NOTES* 📌

📢 Audio 1- Surah Al-Qasas

📖 Verses 43-83

♦ Sometimes we are doing righteous deeds but people keep harrasing us or distracting us because they are not seeking the truth so stay calm with them avoiding argument.

♦ This world is temporary so we have to sacrifice it for the eternal joy of the Hereafter.

♦ Allah سبحانه وتعالى made days and nights for us so that we should plan our schedule accordingly and extract maximum barakah from them.

♦ We must share those blessings with others which Allah سبحانه وتعالى has showered upon us either material or spiritual.

♦ Besides this we should also be grateful and humble to Allah سبحانه وتعالى and never credit every achievement to ourselves.

♦ We will be the true اولو العلم, we should apply and spread it once the people of knowledge, we have gained instead of just storing in the brain.

♦If we will be content towards our problems here, Allah will compensate them on the Day of Judgement. So we should not strive for the praises and greatness in this life but up in the skies.

♦Allah سبحانه وتعالى still showers blessings upon us many times even when we don't expect, He will give us better than these
