

Barbies Make 13 Finals - Only Win 4

Kylie is Furious - Hires Conditioning Coach

Kylie watched in amazement as her stable fought their way to a 61-20 record and made 13 finals but only managed to win 4 titles. She was at a loss as fighter after fighter beat 3 tough opponents only to fail in the finals. Thoughts kept rushing through her head. Did she push them too far? Where they not pacing themselves? Did they simply run out of gas and need to work on their cardio? Are they good enough to make the finals but not good enough to win them? She knew that she'd be talking about this for the near future and decided that her fighters needed a conditioning coach. Her hope was that her new training techniques will pay off in the upcoming event in Antarctica.

Kylie's personal conditioning coach Lyla Crossbody was brought in to work on the Badass Barbies cardio. Lyla immediately went to work and started out with a 5K run. She followed it up with box jumps and some speed jump roping.

When all of the Barbies were gassed she took them out to the Hollywood Hills and they ran up and down until all of them were drenched in sweat and out of breath. One by one the Barbies tapped out until Lyla, Julianne Hough and Nina Dobrev were left. It was only day one of the new cardio program and most of the Barbies had enough.

Kylie's Busy Day

Kylie Jenner's leadership was put to the test. In a matter of 8 hours, Kylie put out no less than 7 fires among her troubled fighters. Taylor Swift, Vanessa Hudgens, Zendaya Coleman, Paris Berelc, Selena Gomez all had issues that demanded Kylie's immediate attention and World of Fights Emma Watson brought in her monthly report. She also had to deal with her older sister Kim Kardashian who took Kylie to task for allegedly brokering a deal that would send her from Hellfire Girls Club to the Badass Barbies for one of the Badass Barbie's best fighters Dove Cameron.

Controversial Tactics - STOMPS

The Badass Barbies employed some unsavory tactics during the tournament that caused a lot of controversy afterwards. The usual head butts, crotch claws, eye pokes, and hair pulls were all employed and have become so common that they are an integral part of every fight. Many claimed that the Barbies crossed the line when they used head stomps and soccer kicks to the head to win some critical matches. While legal under the UCC rules of engagement most stables have shied away from the potential crippling moves. Miley Cyrus used multiple head stomps to win two of her matches on her way to the Featherweight Lingerie Title and Selena Gomez used a soccer kick to the head and a stomp to the face to finish off her hated rival Hilary Duff. Selena's dangerous moves caused a post fight melee that involved no less than 5 stables.

Halloween Party

After a strenuous tournament Kylie decided to let her fighters have some fun and threw them an exclusive Halloween Party. While not all of the Barbies enjoy Halloween, some like Kendall, Kylie, and Vanessa are known for their over the top elaborate costumes. The party turned out to be just what the bruised and battered fighters needed and Kylie decided to give them an extra week off before they started the preparation for their next event at the South Pole.

Superstar sports reporter Erin Andrews met with all of the fighters and as always, asked the probing questions. After not focusing on the fights in the last issue she decided to make the interviews all about the tournament. Erin interviewed the fighters after their fights and they let their true feelings known and held little back.

Featherweights

Erin: Congratulations, Olivia Holt. You finally did it.

Olivia: Thanks, it's been a long hard struggle but it's so worth it.

Erin: Let's go over your fights starting with your 1st opponent, Joan Small.

Olivia: I knew I had to start out fast knowing that it takes Joan a while to get going. My opening punch hit her hard in the ribs and I followed it up with an uppercut. After that it was only a matter of time.

Erin: Your 2nd round opponent, Diana Dahlgren, is an accomplished ground and pound fighter. How difficult is it to change strategies between fights?

Olivia: Extremely difficult. You get less than 90 minutes between fights so there's not a lot of time to prepare. Nobody will admit this but you have to look ahead and try and predict who you will be fighting in the upcoming rounds.

Erin: I think that's OK as long as you keep it to yourself.

Olivia: I knew that Diana Dahlgren is dangerous as Kelli Berglund found out. I felt that if I kept the fight at a distance then I could use my speed. That didn't go well as half of the fight was spent on my back. It takes a ton of energy to keep Diana off of you and you can't let up 1 second. As the fight dragged on I could feel that she was wearing down and by the 4th she looked spent. A quick atomic wedgie left her on wobbly legs and I just unloaded till she went down.

Erin: Nikki Leigh can be very dangerous on her feet or on the mat. How do you prepare for a well rounded fighter like Nikki?

Olivia: Like you said, Nikki is so good on the ground but doesn't like being on her back. Once I got on top I pounded away until the ref pulled me off.

Erin: You met teammate Cara Delevingne in the finals. I know you were expecting a close fight but you ended up scoring the most damage points in the entire tournament. Why were you so dominant?

