Supplies:

- Stamp Sets: Island Vibes (158096) (Sale-a-bration set)
- Cardstock: Basic White (159276), Crumb Cake (120953), Evening Evergreen (155574)
- Ink: Evening Evergreen (155576), Bumblebee (153116)
- Tools & Accessories: Dimensionals (104430), Multipurpose Liquid Glue (110755), Stampin' Cut & Emboss Machine (149653), Bone Folder (102300), Paper Trimmer (152392), Gingham Embossing Folder (157627), In the Tropics Dies (151495), Stitched So Sweetly (151690)
- DSP: Artfully Composed DSP (157750)

Measurements:

- Crumb Cake: 8 ½" x 5 ½", scored at 4 ¼"
- Evening Evergreen: 5 ¼" x 4"
- DSP: 3 ¾" x 2 ¾" and 3 ¾" x 2"

Instructions:

- Glue 2 pieces DSP to Evening Evergreen and emboss with Gingham Embossing Folder
- Glue onto card base
- Stamp pineapple on Basic White using Bumblebee for bottom and Evening Evergreen for leaves. There are 3 different ways to do this:
 - Color stamp using Stampin' Write Markers
 - Use sponge daubers to color your stamp
 - Or do what I did: cut up your pineapple stamp to make 2 pieces!
- Cut out using Stitched So Sweetly Dies
- Pop up and adhere to card using dimensionals
- Cut out "aloha" from Evening Evergreen scrap using In the Tropics Dies and glue onto pineapple using tiny dots of glue
