

Introduction

What @Derparino Did to Me

And their apologist Cyber / @defaultfurr who has spread my rape without consent.

CONTENT WARNING

This document contains discussions and descriptions of sexual assault, sexual coercion, drugging, fetish discussion, racism, ableism, and victim blaming.

Please read with care.

A TL;DR OF THE FOLLOWING DOCUMENT

My name is Captain Steve. I'm a 22 year old disabled, nonbinary & transmasculine Hispanic fursuiter.

Around the 15th to the 16th of September 2024 I was coerced into sexual acts by Derparino while high and without a ride home. We had previously discussed hanging out. I had only consented to Derp touching me in a non-sexual manner as I was touch starved. I had multiple times stated my lack of interest in anything sexual.

We got to her house, she offered me an edible and I took it. Only after the edible started kicking in, she asked about showering together. You cannot consent after getting high. I nervously replied "maybe/no" as I had previous sexual trauma and had gotten out of a traumatic situation months prior. I said I didn't want to do much except for the shower, nothing sexual. Derp reassured me "we don't have to do anything", but she then began to repeatedly beg and plead for sexual favors such as giving her a blowjob in the shower. I eventually gave in and we got into the shower together.

This is a common tactic in rape culture. A forced yes while drugged isn't consent.

From there, I was forced to give a blowjob. I absolutely hated it and kept trying to throw up. When we got back to their room I fell asleep. The next day Derp just didn't seem to want to let me be unless we had sex as she kept touching me inappropriately or leading my hand to inappropriate places.

I just wanted to go home by this point. Derp still wanted more and forced upon me again. She didn't use a condom. This resulted in a pregnancy scare that thankfully didn't go anywhere. There was a power imbalance as I didn't own a car, so Derp picked me up and took me back home. I couldn't do much to get out of the situation. It seemed like they kind of just didn't care. They only really tried to pry about sexual interactions.

This is not the first time Derp coerced me. Some time before this incident, around late 2023, Derp coerced me into taking a fetish too far twice. One of those times resulted in me projectile vomiting.

Forced coercion is a problem because of intentional steps Derp took to take advantage of me. She did it by getting me high, without a ride home and in a cramped shower on the pretense it wouldn't lead to sex when I had said, while sober and before I came over, I was not interested in sex.

I understand misunderstandings can happen, we have all had those. Derp's behavior, however, was calculating, predatory and persistent. That is the difference here.

Derp and I's once mutual friend, Cyber / Defaultfurr, has taken it upon herself to retell my trauma to people and blame me for what happened. Cyber harassing me and telling people about my trauma has triggered multiple episodes where I relive my trauma as a C-PTSD survivor.

This escalated from a small dispute between her and another friend of ours. I didn't immediately jump to either side as I was present for when the dispute took place but she couldn't prove her allegations she was making. Since I wouldn't take their side in this dispute, they retaliated against me.

Cyber has made false sexual assault allegations in our local community against people she wishes to isolate. They have also blackmailed, stalked, harassed, and threatened people to get their way. She has also made people feel uncomfortable with their usage of slurs. Alongside these things, Cyber has been proven to stand up for people who are a danger to our community.

ON MY CONDITION OF C-PTSD

I deal with C-PTSD (complex post-traumatic stress disorder) and live with it everyday. C-PTSD is a disorder resulting from experiencing chronic trauma over a long period of time. My C-PTSD causes me a lot of distress including panic attacks, flashbacks, and nightmares. C-PTSD also affects emotional regulation and can cause issues keeping relationships. This is why I stay attached while seeing the red flags, it makes me vulnerable to manipulation and coercion.

In this situation, I feel like this context matters. Derp utilized my vulnerability, especially as I had just gotten out of a traumatic housing situation some months prior and she knew of this.

CONCERNING MY MEDICAL PHOBIA

This is another aspect of myself that I believe will be important to this document. I've been asked why I haven't gotten a rape kit quite a few times, here's the answer:

I have a severe phobia of medical related things. I am not antivaxx and I believe medical science is great. However, I'm terrified of medical procedures due to the medical neglect I endured as a child.

Doing a rape kit right after everything felt like a terrifying, shameful, and humiliating thing, especially as a transmasculine person. It took me a week or 2 before I could even tell one of my friends what had happened, I was having such a hard time processing it.

I was also uninsured, and a rape kit taken at an ER would've required money I didn't have.

BEFOREHAND

This document is a part of my own healing journey, this is not your entertainment or juicy gossip. If you're here to just treat this as a spectacle, keep in mind this is my very real trauma I have to live with. You can leave now.

This isn't just a story nor something I made up for attention. This happened to my own body, I didn't even have the basic control of deciding who I told my rape to as it was decided for me. I'm still living, breathing, and working with the same mind this happened to. Read this with the care it deserves or you don't need to read it at all.

I've had good friends tell me this isn't selfish. I deserve to be able to enjoy the furry fandom without feeling the anxiety I often do. I feel afraid almost every time I go to a meet or convention despite still trying to love furry. I never know if another person is going to hurt me like that again or is even gonna report back to my rapist.

An experience like this stays with you.

I deserve a little more peace of mind and for my rapist to stop being apologized for. Derp will forever be one of the scariest people in the fandom to me, and I wish to stop feeling fear when it comes to her and this topic.

PLEASE DO NOT DIRECT TRANSPHOBIA TOWARDS DERP AND CYBER. Trans people are people, and because of that trans people are still capable of saying and doing terrible things. Please do not misgender, dehumanize, or otherwise invalidate their identities or transness. Gender is not a privilege that you can take away from someone. Being transphobic like this also prevents us from talking about bad actors within the LGBTQ+ community and lets them get away with more.

Any misgendering, transphobia, or enbyphobia towards Derparino and Cyber will NOT be tolerated.

Derparino

FIRST SEXUAL EXPERIENCE (~ LATE 2023)

Derparino (a.k.a. Derp) and I had been friends prior but nothing had escalated to sexual experiences until late 2023 when we discovered we both had a shared fetish, inflation. Before then, our interactions were non-sexual aside from maybe an occasional dirty joke or mention.

Content warning: there is discussion of vomiting in this section.