Olivia: Cara was coming off a very grueling fight and had trouble from the opening bell. I said earlier that you normally get 90 minutes between fights but Cara went from 1 fight right into another.

Erin: Is it hard to fight a teammate when they really don't stand a chance?

Olivia: You can't let anything like friendships affect you in the cage, You have to go in there and do whatever it takes no matter who you fight. All I know is that I won the Featherweight Workout Attire Tournament. I like the sound of that.

Erin: You won Fight of the Night and gained the most ranking points and are currently the 22nd ranked Featherweight. Where do you see your going?

Olivia: I get to fight Audrey Allen at the South Pole. She worked over my legs until I couldn't stand the last time we fought so I'll have to come up with a better strategy.

Erin: Welcome, Miley Cyrus. I see you still have a big smile on your face.

Miley: It's going to be there for a long time.

Erin: You looked amazing but caused a lot of controversy with some head stomps.

Miley: I'm so tired of talking about this. Soccer kicks and head stomps are perfectly legal. I didn't do anything wrong.

Erin: Let's get to your fights starting with your opening round opponent Jessica Burciaga.

Miley: Jessica looked a bit shell shocked after taking some inside shots but she was still throwing down so when I got a chance I took her down. Once I fought my way to mount I locked on a triangle from mount and as soon as I started squeezing my legs around her neck she tapped.

Erin: Were you surprised that you were able to dominate Natalie Portman?

Miley: I totally was. Natalie has won a lot of fights since being signed by World of Fight. I thought that her speed would be an issue but once I tied her up I was able to control the fight. Then when she was on her back she was pretty much done. A stomp to the face then an elbow drop to the tits and it was all over. The ref wouldn't call so I stomped her face again.

Erin: Natalie's teammate Catrinel Menghia was the defending champion. Were you concerned?

Miley: I was until I hit her with a right that landed right on the button and down she went 19 seconds into the fight.

Erin: That left another top fighter in the finals. What was you plan against Centerfold Angel Audrey Allen, Miley: Normally I would try and stay away from her dangerous clinch but I got lucky that she was in a war with Gavintra Photijak. Those two beat the living shit out of each other and after watching I was almost positive I'd be fighting Gavintra. The judges saw it differently but I don't think it would have mattered either way, Both of them were beat up. Honestly I'd like to meet her again when we are both fresh. Audrey took a beating and the ref refused to stop it so I stomped her in the face and soccer kicked her in the head then looked at the ref and stomped her in the face again.

Erin: I'm sure you're not done hearing about that. You'll be fighting your teammate Cara Delevingne at the next event. Do you two train together?

Miley: We do but I'm sure Kylie will have us alternating schedules. Cara is amazing and I'll have to have a perfect fight to beat her.

Erin: Welcome, Cara Delevingne. How are you feeling?

Cara: Good until Livvy beat the snot out of me. Trowned my arse real good.

Erin: We'll get to that in a minute. Let's get to your opening opponent Jada Pinkett Smith.

Cara: Whenever you fight any of the In Yo Face Bitches you have to be ready to defend the submissions. I was able to keep her away with strikes and won with a picture perfect spinning back fist. Highlight reel material.

Erin: You struggled against your BlackPinks Jennie. Was it her speed that caused so much trouble?

Cara: I landed a lot of punches but few of them landed cleanly. On the score card I was easily winning but it took a lot of energy to put her away. When it was over I was drained. Even my panties were soaked.

Erin: Sara Underwood surprised everyone by winning her 1st 2 fights. What did she bring that gave you so much trouble?

Cara: Not sure but she was on target and threw down the entire fight. I felt that I won but the crowd had other ideas. You just hate to win while hearing the boos echoing throughout the arena.

Erin: That brings us to the finals against Livvy, Did you ever think of throwing in the towel and forfeiting the fight,

Cara: Are you on crack? Nobody in the UCC would ever throw in the towel. You'd never be able to live that down. I'd rather take a beating like I got than give up by throwing in the towel or tapping to strikes. Fuck that!

Erin: Welcome, Vanessa Hudgens. Nice job of making the finals.

Vanessa: Thank you, Erin. It's been a long time since I put together a 5 fight win streak. I only wish I had more left in the finals.

Erin: You talked a lot of shit before the tournament but were able to back it up. I thought Kylie banned you from the Forum.

Vanessa: Lets just say we came to an agreement.

Erin: As predicted, you beat your opening opponent.

Vanessa: I knew I was better than Vikki Blows but it did take longer than I planned to put her away. I tried to punch her out but had to submit her.

Erin: How about your 2nd round fight.

Vanessa: Queen of the Cages Mercedeh Allen is tough and made me work for the win. She's really strong but ran out of gas.

Erin: You predicted that you'd be fighting Kara Monaco but her teammate had a huge upset. How does that affect your preparation?

