

Broadcast Journalism - Multi-Level

Learning Goals-Students will...	Key Questions/Talking Points for Families	Important Assessments and Resources
Know • How to save and organize files • How to prepare and share work for evaluation • How to produce a news story/ news program	• Who is the intended audience for the program? • What is newsworthy? • How do you tell a story that will appeal to the intended audience?	Assessments • Projects: ◦ News story segments
Understand • The importance of being a productive and efficient computer user. • The phases of video production		Resources Teachers and contact: Eric Larson b11elars@mpspride.org 860-647-3508
Do • Use video editing software to produce news stories.		