Derp immediately took interest in talking about it and I was also interested as someone newer to the kink scene. We discussed possibly trying out some IRL inflation play. One day, we did. Derp wanted to give me Dr. Pepper and Mentos. I agreed to try one Mentos and only some Dr. Pepper, just to ease myself into it. However, Derp pressured me to take more, saying things such as “Don’t you want more?”. I gave in even though I had wanted to take things slow. It ended up getting so bad I projectile vomited all over the room. It felt like my insides were coming up, it was excruciating and the inside of my nose burned. I cannot remember much after this other than Derp cleaning up the vomit. I think I was dissociating by then.

Admittedly, I don’t have screenshots for this as I had backed up my Telegram chat logs with Derp, but the hard drive I had them on died in 2024. I didn’t screenshot these things while backing up logs as I never wanted to share my inflation experience, even if it did endanger me. I have felt embarrassed and ashamed of my kinks and interests often.

SECOND SEXUAL EXPERIENCE (~A LITTLE AFTER THE FIRST EXPERIENCE)

I decided to go back despite what occurred last time, as I was feeling lonely and felt Derp was a friend. I felt like Derp couldn't have endangered me and pressured me on purpose. I rationalized it as a misunderstanding. I also thought of Derp as the only other person I knew who was into similar things.

Derp wanted to do inflation play using their shower hose. I did initially consent to this, but as it went on it felt like too much. Derp kept encouraging me, though, and wanted me to go on despite the fact I was still new and uncomfortable. Luckily, I was able to just say enough was enough this time and I stepped out of the shower. I did consent to further sexual activity afterwards, as long as it wasn't more inflation as I felt bloated. That seemed to be fine with Derp.

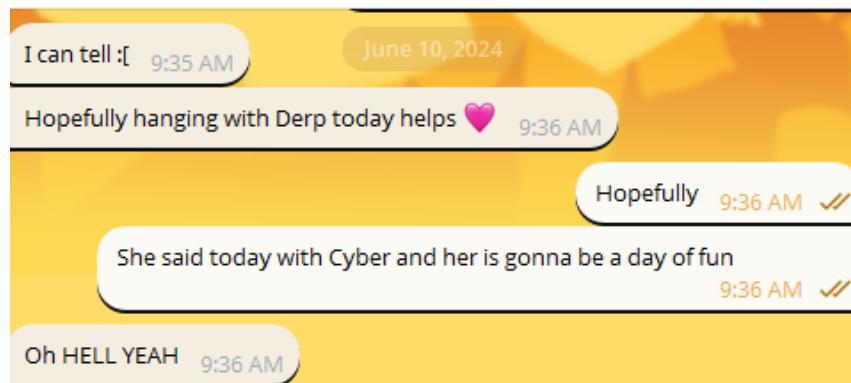

I'm putting this experience here as it establishes Derp having a pattern.

MY THIRD SEXUAL EXPERIENCE (~SEPTEMBER 2024)

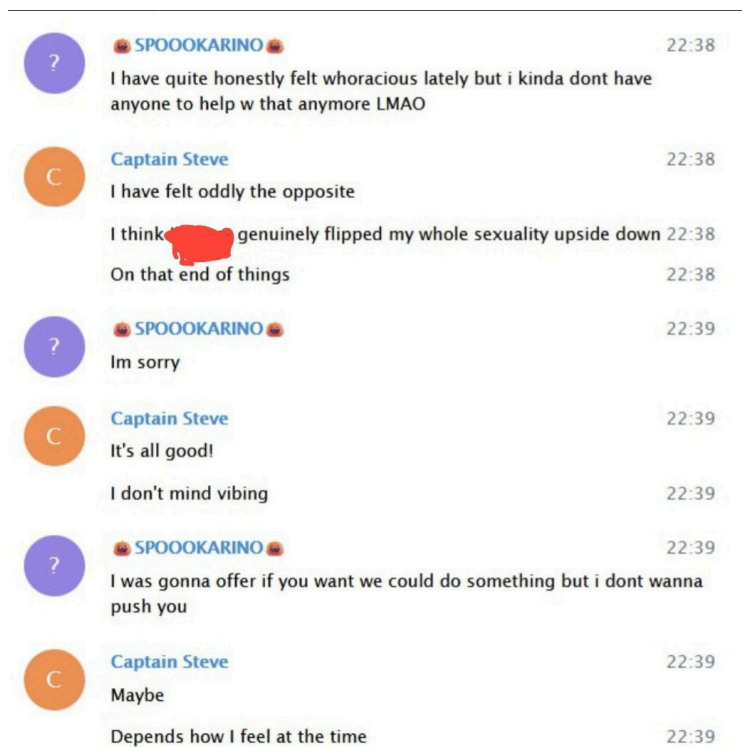

Content warning: This section contains discussion and descriptions of sexual assault, sexual coercion, drugging, and vomiting.

I had just gotten away from a traumatic housing situation a few months prior in April. Derp hadn't talked to me for a bit but popped up again around September in my DMs. I was feeling very lonely and still scared as I was being harassed by other furries during this time due to the aforementioned housing situation. I felt like Derp reaching out was a good thing, especially as I was on good terms with Derp's then-partner Cyber. It felt like friendship at a time when I felt very alone.

We also hung out a bit during and before then, including the date of June 10th, 2024. (This screenshot is from a conversation with a different friend of mine).

Derp, however, began to lean into sexual topics again at some point. I remember feeling uncomfortable by some of the statements but brushed them off and tried to be sex positive towards my friend. This was especially as Derp knew everything I was going through and how hard things were for me.

I was okay with sexual talk in DMs but didn't want to do anything physically. I also felt uninterested with text for the most part but wasn't against my friends talking about sexual topics. I have also gone through other traumatic sexual experiences, including grooming and dealing with a trans chaser. Both predators were also furries. At this time, I was reflecting on these experiences and trying to build myself and my life back up. I was questioning being in the furry fandom anymore, too. I wasn't in the mood to do anything sexual in real life.

Notice here, I didn't respond to the "fill you up every way I can" part of this screenshot. I was only interested in taking edibles and cuddling. I was still feeling lonely despite the red flags though and was happy to go see my "friend".

Derp picked me up the next day and we went over to her place. She offered me an edible once we got there, which I took before going up to her room with her. When we went up to her room, I put my fursuit (Steel) down and we cuddled as previously mentioned in the text screenshots.