Vanessa: Carly Lauren is a really talented striker and we fought to a stalemate. I wasn't getting anywhere so I was forced to take her down and made her tap out to a rear naked choke.

Erin: Maisie Williams missed a few events but didn't miss a beat and looked sharp. She ended up winning a one sided decision. What gave you the most problems?

Vanessa: She is relentless and just comes forward throwing down. I did a good job at first but she wears you down and once she has you in trouble she's all over you. She'll be fighting for the title and I wouldn't bet against her.

Erin: Welcome Lucy Hale. I heard that you're not happy with your performance. Do you care to elaborate?

Lucy: It's not just the tournament. Not that long ago I was 7-1 and climbing up the ranking. Since then I'm 2-4 which is totally unacceptable.

Erin: You had a tough draw in the 1st round and had to fight Carrie Underwood. Did having to fight a quality opponent throw you off your game?

Lucy: You always want to have an easy first opponent but that's not always going to happen. Carrie made me work for the win but I still won.

Erin: Lisa from BlackPink really gave you fits. Were you not prepared for her?

Lucy: Sometimes you have one of those fights. Lisa was sharp and beat me to the punch. It was frustrating as I really wanted to make a run but it didn't go my way. I'd see an opening and throw a punch but before it connected she would pop me in the face or kick me in the leg. I'll have to live with the loss and go back and work on my striking.

Erin: You're still in the top 20 and will be fighting Sana from the Idols. What will you do to prepare for her?

Lucy: Sana is coming off tournament win in the Featherweight Mini Dress Division. She likes to use her fists from a distance and is also good in the clinch. I'll have to come in ready to do both or I'll get beat.

Erin: Thanks, Lucy and I'm sure you'll turn it around.

Erin: Next up we have one of the Bratz. Kelli Berlund. Kelli, the Bratz didn't have the best showing in the 3rd Tournament Series. What happened?

Kelli: Well, we're new and these tournaments are really really really hard.

Erin: You drew Fighting Academy's Dianna Dahlgren in the opening round and it didn't go well.

Kelli: That's an understatement. I felt I could use my striking and stay upright but Dianna didn't even let me get ready before she was all over me.

Erin: Maybe you're not quite ready for the UCC.

Kelli: I think I am. I just have to work on my takedown defense. Dianna took me down and never let me up until she pounded on my face and busted open a nasty cut over my left eye.

Erin: It looks like you are going to miss the next event. Did your cut require stitches?

Kelli: It was really bad after the fight. She just kept landing hammerfist to the same spot. My head was spinning and I almost passed out.

Erin: So no stitches?

Kelli: Actually 7 but they will dissolve in a couple of days. They say I can't train for a couple of weeks but I plan on working really hard. I'll be back stronger than ever.

Erin: Good luck but maybe tone down the rhetoric next time.

Kelli: Win or lose the Bratz aren't going away anytime soon.

Lightweights

Erin: First up we have Julianne Hough. Jules, you won your first two tournaments but fell short this time. Was anything different?

Julianne: I felt I was in shape and my cardio was good. I really liked my chances.

Erin: Let's start out with your 1st round challenger to your title.

Julianne: Danielle Campbell is always up for a fight. Fortunately I was able to tag her early and was able to get a quick KO.

Erin: What about Amped's Sky Ferreira?

Julianne: Sky can take a punch and I had to go into the 2nd before I was able to take her out.

Erin: That left your teammate Kristen Stewart.

Julianne: I love Kristen. I think this might be her 1st loss since joining us. She really gave me a fight and she took me into the 3rd.

Erin: That leaves Centerfold Angel Jayde Nicole. So far you were 5-1 in title fights only losing to number one ranked Hessa Hinton for the Lightweight Title. What did Jayde bring that gave you so much trouble?

Julianne: We fought for the title at the 2nd Tournament Series and it went to a decision. I won fairly easily but wasn't able to finish her. This time she had a completely different strategy and incorporated more kicks and knees. I felt I was still winning but not by much when she caught me with an uppercut and I felt my legs go and I fell on my back. Jayde was all over me and soccer kicked me on the side of the head and before I could regain my sense she finished me off with a stomp to the face.

Erin: Next up we have Dove Cameron. I'll bet you're glad to be done with the tournament.

Dove: Not sure what that's supposed to mean.

Erin: You have a 3rd round loss and 2 losses in the finals. Your only 3 losses in the UCC have come in the tournaments. Other than that you're undefeated.

Dove: Yeah that sucks but I'll have to do better next time.

Erin: Let's get into the fights.

Dove: Kerry Washington is not a good draw as she is hard to put away. I spent way too much energy trying to knock her out and finally had to submit her.

