

EMPEROR TIER FAQ AND TERMS

!! If you have or are planning on joining the Emperor Tier for my patreon, please carefully read everything below! I'm always available for questions either via patreon DM, discord, or email: billiemontfort@gmail.com !!

PLEASE NOTE examples below have NSFW content in some of them

Also, PLEASE be aware that while it's fine for other tiers to fill out the monthly forms throughout the month, for this tier I will need forms to be filled out ASAP, just so I have time to work on the reward.

How It Works

Towards the beginning of the month I'll make a post with a link to a form-- this form will ask you for your name, your patreon username, email, and for any visual reference of your chosen character (if they're an oc)! This form will also give you chance to choose between--

◆ Full Illustration ◆

Illustrations will have clean lines, and fully polished rendering with complex lighting and background props.

Comic pages will be fully colored with a simple coloring style. Single page only, with 4-5 panels—number of characters will depend on the subject of the comic page!

Details

- ★ You can select for me to either draw an OC or fanart (series doesn't matter!)
 - ★ They can be any kind of beast, monster, non-human or humanoid!
- ★ Yes these can be NSFW (Illustrations are intended to be single character only, but I can include partials of other characters. Comic Pages are allowed to have multiple characters, depending on the request)

- ★ These MUST have some kind of reference! These are not design comms, I'm only going to draw characters that are already created.
- ★ I WILL NOT draw any underage characters
- ★ I WILL NOT draw transformers for these
- ★ Complexity fees MAY apply to some characters For example— characters like robots, complicated armor/clothing, angel wings, lots of intricate patterns. If I feel like a complexity fee needs to be applied, I will come to you and talk about it! If you're not sure if it would apply to your character, please feel free to ask!
- ★ FOR COMIC PAGES: you are not required to supply a script, only a general idea! If you have something super specific in mind (or specific dialogue) we can discuss it over discord or DMs.
- ★ What if I want alts for an illustration? I will do alts, like non-cum/cum, preg, cumflation, or x-ray overlay for an additional fee. Alts will generally be between 25-50USD, depending on what you'd like.
- ★ Can I combine two monthlies, like with other tiers? It really really depends on what else I have going on, we can discuss it!

Terms

- ★ I will make a post on patreon every month on the 5th, accessible only to those on Emperor Tier with a link to the form!
- ★ You MUST use the form provided!! Please do not send requests to me via patreon DM or discord! I have very bad adhd and using the forms helps me stay organized! You can still ask me questions about your monthlies there, however!
- ★ I will be posting art on my own accounts, but you can totally post any art you get from me on your own social media, as long as you credit me!
- ★ Once you get your art you can turn it into icons or banners or basically do anything with it, as long as you don't claim the art is something you did yourself.