Eventually the edible began to really kick in. I had been a few months sober at this point and thus lost most of my THC tolerance. At some point, I remember Derp getting up and straddling me. I was barely there mentally and I struggle to remember everything in the correct order due to being under the influence at the time. I was uninterested and Derp "asked for consent" to go further. When I gave her a nervous "maybe/no" instead, she started to plead and whine for me to have sex with her. She seemed to not let go of this until eventually she quieted for a little bit, then went to the door.

I was feeling very uncomfortable by this point, but I couldn't get out of the situation. I didn't own a car and Derp was my only way back home. I was also very, very high.

She asked, "Do you want to shower together?" and I think she said things about how nice it'd be but I cannot recall the exact lines. She insisted on going to the shower and eventually I agreed under pressure. However, I did state again that I wasn't interested in doing much in terms of sex.

We went to the shower where I felt very trapped, I remember this part a lot. I was very high, I was almost hearing noises and not completely there. But I do remember being pressured into giving Derp oral sex and how badly I wanted to throw up and not be there. I can remember the bathtub itself and often do when I relive this experience.

After all of this, we went back up to Derp's room for the night. I felt off but tried to look for any comfort I could. I cuddled up to Derp but felt so empty, shameful, violated, and I couldn't understand why.

The next day, Derp straddled me again and expressed interest in penetration. She did not take "no" for an answer with her whining. I gave up, gave in, and let her penetrate me as I just wanted to go home. She did not use a condom. She took me home after this.

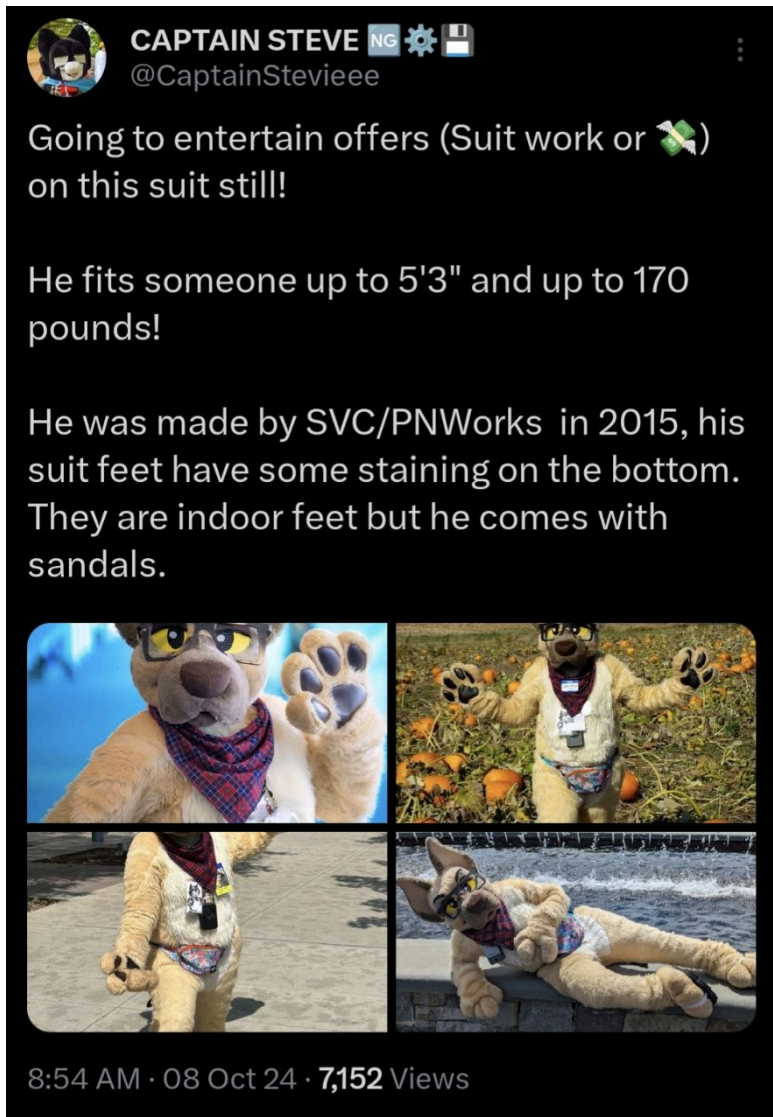

Afterwards, once I had processed what had happened to me, I felt shameful and so much more overwhelmed on top of my other stresses in life at this point. I wanted to tell nobody, I didn't want to believe my friend was a rapist. I didn't want anyone using my trauma for spicy gossip or their own purposes.

I also had a pregnancy scare due this, luckily nothing came of it.

I had expressed to those I confided in that I didn't want to go public with any of this. I just needed someone to talk to and to process it. I didn't want this to come back to me and have to be retraumatized by it over and over and for everyone using it as gossip, not believing me. Just as it turned out, there would be no accountability anyway.

But it's been spread by Cyber, who both of us knew, despite my wishes so that she could try to cancel her ex. Now that she's decided to be against me she has now switched victim and offender by claiming I was the first to spread the accusations everywhere. That's not what happened. I confided my experience in people I thought I could trust and it was shared as gossip by Cyber herself.

I ended up selling my old fursuit, Steel, not too long after everything as he had so much trauma attached. I originally only entertained offers sometime beforehand. When I wore him from this point on, all I could feel was crushing sadness and anxiety. I remember just seeing this suit across the room during points of my experience and I couldn't detach him from that.