Erin: Now let's get to Happy Hour Fight Clubs Eva Lovia. She came out fast and really took the fight to you, Were you expecting such a tough opponent?

Dove: I was in the locker room after fighting Kerry and Kristen Stewart came up and warned me about Eva, Apparently she smoked Alicia Vikander. Just beat the crap out of her. I was feeling pretty fresh but wasn't ready for Eva.

Erin: You had to dig deep in the 5th. Did you feel you did enough to win?

Dove: I'm not going to lie. Eva was kicking my ass and I needed a 10-8 5th.

Erin: You had an easier time against Louisa Rose Allen but could get a KO.

Dove: I'm not proud of having to sit on her face to get a win but I had no choice.

Erin: You lost to the overall #1 ranked Jessa Hinton in the finals again.

Dove: I'll have to do better or switch to a different bracket. This is getting old.

Erin: Next Lightweight is Ashley Tisdale. How hard is it fighting a teammate in the 1st round?

Ashley: Not easy. I love Ashley Benson and we normally train together. I had to change up my training schedule which really threw me off.

Erin: You were able to control the fight but weren't able to put her away. Did you take it easy on her?

Ashley: Fuck no! You let up in any fight and you'll find yourself tits up looking at the lights. I fought my hardest but Ashley is good.

Erin: Next up was Sexy and Deadly Anya Charlota. Did you have any scouting on her?

Ashley: All I knew was that she was 3-0 and nobody had made it out of the 2nd round against her. She had two KO's and a submission so we knew she would be trouble.

Erin: You were able to win all phases of the fight and ended it with a swollen eye. Do you think it was bad enough to stop the fight?

Ashley: It was pretty bad. When you can't see then it becomes dangerous.

Erin: Unfortunately you ran into one of the hottest Lightweights. Karate Diva Elisabetta Gregoraci. You kept it close until the 4th when she took over. Do you feel it was a conditioning issue where you ran out of gas?

Ashley: It had nothing to do with conditioning. It had everything to do with her kicking my ass. She is on top of her game right now and ended up winning the tournament. Hats off to Elisabetta. She deserves it.

Erin: Madison Beer is our next Lightweight. Another tough tournament loss. Will you be doing anything differently for the 4th Tournament Series?

Madison: I've got to get better. I've yet to make it out of the 3rd round. It would be nice to finally win one or even get in the finals.

Erin: Celebrity Wrestling Federations Kleio Valentein has yet to win a fight but seems to enjoy fighting it out in the cage.

Madison: Yeah, she's scary as hell. All I wanted to do was to knock her out as soon as possible.

Erin: Your 2nd opponent Cristina Chiabotto from Italian Do It Better gave you all you could handle and took the fight to a decision. Did the 25 minute fight affect you in the 3rd round?

Madison: I'll never use that as an excuse because every fighter is in the same situation. This is the 2nd time we fought and the 2nd time we went the full 5 rounds. I had to come on strong but Cristina can take a punch.

Erin: Gemma Lee Farrel came out and took control from the opening bell. She was the fresher fighter and it showed as she had you on your heels. Did her aggressiveness take you by surprise?

Madison: Unfortunately I couldn't land any counters and she was all over me. Eventually it ended up on the ground where I didn't have any answers.

Erin: You get another shot at Rachel McAdams in Antarctica. What will you do differently this time?

Madison: Hopefully not get choked out this time.

Erin: Kristen Stewart is our next Lightweight. Welcome, Kristen.

Kristen: Thanks, Erin.

Erin: You fought the two Amy J's in the first two rounds. What are the differences between them?

Kristen: Totally different fighters. Muscles vs Karate. Not even close.

Erin: Were you surprised that you were stronger than Amy Jo Johnson?

Kristen: A little but us wiry girls are a lot stronger than we appear.

Erin: Karate Diva Amy Johnston is probably one of the most accomplished Karate practitioners in the world. How do you prepare for someone like her?

Kristen: By fighting her weakness. Obviously she can strike from a distance and her kicks are lethal so I knew if I tied her up and made it a tight brawl I would keep her from kicking me. It worked and she never was able to get on track and I wore her down in the clinch and then took her out on the mat.

Erin: Was the facesit a submission that you practice?

Kristen: I'm not sure how many Barbies would subject themselves to a facesit.

Erin: Aren't you worried about future retaliation from such a humiliating submission?

Kristen: It has nothing to do with humiliating Amy. I got on top of her and sat on her face until she tapped. It was up to her to stop me.

Erin: You didn't do so well against teammate Julianne Hough and she ended up ripping off your top. Were you alright with that?

Kristen: Like I said. It was up to me to stop her. Jules saw an opportunity and took advantage of it. Jules is one of the top fighters and I feel I did good to make it as long as I did.

