Principal Report

January 2023

1. Holiday concerts were a huge success; had the shuttle running which was used very well
2. POW had a raffle fundraiser that took place before and during the concert
3. Holiday meal was successful; lots of great volunteers helped out with this
4. Holiday Shopping Event- POW ran this event and it went over very well with our students. All students had the opportunity to “shop” for their loved ones.
5. Class trips: Some of the classes traveled to the Astor to watch the Peter Pan performance; others traveled to the Queens County Museum; grades 4s and 5s had the option to travel to the Cineplex in Bridgewater with Ms Barbadoro to attend a French movie
6. Before the break, Stacy and Tania offered a 3 day TA training for people who were interested and were already employees of the SSRCE (i.e. bus drivers); they can start to substitute now. Another opportunity will be held for a few other people who are interested after they have completed the needed paperwork.
7. Lockdown drill #2 was held on Friday
8. Paul Ash has taken a position at the EECD; New RED: Nancy Pynch WorthyLake: she is visiting next week (the plan is for Thursday)
9. School wide RTI- Literacy activities to begin this week (4 week cycles)

Upcoming Dates:

January 3- First day after Christmas break