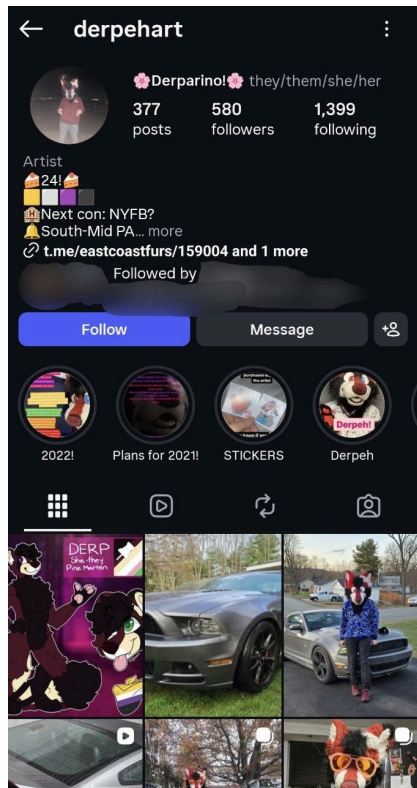

DERP'S SOCIALS

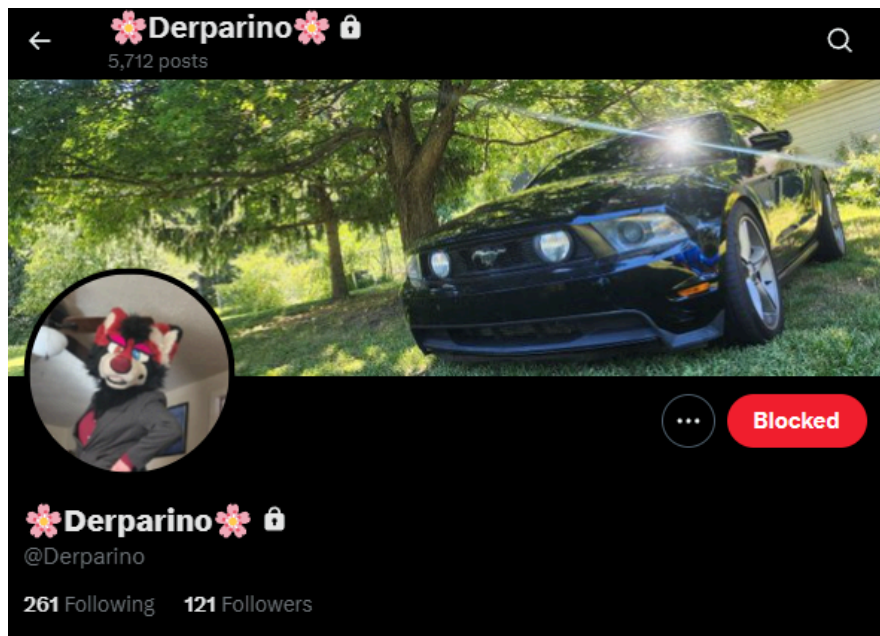

They are here for you to block and/or be cautious of, if you wish.

Derp's Twitter has been private since late 2024, as back then Cyber had begun to spread my experience and it got back to her. They're much more active on Instagram.

Cyber / Defaultfurr

BEFOREHAND

There is currently another document published on Cyber / Defaultfurr called “The Cyber & Saint Civillain Files”. Please read it, as it demonstrates a pattern of problematic behaviors, such as harassment, blackmailing, making false sexual assault allegations, and more. It also contains relevant audio and video.

WHAT IS DARVO?

DARVO is a manipulation tactic that stands for “Deny, Attack, Reverse Victim and Offender.” This is a tactic abusers use where they deny the harm or abuse. When confronted, the abuser will attack the victim and also sometimes the victim's associates. Then, the abuser claims they were actually the victim (which is where the last part of this acronym comes in).

DARVO has been seen in studies to be an effective manipulation tactic against victims of sexual abuse, as it made the rapist seem less responsible for a case in the eyes of observers. Sometimes, this even makes the rapist seem favorable to observers. Here's a link to a study on the link between DARVO, rape myth acceptance, and sexual harassment.

DARVO tactics are most successful when the abuser can take advantage of the beliefs and stereotypes of the people around them.

Knowing what DARVO is makes people less likely to be manipulated by it on average. This is why this is important information. Here is a study that talks about this.

Now, DARVO is also a concern in legal systems and courtrooms. Abusive people using these tactics often turn to judicial systems as there are still a lot of things in place that don't protect victims. The judicial system is often against victims, and perpetrators of DARVO know this and use it to their advantage. This is also what happened to 0poxxum in the above “Cyber Files”.

This will be important as Cyber uses this tactic a lot.

Cyber may continue to deny my rape after this document and everything that has happened. The contents of this document speak for themselves. They or their friends may continue to try to attack and discredit me or bring up an entirely different strawman. This doesn't change the rape and mental stress I have endured. I won't let them reverse who is the victim and offender again. Cyber knew what they were saying and doing by talking about my rape. Derp knew what she was doing when she disrespected my consent.

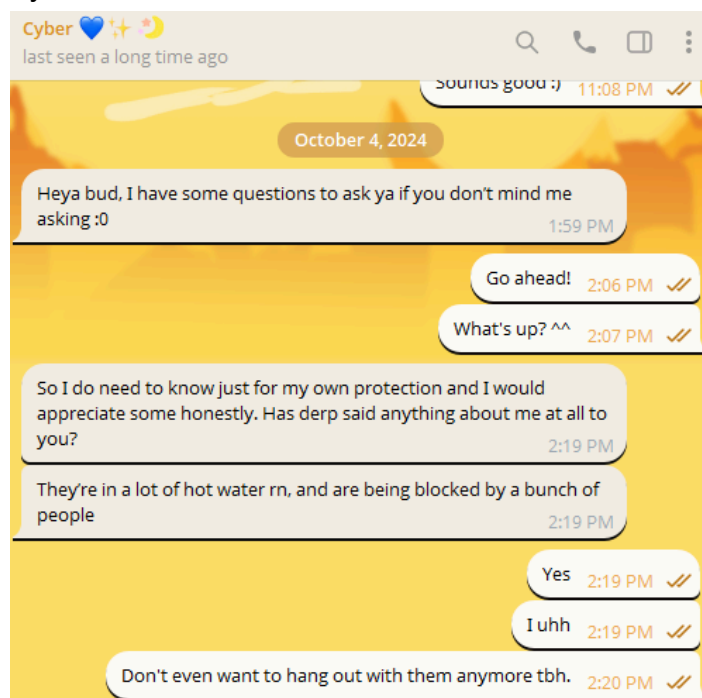

CYBER'S INITIAL "SUPPORT"

We've already established that Cyber and I were friends. About two weeks after the rape, Cyber DMed me. This is where her involvement in my trauma begins.

They began to ask me some things about Derp and talked about their own experiences with her. Cyber had just broken up with Derp and DMed me wondering if I knew anything she could use against Derp. I was of course vulnerable at the time and thought of Cyber as a friend, so I confided in her.

In hindsight, they were only interested in my trauma as a way to get Derp banned from places.