Erin: Our next Lightweight is Paris Berelc. Paris, there has been a lot of talk going around about you and Melissa Claire Egan and fighting dirty. Kylie even sent you to In Yo Face Bitches to toughen you up and teach you how to fight dirty. How did that go?

Paris: OMG! I was taught by two of the best, Courtney Cox and Teri Hatcher. Both of them know every single dirty trick there is. They not only know how to fight dirty they also know how to get away with it.

Erin: Did you learn anything from them?

Paris: I ton, but it's going to take me years to get as good as them.

Erin: Your first opponent was Angelina Jolie from Strikeforce. Did you use any of your newly learned dirty tactics against her?

Paris: I only learned how to fight dirty in case someone else starts it.

Erin: It was a very close fight that went into the 4th round. Where did you learn that elaborate submission?

Paris: OK, as I was leaving IYFB's training facility, Leighton Meester took me aside and showed me this exotic submission. I couldn't wait to try out. When I saw Angelina Jolie's arm hanging in front of her, I leapt into the air, wrapped my leg around her right shoulder and twisted her to the mat with my shin pressed on her throat. As soon as I tightened it she let out this ear piercing scream and tapped out! I can't believe I pulled off a Flying Omoplata. Thanks, Leighton.

Erin: I know how badly you wanted to beat Salma Hayek so you could get another shot at Melissa but Salma proved to be too much for you and ended the fight by stomping on your face.

Erin: Our last Lightweight is Ashley Benson. Ash, was it hard fighting good friend Ashley Tisdale?

Ashley: All I know is that I have to go in there and do my best no matter who I had to fight. Obviously I would prefer to fight someone else.

Erin: You more than held your own and took the fight all the way to the judges decision. That has to be a win of sorts.

Ashley: It was a win for me as I feel I may have gained some respect. I'm still way down in the ranking but I know Kylie has faith in me and I will give it everything I have.

Erin: You'll be fighting Lost Wildcat Ourie Harada at the South Pole. What will you be working on?

Ashley: I can't give too much away but I'll be more than ready to beat her. She may have a better record than me but there is no way I can let her win. Not with so much at stake.

Erin: Does the recent brawl started by Hilary Duff play into this fight?

Ashley: Without a doubt. We hate them and they hate us. We were more than happy to let the feud go away but Hilary had to come over and attack Selena and pour gas into the fire. I'll be looking to take off Ourie's head and no doubt she'll be planning the same thing. I guess we'll see but it should be a good fight as we have very similar skills.

Erin: Hopefully they will have extra security in case it gets out of hand.

Middleweights

Erin: Moving on to our Middleweights let's start with Zendaya Coleman. Z, you had a pretty successful Tournament. Tell us about it.

Zendaya: Trish Stratus came out looking to take out my legs and I was feeling it right away. I was able to tie her up in the clinch and eventually knock her out with some knees to the face.

Erin: Next up was Centerfold Angel Kimberly Phillips who is always hard to prepare for because you never know what type a fighter you'll be facing.

Zendaya: Agreed. Sometimes Kimberly is a striker then the next event she is a ground and pound fighter. I was able to do what I do best and it worked out.

Erin: Hellfire Girls Club Scarlett Johanssen has been on top of her game and came in with a 5 fight win streak. What kind of problems did she pose?

Zendaya: I may have had 5 or so inches on her but she is a cagey veteran and has what it takes to beat anyone.

Erin: Luckily you used your reach to keep her at bay knocking her out without taking any damage. You must have liked your chances in the finals.

Zendaya: You can never feel good about fighting any of the World of Fight Middleweights. They currently hold the top 4 spots with Emma Watson and Bar Refeile fighting for the title. Isla Fisher is as dangerous as anyone but I felt that having 7 inches on her would give me a huge advantage. I was totally wrong and she was able to hit me when I thought I was out of range. Isla has short legs but she can still get them way above her head. She's also a good wrestler. Once she had me on my back she grabbed my top and with one swift tug she held it over her head while I did my best to cover up.

Erin: Kendall Jenner is our next fighter. Kenny, nice run but just like all of the Middleweights so far you fell short in the finals.

Kendall: Yeah, little sis isn't going to be all that happy about that.

Erin: It started out good and you had your way with Bianca Balti.

Kendall: You mean Italian Dream. I haven't seen her in ages but I easily took her out.

Erin: Next up was your big sis Kim Kardashian. Were you looking for some payback after losing to her in the Inaugural Tournament Series?

Kendall: It's always good to pay Kimmy back. I love her to death but she has to be one of the sorest losers of all time. Maybe worse than Donald Trump.

Erin: How did the fight go?

Kendall: Kim tagged me a few times and it took a while to recover. I'm not known for submissions so Kim was so pissed when I beat her with an armbar.

