To whom it may concern,

I am an experienced teacher looking to relocate to the San Luis Obispo area to be closer to my wife's family in Bakersfield. I had the privilege of teaching English in North Carolina for four years and have loved every single moment. I am passionate about teaching, care deeply about students, and love to see them mature and grow under my leadership.

I have Bachelor's degrees in English and Religion and I will complete with my Master's degree in Religion in August. I am also awaiting scores to be National Board certified in English.

My resume includes information about many of my accomplishments including Teacher of the Year, the various workshops I have led at the district and state level, and my work as a curriculum consultant for the school district's implementation of Common Core.

I have also created a professional portfolio website that gives a fuller picture of who I am as a teacher. Please review at: https://sites.google.com/site/teachingasawayoflife/.

I can be reached by phone at (555) 555-5555 or via email at andrewchilton123@gmail.com. I look forward to speaking to you about how I can serve your community in the near future.

Sincerely,

Andrew Chilton
