

it ended up being a google doc and not a pdf file because for some reason it didnt wanna let me put in a pdf file which is super dumb

i also hope i havent made you tooooooooo mad with the amount of things you had to do to get to this document, i tried making it not super hard :3 i still apologise :c

there are also comments to some of the things that have been said here so for more context you could use the comments because sometimes i write without context, if that makes sense???

i also apologise that this letter could have been written by hand but i do promise to send you letters, i have ordered stamps but idk if they'll be useful because if you plan to come here i can hand deliver these letters, well i could also hand deliver the letters to brighton like this one, well this one on puter:3 richard is also trying to bite my ethernet cable so i might be limited on time, i also apologise if im writing bad of my spelling might bad, for some reason I CAN NOT turn on spell check idk why and im a little sleepy so yeah the pins i gave you i also have ones like that, and we will have matching pins!!1 i have a lego flower, you'll have a lego heart, and you have a cricket in leaves i believe and i also have one kinda just not in leaves, so now when i look at my pins i can think of you too which is yayyayyay. i also do hope you enjoyed the cypher stuff cuz it a little silly i think, and also please do tell me when you do read this document because i dont get notified when this document is opened or if you continued through the stages through the website.

i think you're super cool, and i know i have said this a couple times but i do really mean it, now that i think about it, cool is a bit of an understatement. you are beautiful, handsome, pretty - like imagine a list i'd click the all of the above option because you literally are all of the above. you make me really happy as a person and i'm glad that i have met someone like you. you mentioned that you are very fond of me, you donot understand how fond i am of you, i might sound crazy but like i like when i get notifications from you, i like when i talk to you, i like it so much, and i really like thinking about you. sometimes i just think about what music are you listening to? what are you doing? how are you feeling? where are you walking? how is work? i think about so much and it is nice how it occupies me sometimes because i get to think about a person i like and then i can ask these questions, sometimes i don't ask these questions because i just get happy by just looking at your texts - like feet kicking in the air happy, like you know when you are laying in bed and then you start kicking your feet (YEAH). richard is watching me while i hit my keyboard really loudly but yeah like uhhh - if you conclusion: you're really cool and i would want to send a bunch of kisses or give give would be way better like idk if on the cheek or on the mouth ill see

mwah,
lilly

i have also shared it so you can comment on stuff if you want to, i have also saved a copy of this if anything were to happen to this one