Erin: Your next opponent was Ms. Legs. How did you manage to get in a fight with Karen Gillan and not get kicked?

Kendall: Amazing, right. I don't think there is anyone who can punish you with her legs better than Karen. Somehow I managed to duck or deflect all 9 of her kicks and was able to counter with my punches.

Erin: That left the finals and the dangerous Middleweight Charlize Theron.

Kendall: Charlize is on fire right now. She is so hard to fight because she can mess you up in a boxing match and then take you down and make you tap. I thought I had her but she locked on a tight armbar and it was over.

Erin: Next we have Zara Larsson. Oh so close,

Zara: I know. I really thought I had it but I just didn't have enough in the end.

Erin: Let's start out with your 1st opponent Emily Didonato. The fight and your tournament run almost ended before it even started.

Zara: That was scary. Emily came out talking crap and before I got set she steps forward and fires a head kick that almost took my head off.

Erin: That was a nice come back. World of Fight Sabine Jemeljanova came in with a 3 fight streak; Does an opponent's win streak concern you?

Zara: It all depends on who it is. I was all business and went out to fight my fight and not let her get into my head.

Erin: You ended up winning with your 2nd straight Rear Naked Choke. Do we see a pattern here?

Zara: I never go into a fight trying to end it in a certain way. If I see that there is a choke open then I'll go for it.

Erin: You already fought Alexandra Burke in your UCC debut and won by a very controversial breast smother. Were you worried about retaliation?

Zara: It's not my concern. She lost to a titty smother. It's her problem not mine.

Erin: What did you know about finals opponent Heather Tom?

Zara: Other than what the Bratz said about them, nothing much. It was a good back and forth battle with me edging her out in the 1st and Heather winning the 2nd. The 3rd started and we both stepped in and started throwing down. It came down to who could land a lucky shot and unfortunately it was Heather.

Erin: Next up we have the giant slayer Sofia Richie.

Sofia: Oh, stop it.

Erin: Seriously, you just beat the #1 fighter in the UCC.

Sofia: It's not like I was kicking her butt. I hung in there and got in a lucky shot.

Erin: I think you have to give yourself a little credit. You were in the fight where a lot of fighters wouldn't have made it out of the 1st. You fought her well into the 3rd.

Sofia: I guess so.

Erin: Tell us about the big finish.

Sofia: Honestly, when the 3rd started Emma tried a calf kick and I barely missed with a counter hook that would have ended the fight. That gave me a lot of confidence and when she knocked me back with a hook she let her guard down. She came in and I caught her square with a hook. It felt good and I knew she was hurt. I had no idea she would go down for the count.

Erin: Scarlett Johanssen has been on point lately winning 4 in a row. Did you have trouble focusing on Scarlett after knocking Emma out?

Sofia: I really would have liked to build on that and I thought I had Scarlett in trouble but she was able to survive and came back to knock me around the cage.

Erin: You did open her up and the ref could have easily stopped the fight.

Sofia: I was hoping but the ref let the fight go on. Scarlett gave me a lesson in clinch fighting. My ribs and tits are going to be bruised for weeks.

Welterweights

Erin: Shailene Woodley is next. Why do you feel you struggle at the tournaments?

Shailene: I wouldn't say I struggle. I made 2 finals.

Erin: But you are 0-3 and the finals and to be honest, they haven't been close. Do you think Kylie's new conditioning program is going to help?

Shailene: My cardio is just fine, Erin

Erin: Let's get to your fights.

Shailene: Let's. I was able to handily punch out Teilor Grubbs in the 1st and landed a big knee to Kiera Knightley's chin, also knocking her out in the 1st.

Erin: That set the stage for your 3rd fight with Leryn Franco. How do you face a rival like Leryn knowing how hard it is to beat anyone for the 3rd time?

Shailene: I guess you could call it a rivalry but the fights weren't all that close.

Erin: Were you put off when Leryn talked a lot about facing Kira Kosarin?

Shailene: Kira is the champ you know. I was more upset seeing that we came in at even odds. I beat her twice and we're even? Fuck that.

Erin: Kennedy Summers came in and never let up. Were you ready for such an aggressive blitz?

Shailene: Once she locked me in the clinch I just couldn't get away. She got me on my back and pounded me into the mat. Congrats to Kennedy.

Erin: You will fight Karate Diva Lulu Antariksa at the South Pole. You beat her in her last fight when she was with the Vixens. Any thoughts?

Shailene: Lulu is very talented. The Karate Diva's will have her ready.

Erin: Next up is troublemaker Selena Gomez.

Selena: What do you mean by that? I'm not a troublemaker, am I?

Erin: You've gotten into fights with Amber Heard and stomped Hilary Duff.

Selena: Oh yeah but Amber attacked me and Hilary so had it coming.