Here are the screenshots of our conversation and conversations that followed after Cyber DMed me:

I had been thinking a lot before that day and felt like I was comfortable talking to another friend who had negative experiences with Derp.

A lot of stuff was going around abt me because of them and im having to clear up a bunch of shit. All of this is being taken to an admins team in my area to have them banned from future meets 2:20 PM

I just found out all of this Tuesday, and I genuinely thought we cleared things up and the tensions would stop 2:20 PM

Ughhh I'm sorry to hear 2:20 PM ✓✓

I didn't hear too much 2:21 PM ✓✓

Just that Derp said you weren't worth my time 2:21 PM ✓✓

They're also stalking me too. They admitted they had me muted but were also actively checking my posts 2:21 PM

My roommate got DM's from them abt me along with my other friends. I'm genuinely pretty livid abt all of this. 2:21 PM

I did hear she was talking to [REDACTED] 2:22 PM ✓✓

I remember that 2:22 PM ✓✓

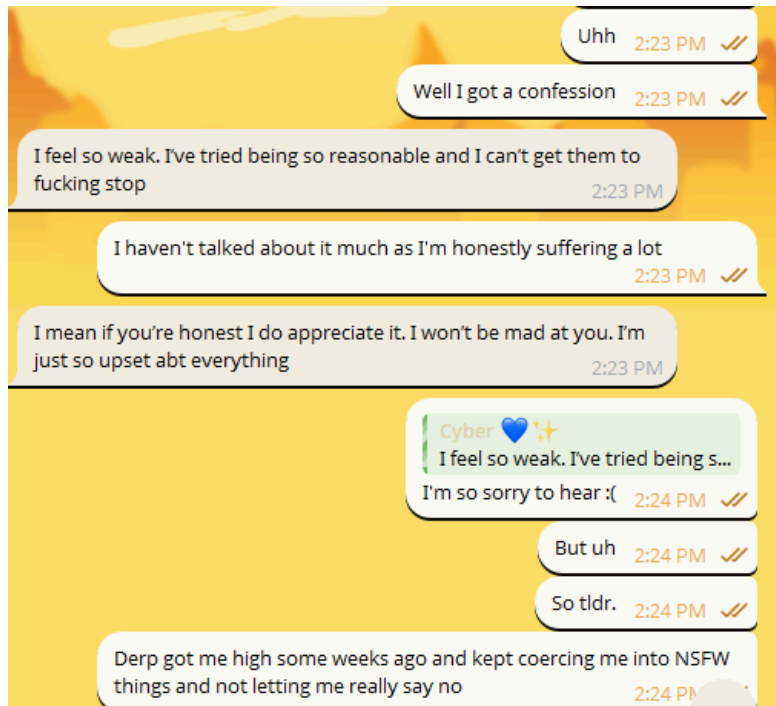

Yeah I don't really feel inclined to be friends with Derp anymore either after the last time 2:22 PM ✓✓

Yeah he showed me the DM's just this week. Derp is genuinely human scum and I'm so sick and tired of them running around talking abt me after a ton of us specifically asked them to move the fuck on 2:22 PM

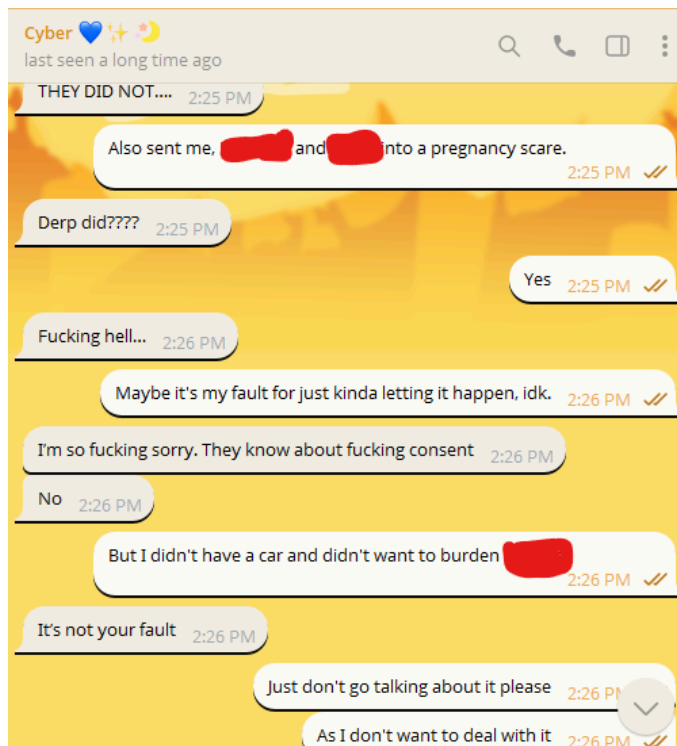

Ughhhh I'm sorry 2:22 PM ✓✓

They gaslit me, gaslit [REDACTED]. And tried to hook up with my friends abusive ex which hit home to him and he almost offed himself that night bc of it 2:23 PM

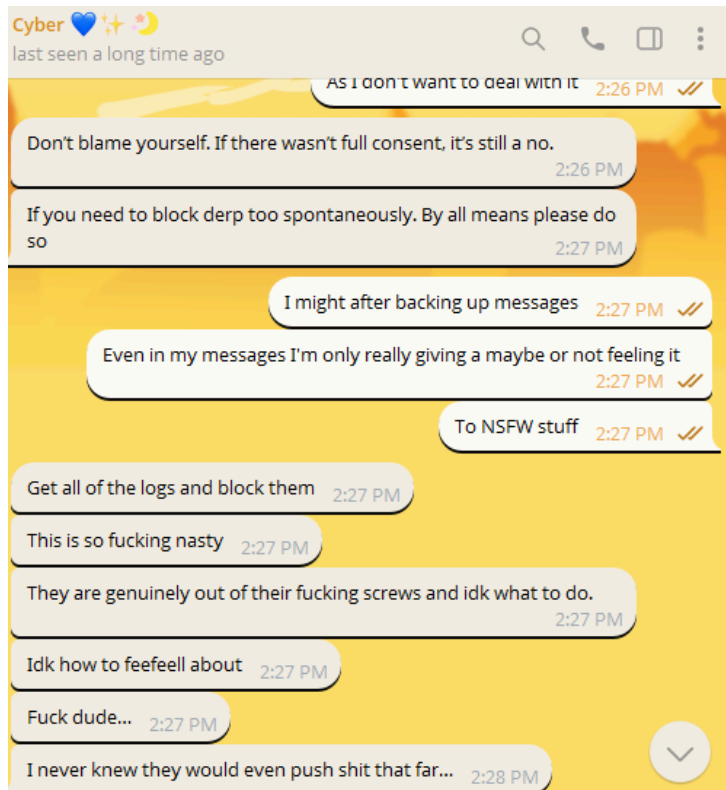

After this, I decided to come forward, just in case someone else had seen Derp's predatory patterns.

