Greetings Players, Lights, Entities, and Enigmas!

Welcome to the AUDF Part Logs, where all parts of the series (including bonus parts) are stored, feel free to look around!

AUDF Overview

An Unnamed Doors Fanfic (Abbreviated as AUDF) is a series regarding two people, a hacker/exploiter by the name of EXP, and a typical human by the name of Levi. Both of them are inside the hotel and their one goal is to escape. However,

EXP sticks out like a sore thumb and the entities are skeptical of something...something about that item they always have on them...

Perhaps something else is going on...

Part 1

Part 1 begins the journey of EXP and Levi as they find the hotel through odd means in pursuit of thrill-seeking. However, it won't be easy for them and they reconsidered entering, now trying to find a way to escape.

Part 2

Part 2 continues the journey, this time, they made it to the Library, and they must escape the Library to go up ahead, yet EXP seems to be too impulsive for their own good, and the entities are seemingly catching on to the fact that EXP is not what they seem.

Part 4 advances the journey once again, However, Levi is tired and opts to take a nap while EXP proceeds, which doesn't end well. Yet that isn't going to be the first time Levi gets teleported all over the place.

Part 5

Part 5 wraps up the canonical storyline of Doors (that we have so far). Yet despite this being the end, it's only the beginning of a new adventure. The two have made it so far, and they managed to get to the Greenhouse unscathed, yet is that all to this story? Or is there more than meets the eye?