Erin: That may be but trouble seems to follow you around.

Selena: And they pay the price for messing with me, don't they?

Erin: Let's get to your fights starting with AJ Lee.

Selena: AJ has some amazing muscles. They didn't do her any good though.

Erin: Next was Hilary. Were the soccer kicks and face stomps really needed?

Selena: OMG! They are PERFECTLY LEGAL! Hilary should take it up with the UCC and quit crying like a little baby bitch. I'll do it again if she doesn't shut up!

Erin: You handily beat Doutzen Kroes twice and were the favorite again. What happened?

Selena: I got sloppy and she knocked me out. I've been beating myself up about it ever since.

Erin: You were taking the fight to her and were out striking her 30 to 1 and came close to submitting her with a head scissors and a rear naked choke.

Selena: And she was bleeding all over and the fight should have been stopped. Oh, and I also made her cry like a baby. I was winning but I have to give her credit. She took advantage and knocked me out. Nothing against Doutzen. I fucked up and she beat me. Trust me, it won't happen again.

Erin: Next up we have Nina Dobrev. Congrats on winning the Welterweight Mini Dress Tournament. I know you really wanted this.

Nina: It feels so good to finally come out winning your last fight.

Erin: All 4 of your wins were by submission. Have you been training with Pye?

Nina: Oh that's funny. I always try to get submissions. I think that was my 9th.

Erin: Let's start with your opening round opponent Melissa Benoist.

Nina: I really used my striking but she wouldn't go down so I grabbed her top and ripped it off.

Erin: Your next victim was Lacey Chabert.

Nina: Victim? Lacey is never a victim.

Erin: Sorry. But that was a picture perfect Americana. Centerfold Angel Alyssa Arce won her 1st 4 fight using some impressive striking. What problems did she pose?

Nina: She can throw down and had me guessing. I finally went all out and locked her in a Flying Triangle Choke.

Erin: That amazing submission got you in the finals against Charlotte Casiraghi. Were you surprised to be fighting her?

Nina: Not after seeing her beat Kayslee Collins, Sophie Monk, and Megan Fox.

Erin: She had a 5 fight win streak by using her striking. Did that concern you?

Nina: I felt I was better but they had the fight a toss up. I really wanted to show that I could box and think I proved that. When I saw her arm out in the open I had to lock her in a kimura.

Erin: Next we have Jordyn Jones. How is your neck doing?

Jordyn: It's OK now but it really felt like it was broken.

Erin: You look fine to me. Do you think you should have tapped out a little quicker?

Jordyn: I tried but Tracy Bregman didn't give me a chance. She told the world that she was going to break my neck and then did her best to do it.

Erin: I think you're making way too much out of this. She submitted you with a rear naked choke. She didn't try to break your neck.

Jordyn: You weren't there. It was so frightening.

Erin: You do know you're that you'll probably be submitted again.

Jordyn: That's what Kylie keeps saying.

Erin: Let's get to your fight. You were actually winning and had Tracy in deep trouble.

Jordyn: I know. I hit her like 40 times and I had her face covered in blood. It was kind of gross but I kept hitting her over and over again.

Erin: She went for a head kick and slipped.

Jordyn: It was probably from all of the blood on the mat. I really didn't want to wrestle her on the ground because all she wanted to do is try her stupid submissions. I was able to stop them but she was covered in blood and I didn't want that all over me. I tried to drop a knee to her stomach but missed. I got up and tried a leg drop and just missed her chest then she tried to break my neck.

Erin: Bella Thorne finally won a tournament fight. It must feel pretty good to finally get the monkey off your back so to speak..

Bella: I don't have a clue what you're talking about. A monkey?

Erin: It's just a saying about feeling pressure and having a monkey . . oh, you'll never get it.

Bella: What ev.

Erin: Let's get to your fight. You fought Erin Heatherton in the 1st Tournament and she put a beat down on you. What did you do differently this time?

Bella: The first time we met was my first fight for the Barbies. I had a lot to process and didn't last very long. This time I was better prepared. I won by giving her a swollen eye.

Erin: Nicolette Sheridan brought in a 3 fight win streak and her last 5 wins have come by submission, some of them in spectacular fashion. How did you prepare for her?

Bella: I knew I had to keep her off my legs and away from my hair and keep it standing. I punched her lights out then beat her at her own game.

Erin: Was a facesit really necessary?

Bella: Come on now Erin. You know me by now. Of course it was.

Erin: Willa Holland stole the headlines by beating Irina Shayk and Teri Hatcher. Did you see her advancing past them?

Bella: Willa is talented but I felt I was beating her. Our striking was pretty even and I almost submitted her a few times before she exploded and KO'd me.

