Cover Letter of Manuscript Revision

Dear Reviewers and Associate Editor of EDUDEENA: Journal of Islamic Religious Education,

I hope this message finds you well. I would like to express my gratitude and appreciation to the reviewers for their insightful comments and suggestions. The feedbacks from reviewer 1 and 2 are mostly in line. Their feedbacks have greatly contributed to enhancing the quality and clarity of our manuscript especially by adding information related to gap, urgency, implication, contribution, and approach of the study. We believe that the revisions address all the concerns raised during the review process.

I am writing to inform you that we have finally completed the revisions for our manuscript entitled, "……". We believe that the whole package of content is already concise as we want to provide detailed information for readers.

Attached to this letter, please find a table summarizing the responses and changes made in accordance with the feedback received. The detailed revision can be seen within the paper file (Word document) with all parts revised highlighted in yellow.

Thank you for your time and consideration. I look forward to hearing from you regarding the next steps.

Warmest regards,

Authors

No	Reviewer 1	Authors' Responses
1.	…….. (page 1)	I have improved …….
2.	…….. (page 2-3)	It has been revised ……
3.	…….. (page 4)	…….
No	Reviewer 2	Authors' Response
1.	Write an abstract in 250 words (page 1) (for example)	I have revised and rechecked the number of words we wrote in the abstract
2.	The method must include the type, approach, data and data sources, data collection techniques, data validity and data analysis. (page 1) (for example)	I have improved the research method. The method we use is research and development.
3.	Write and fix your DOI, check all references (page 9) (for example)	I have revised and rechecked the number of references and checked the DOI of each article used as a reference.