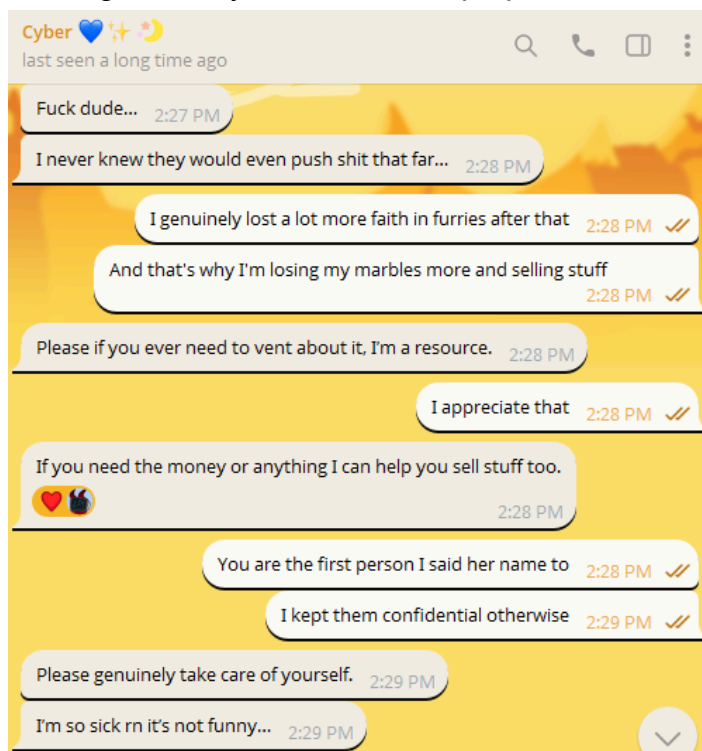

I explained in a TL;DR as I was hurting and trying to confide in a friend, not making a testimony.

I specifically told Cyber to not spread my trauma here.

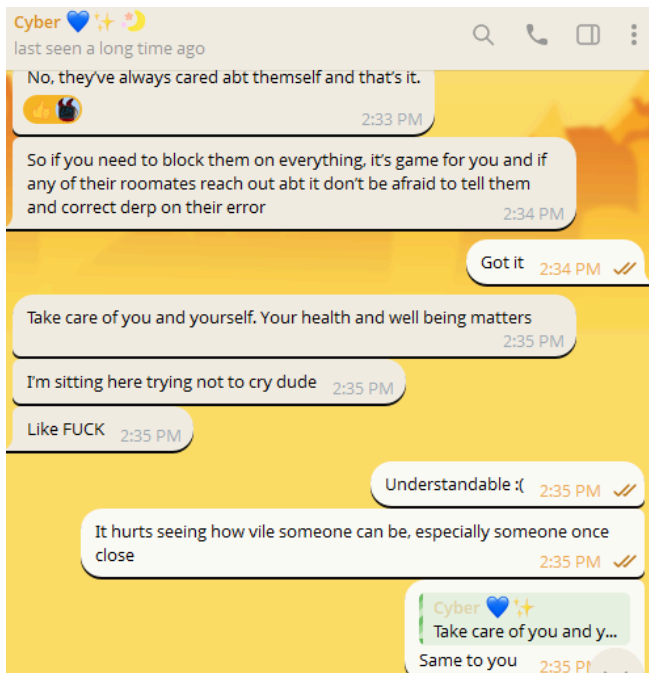

Cyber encouraged me to block Derp if I needed to, and I did after exporting the messages on my now defunct laptop.

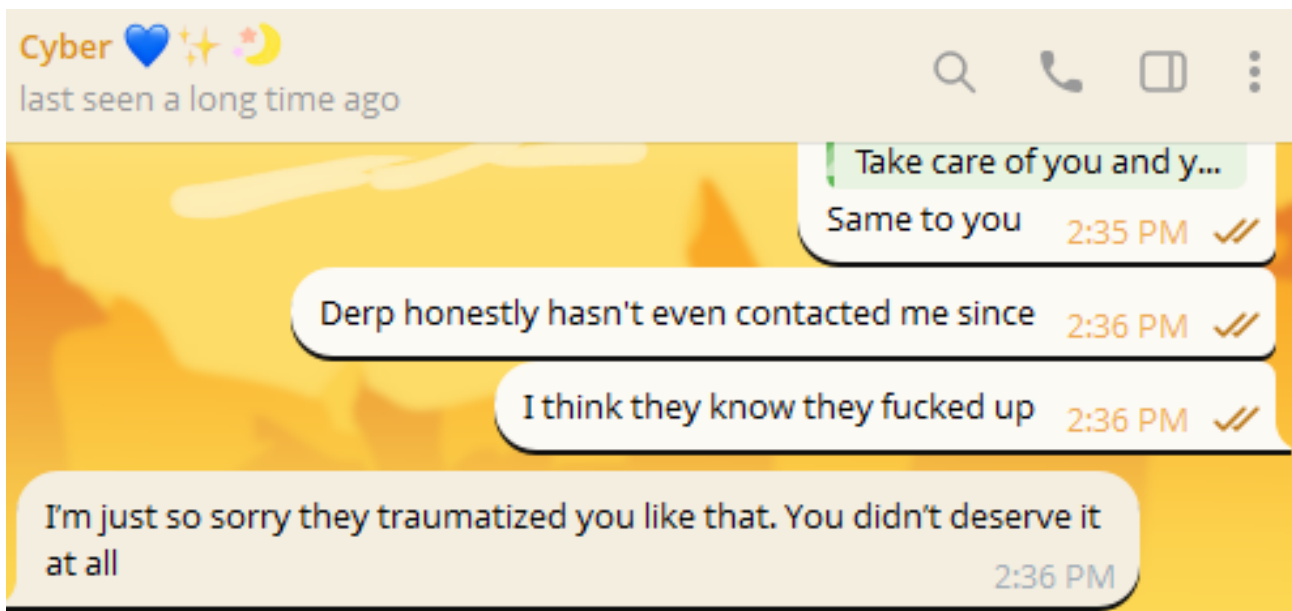

At this point, I was trying to sell all of my suits locally and leave the fandom after everything I had dealt with in it.

