

Analysis of Harry Potter Series

Name of film	Harry's task	Voldemort's presence	Horcrux, destroyed by whom	Moral of the story	Hermione's role including other girl	Central theme
Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone	The first challenge is to circumvent a ferocious three-headed dog to reach the access trapdoor; the second challenge is to escape from the throttling tendrils of Devil's Snare, a plant that strangles its victims; the third challenge is to retrieve a flying key from among hundreds and unlock the door into the next chamber; the fourth challenge is to win a giant-sized game of wizard's chess; the fifth challenge is to master a wizard's riddle of poisonous potions; and the sixth and final challenge is to retrieve the Sorcerer's Stone from within the Mirror of Erised	In the head of professor Quirrell	Harry destroys the horcrux by ends up burning his skin - reducing Quirrell to dust and causing Voldemort's to rise from his ashes	1. Fame is not everything, we have to prove ourselves	1. Annoys her peers with her knowledge 2. she defeats the constrictive Devil's Snare plant by summoning a jet of "bluebell flame" 3. Hermione is the brains behind the plan to enter the place where the Stone is hidden	Love, choice, friendship, power and death
Harry Potter and the Chamber of Secrets	Harry's task is to open the chamber of secrets and to find the truth behind the murder of muggles.	In the body of Tom Riddle	Tom Riddle's Diary: destroyed by Harry in the chamber of secrets	Fame is fickle friend 2. Don't believe on anything without proof	1. She concocts the Polyjuice Potion needed for the trio to disguise themselves as Draco's housemates to collect information about the Heir of Slytherin who has reopened the Chamber of Secrets	Tolerance of people who are different, reliance on a community, Important of choices

			using the basilisk fang		2.Hermione is Petrified by the basilisk after successfully identifying the creature through library research.
Harry Potter and the Prisoner of Azkaban	To find the innocence of Sirius black	we don't get any Volde mort in person in this part 2. focus here is largely on the past Volde mort	–	Nobody comes to save us, ultimately we have to fight for our self	1. Professor McGonagall secretly gives Hermione a Time-Turner , a device which enables her to go back in time and handle her heavy class schedule, 2.She correctly deduces Lupin's secret after completing Snape's homework assignment from the class 3.The Time-Turner enables Hermione and Harry to rescue Sirius and the hippogriff Buckbeak .	The Injustice of legal system, the duality of life , Importance of loyalty,
Harry Potter and the Goblet of Fire	1.Harry is chosen by the Goblet of Fire to compete in the Triwizard Tournament. 2.Harry succeeds in retrieving the golden egg for the first task of tournament 3.The second task involves the champions diving underwater to rescue their mates in which Harry rescue Fleur's sister Gabrielle as well as Ron. 4.For the final task, the champions must reach	In the body of Professor Moody	–	1.True love provides ultimate protection. 2.almost nothing is achieved by a single person alone	1.She supports Harry through the Triwizard Tournament, helping him prepare for each task 2.She is Bulgarian Quidditch prodigy Viktor Krum 's date at the Yule Ball of the Triwizard Tournament.	1. The problem of Enslavement 2. Community connectedness 3. The preoccupations of adolescence

	the Triwizard Cup, located in a hedge maze. Harry and Cedric reach the cup together 5. Fought with Voldemort for the first time and use the portkey and escape with Cedric's body
Harry Potter and the order of the phoenix	1. Harry secretly teaching defensive magic to a small band of students in defiance of the Ministry of Magic's dictum 2. Harry, Hermione, Ron, Ginny Weasley, Luna Lovegood, and Neville Longbottom fly to the Ministry of Magic on Thestrals in an attempt to save Sirius. The six enter the Department of Mysteries and uncover a bottled prophecy 3. Harry's prophecy about Voldemort's action	returning Voldemort's soul to a body	–	1. Truth will come out at its apt time. 2. Learn to question authority	1. Hermione becomes a Gryffindor prefect along with Ron, and befriends Luna Lovegood 2. Hermione conceives the idea of Harry secretly teaching defensive magic to a small band of students in defiance of the Ministry of Magic's dictum 3. She is involved in the battle in the Department of Mysteries and seriously injured by a spell from Death Eater Antonin Dolohov	1. Grief 2. Coming of age 3. Romance 4. Trauma 5. Governmental corruption
Harry Potter and the half Blood Prince	1. Harry's preparations for the final battle against Voldemort alongside his headmaster and mentor Albus Dumbledore. 2. To find whether Draco is death eater or not 3. Harry needs to learn Voldemort's past to	Voldemort Alive	Marvolo Gaunt's Ring- Destroyed by Albus Dumbledore	1. Better to have true friends than Servant 2. Think of others happiness then our. 3. To	1. New Potions professor Horace Slughorn invites Hermione to join his "Slug Club",^[26] and she helps Ron retain his spot on the Gryffindor Quidditch team when she casts a confund spell on Cormac McLaggen 2. Following	1. Importance of friendship 2. Power of self sacrifice 3. Trust

	gain advantage in a foretold battle 4. Dumbledore sets Harry the task of convincing Slughorn to give him the true memory so that Dumbledore can confirm his suspicions about Voldemort's rise to power and near-invincibility. 5. Harry and Dumbledore journey to a cave to retrieve a suspected Horcrux, Slytherin's locket			have rust on other is very important in life	Dumbledore's death, Ron and Hermione both vow to stay by Harry's side 3.Hermione is also the only one of the trio to successfully pass her Apparition test (Ron failed, albeit barely, and Harry was too young).
Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows	The story follows Harry Potter who has been tasked by Dumbledore with finding and destroying Lord Voldemort's secret to immortality – the Horcruxes.	Voldemort backfires in the last part	1.Salazar Slytherin's Locket- Destroyed by Ronald Weasley in Part I with Gryffindor's sword. 2.Helga Hufflepuff's Cup. -> Destroyed by Hermione Granger in Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows	Fight with Evil which is deep inside us.	1.Hermione accompanies Harry on his quest to destroy Voldemort's remaining Horcruxes 2.She inherits Dumbledore's personal copy of The Tales of Beedle the Bard, which allows her to decipher some of the secrets of the Deathly Hallows 3.She prepared for their departure and journey by placing an Undetectable Extension Charm on a small beaded purse so she is able to fill the infinite depths of the bag with materials they will need 4.Hermione's spell saves her and Harry from Lord Voldemort and his snake Nagini in Godric's Hollow 5.Hermione disguises	-Death, racism, immortality, illusion of power -The difficulty of loving the dead -The importance of second chances

			Part 2 3. Rowena Ravenclaw's Diadem. - Destroyed by Harry Potter in Part 2 4. Harry Potter (unknown to Voldemort until after he had destroyed it). -> Destroyed in Part 2 5. Nagini the Snake. -> Destroyed by Neville Longbottom in Part 2		Harry temporarily disfigures his face with a Stinging Jinx. 6. Hermione later uses Polyjuice Potion to impersonate Bellatrix when the trio attempt to steal Hufflepuff's cup from Gringotts 7. Hermione destroys Hufflepuff's cup in the Chamber of Secrets with a basilisk fang
--	--	--	---	--	---	--

--	--	--	--	--	--	--