

Hi [Manager's Name],

I'd love to expense my subscription to Smart & Stylish, the paid newsletter by Gazette Gal. It's a weekly briefing designed for women who want to stay ahead of the curve—part Vogue, part Business Insider. It covers everything from trend forecasting to brand strategy, consumer insights, and remote job opportunities—all through a lens that's both stylish and smart.

The annual subscription is $50 and includes:

- Weekly Trend Reports on fashion, culture, wellness, and lifestyle
- Smart Girl Intel: deep dives into business, brand strategy, and market shifts
- Consumer news + brand case studies
- Curated product and lifestyle recommendations
- A Job Board with 15+ vetted remote roles across creative, marketing, and media industries

This newsletter is especially relevant to my role, as it helps me stay current on trends, sharpen my strategic thinking, and tap into actionable insights across industries. Given the professional relevance and value it adds, I'd love to expense this resource through [Company Name].

Thanks so much for considering!

Best,