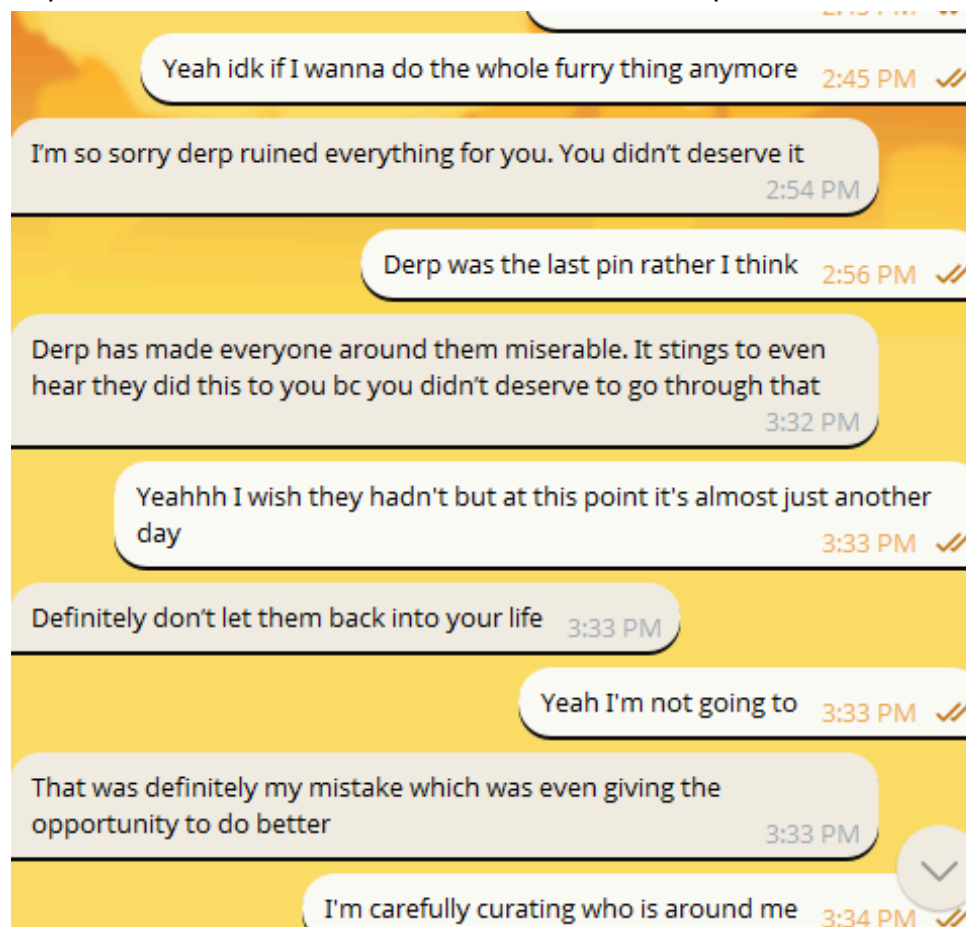

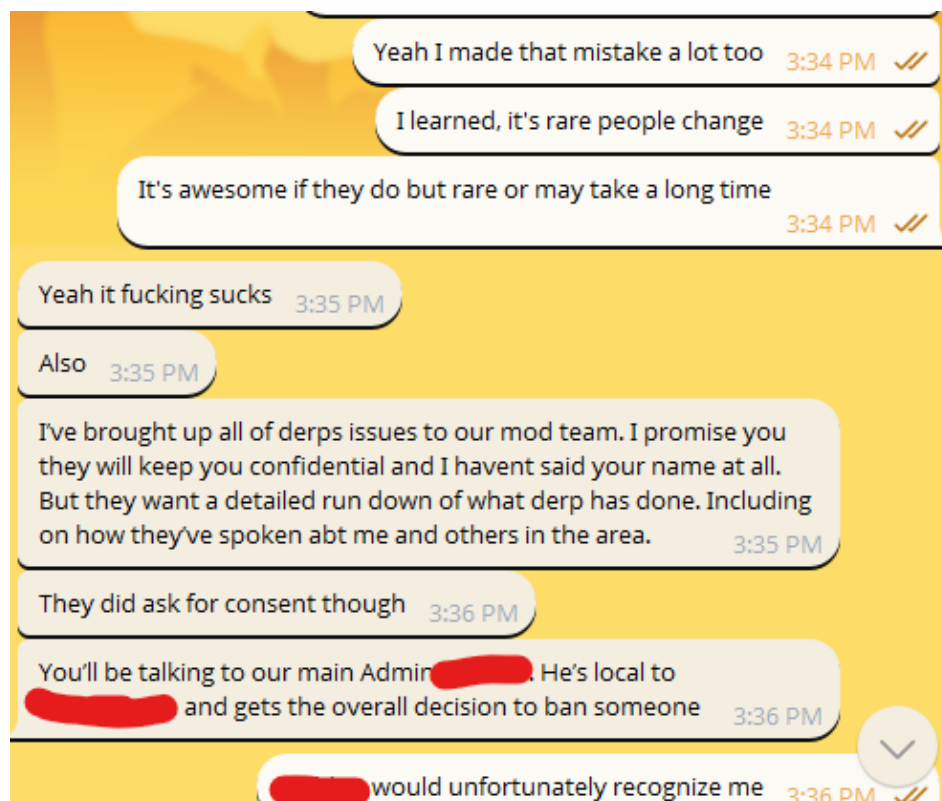

Cyber talked about their experience with Derp playing victim and gaslighting them.

