

Procedure for Selecting Honorary Membership

Criteria

To be eligible for honorary membership in the Kentucky Association of Family, Career and Community Leaders of America, a candidate must:

- have helped advance the homemaking program on the State level and/or
- have rendered outstanding service on the State level to the family, Career and Community Leaders of America

Chapter Level

Changed by Executive Council, September 1974, due to change in State Meeting data.

- A form to be used by chapter in recommending a person for state Honorary Membership is found in the Chapter Calendar. Each chapter may recommend one person and send this recommendation to the State Adviser by February 15.

State Level

The State Executive Council and Advisory Board may each recommend two persons for honorary membership. (Policy added by Executive Council, February 1969.) These would be persons other than local advisers who have contributed on the State level and whose contributions may not be known to chapters.

- The State President, after consulting with the State adviser, shall appoint a committee composed of:
 - 2 Representatives of the State Executive Council
 - A representative of a regional organization
 - A representative of the State Advisory Board
 - The State Adviser or another member of the State Staff
 - A person who is an honorary member of the Kentucky association of FCCLA
 - The State President may serve as an ex-officio member
 - This committee shall meet after March 15 and prior to the State Meeting.
 - This committee will review all recommendations including those from chapters.
 - No more than four persons may be selected for honorary membership by this committee.
 - Persons selected will be notified and invited to attend the State Meeting when honorary memberships will be conferred upon them.
