Tibetan environmentalist in China

Organizations:

- Yale Forum on Religion and Ecology
- Asian Pacific Environmental Network (Oakland Bay Area)
- Tzu-Chi
- Loka Initiative