

---

Facilitators: The Reading Circuit and EdLighten Solutions

Spring Semester 2024

Professional Learning Community for Educator Preparation Program Faculty

AGENDA - Session 7

Wednesday, April 10th, 2024 9:30 am - 11:00 am

| TIME     | TOPIC                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|----------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 9:30 am  | Who is facilitating today's PLC?Welcome from Leandra, Mary, and Annie, and introduction of Christina Cassano from Salem State University                                                                                |
| 9:35 am  | What has been discussed in the PLC so far?Brief introduction to Reading Universe and Cox Campus as resources                                                                                            |
| 9:45 am  | What are some resources and responses from DESE?Siobhan Allen from DESE will share up-to-date resources and provide some answers to questions raised by participants in previous sessions.                                              |
| 9:55 am  | Other than coursework, what are the other aspects of educator preparation programs?Christina Cassano from Salem State University will share how their program has approached field-based experiences and school-university partnerships |
| 10:10am  | What are some challenges and pathways through the process of changing field-based experiences?Christina will share some of Salem State's experiences.                                                                                   |
| 10:30 am | What can we learn from one another's experiences of building effective field-based partnerships with school districts?Sharing areas of current strength and areas of need in participants' educator preparation programs                |
| 10:55 am | What can we expect at the next session?Preview of our final session!                                                                                                                                                                    |