

CORUNNA HIGH SCHOOL ANNOUNCEMENTS

February 10, 2021

Please check the lost and found. All unclaimed items will be donated on Thursday.

Attention Seniors: The yearbook staff is including senior quotes in this year's yearbook. Please submit yours by Monday, February 22 by completing the Google Form sent to you via email from Mrs. Svrcek.

Attention Seniors: Be sure to check your emails. Yearbook mock election results have been compiled and the yearbook staff will be emailing you if you have won and which days to meet for pictures.

Attention all Seniors: Are you interested in pursuing a career in Welding for a local company that will train you and offer you full-time employment upon completion of that training? If so, please stop in the main office to see Mr. Brieger by tomorrow. Universal Handling which is a local employer in Corunna is interested in providing training to graduating seniors who are interested in staying local after graduation and obtaining full time employment.

This is a reminder to 8th grade boys interested in playing basketball: There is open gym this week and next week on Tuesday and Thursday from 3-5 at the middle school. These open gyms are NOT mandatory but it is highly encouraged that you attend. After school on Tuesday and Thursday; please walk over to the middle school and enter the locker room from the side entrance. You must wear a mask.

Attention 8th grade Volleyball players: Team and individual pictures have been rescheduled to tomorrow. Please report to the middle school by 3pm. If you need another order form, please see Coach Challender or stop in the office.

Last night, the girls varsity basketball team started the season on a positive note by beating the Perry Ramblers 68-46. They were led by Ellie Toney's 26 points, Sydnie Gillett's 23 points and Jenna Bauman's 9 points. On Friday, the girls will open up the league with a game against Lake Fenton.

Last night the varsity boys basketball team started the season 1-0 with a win over Flint New Standard/Madison Academy by a score of 71 to 41. Cole Mieske led the way with 29 points while Peyton Termeer and Carson Socia chipped in 11 and 10 respectively. The team played suffocating defense, turning Flint Academy over all night long. The Cavs JV and Varsity will play again tonight against West Michigan Aviation Academy. The JV tips at 5 and the varsity at 6:30.
