

Science Department

Members: (suggestion- add your email address for follow up questions and sharing)

What creative ways have you found to integrate technology into your instruction? Have you found a useful app for your content area? Have your students used a new tool to show what they've learned? Have you integrated technology into a project? What (and how) are you using for assessment?

Collaborative Note Space Use this spot to share your great ideas and projects. Take notes, ask questions!