Heavyweights

Erin: Our 1st Heavyweight is my boss, Kylie Jenner. Way to go, Kylie.

Kylie: Thanks, Erin. I really needed this after falling short in the last 2.

Erin: Your 1st opponent was Kacey Musgraves from the Jugg-Inators. Did you hold a grudge against her seeing that she was once on the Awesome Aries?

Kylie: Hell no. She was smart enough to get out of that dump.

Erin: That was an easy win. Proud Legs Vivian Gephart proved to be a challenge. Did she surprise you with her stroking?

Kylie: Did you watch the fight? She barely touched me before I pounded her face in then ended the fight with a head kick.

Erin: You got a chance to get some revenge on Bebe Rehxa who ended your 2nd tournament by winning a one-sided fight. How badly did you want to pay her back especially after having her steal your style in the past?

Kylie: All of that is water under the bridge. Bebe is her own woman now and is an entrepreneur and a voice for women in music.

Erin: Another head kick, another KO. Are we seeing a pattern here?

Kylie: Ever since I had a trainer come in and work on our legs, you remember the Toned Legs Contest that followed, I've been using more kicks.

Erin: That left you to fight Manuela Arcori from the Karate Divas for her title. You were a bit put off by her earlier comments in TKO and came out and really took the fight to her beating her around the cage. Did she make it personal?

Kylie: Maybe. I already beat her ass once and all she talked about was beating Gabrielle Reece and how Gabby was the best Heavyweight. I didn't plan to injure her again but now she'll have a month or two to think about me.

Erin: Hailee Steinfeld was the 2nd Heavyweight to make the finals. You had a good tournament for a change.

Hailee: For a change?

Erin: This is the furthest you made it. You had a 1st and a 2nd round loss in your previous 3 tournaments.

Hailee: OK, I did do better this time.

Erin: Yvonne Strahovski is known for her submissions but you submitted her.

Hailee: Sometimes submission specialists aren't the best at defending and get tapped out. You know, go against your opponent's strength.

Erin: Next up was World of Fights Mischa Barton who is never an easy fight.

Hailee: She made me work for it and it took everything I had to win.

Erin: That left Queens of the Cage Blanka Vlasic who had a 5 fight win streak and 3 straight 1st round KO's. What were you expecting from Blanka?

Hailee: You know I had a 5 fight win streak also. Blanka was a big fight for me to prove that I could beat a top 10 fighter.

Erin: That left an unknown for the finals. Royal Fighting Society's Princess Charlene of Monaco won her 1st 3 fights against some really good fighters. Jessica Ashley, Dua Lipa, and Susanna Tirpak were all easily beaten. Were you surprised to be fighting her?

Hailee: Not after hearing that. I felt that I had a good shot but her striking is amazing, especially her kicks. Charlene deserves the title for sure.

Erin: Our last Heavyweight is Taylor Swift. Everyone was really worried about you and your 4 fight losing streak. Glad to see you back.

Taylor: Glad to be back now that I can see again.

Erin: You took care of your first opponent Shay Mitchell. How did it feel finally getting a win?

Taylor: Awesome. I only wish I could have knocked her out instead of having to rip off her top. Shay does have amazing tits though.

Erin: A win is a win. Next up was Ameerah al-Taweel from the Royal Fighting Society. Did you know anything about her before getting into the cage?

Taylor: All I know is that she stomped out Sophie Turner and won 2 in a row, I used my striking to wear her down then made her submit to an armbar.

Erin: That left you to fight Karate Diva Megan Gale who came in with a 3 fight win streak and was fresh off a complete drubbing over top 10 Jasmina Marazita. You already beat Megan once but she is clearly a lot better now. What kind of strategy did you use against Megan?

Taylor: By the time you get to the 3rd round you just go out there and see what happens. Megan was still fresh and threw a lot of strikes and wanted to fight in the clinch but I dictated the fight and kept it at a distance. I was able to land a lot of combos and I could see that my leg kicks were causing a ton of damage. By the middle of the 3rd round I could tell she had had enough of me. I unloaded a barrage of punches and she hit the canvas like she got shot.

Erin: I think I heard some complaining that Megan was not officially wearing an Evening Gown and that her short dress gave her a mobility advantage.

Taylor: I didn't notice and if the UCC management allowed it then I guess she can wear the dress. It really didn't make a difference in our fight.

Erin: That left Stephanie McMahon in the finals. How surprised were you to find out that you'd be fighting someone as big and talented as Stephanie?

Taylor: Scared. She really has it all and when I found out she came out of retirement I knew she would be quickly climbing up the rankings. I knew she'd be coming after me looking for a submission seeing that she had 5 of them in her first 5 fights. All of them in the 1st round. Now everyone knows I have strong legs but once she secured a leglock I had to tap out before she broke my leg. What a beast.
