About the “I Have A Dream” Foundation:

The “I Have A Dream” Foundation's mission is to empower children from under-resourced communities to succeed in school, college, and career by providing long-term academic, social, and emotional support from elementary school through college, along with the promise of guaranteed post-secondary scholarship assistance. The national organization, founded in 1981 by entrepreneur Eugene Lang, began with one class of sixth graders in East Harlem and has grown to impact the lives of more than 20,000 students in nine states and New Zealand. The program supports youth “from first grade to a first job,”—resulting in students who earn bachelor’s degrees at a rate over 3x that of their peers.