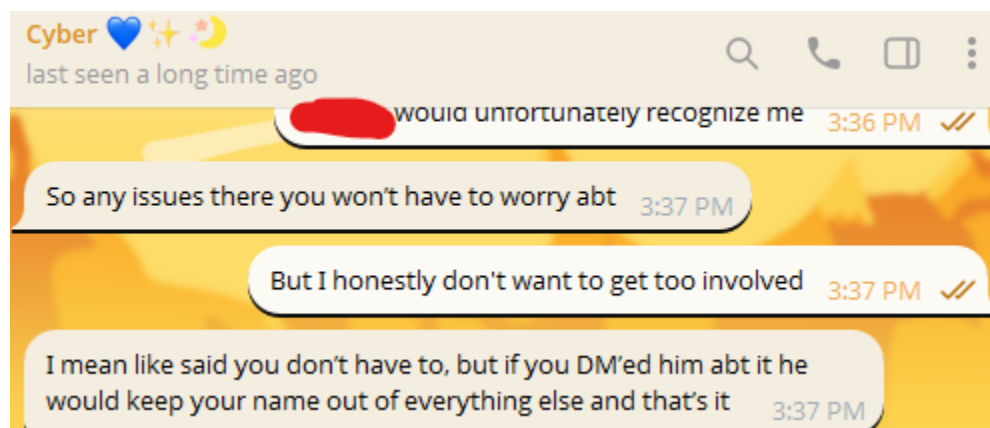

Derp hadn't contacted me since the assault at this point.

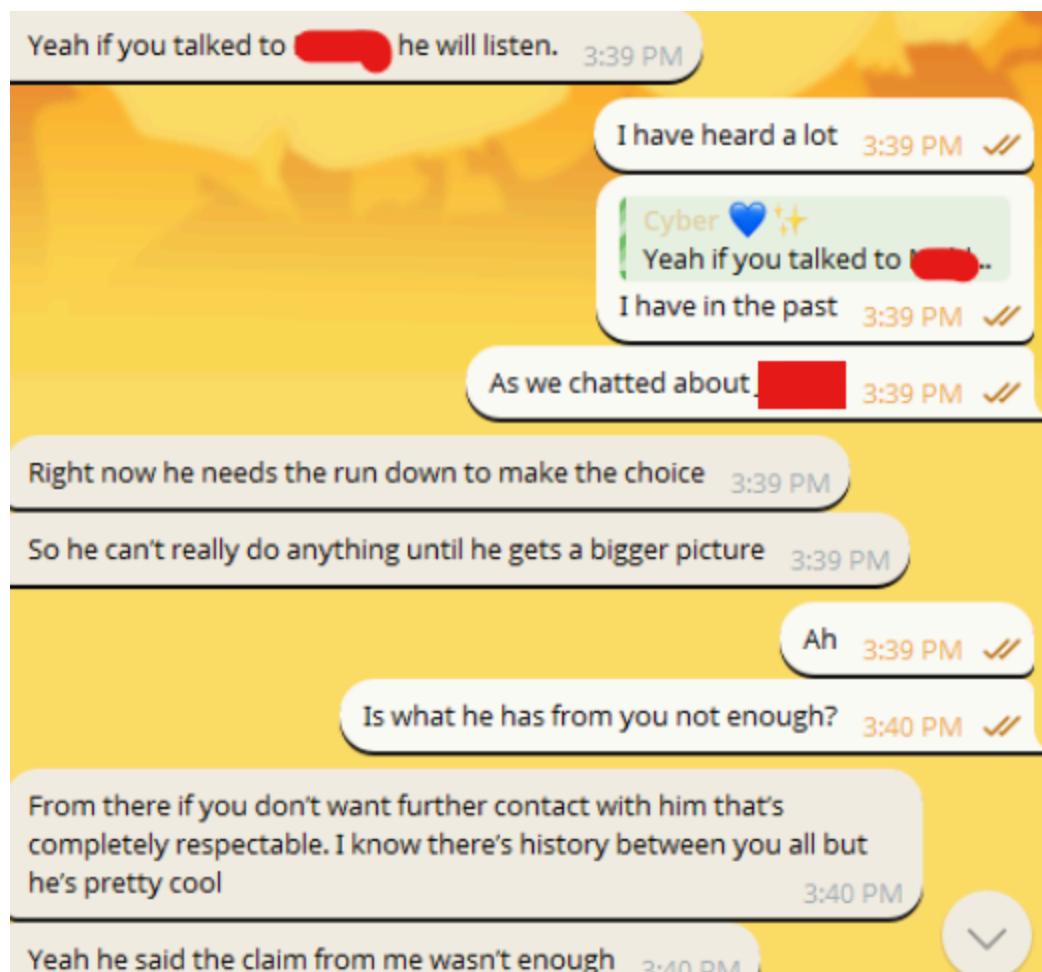

It's important to point out that in this screenshot, Cyber didn't ask me for permission before telling that admin what Derp did to me. Even if my name was kept confidential, this is already disrespectful to my wishes and Derp would know who spoke out.

I didn't have to DM this admin, yet Cyber already told them about my trauma, interesting.

At this point, I gave in and decided to talk to the admin as Cyber had already run off with the details of my own trauma. I would've preferred to set the details straight from my own memory, but I still wanted the admin to not spread it around.

Just give him the reassurance that you wanna stay confidential after your testimony and he will definitely respect it

3:40 PM

I see 3:41 PM ✓✓

Maybe. 3:41 PM ✓✓

I don't want any kickback personally 3:41 PM ✓✓

As I have too much going on 3:42 PM ✓✓

Do let me know if your gonna reach out 3:42 PM

There won't be any kind of harrasment going forward towards you and you won't have people flooding your DM's too

3:42 PM

Like said he does oversee everything for the furs in the area in which derp is involved in with so he just needs to nessecarily collect everything to make the decision to ban

3:43 PM

Right now we're filling him in on everything else derp did to me and others such as the mistreatment and gaslighting

3:43 PM

Again, I expressed that I didn't want my trauma spread.

The victim really needs to go to the police about this situation really as for safety of the group if I could have more details, we'll remove derp, ban them and word shall be passed along to other local group owners of their acts

This is what [redacted] is saying rn 3:47 PM

Realistically if you give [redacted] the run down derp will be banned from any future meets in the area and they won't be taking advantage of anyone else, the police is really your choice though

3:48 PM

They said that going to the police was my choice and continued to press on me telling that admin my trauma.

I decided to do it as she already told them, so then it was on me to tell my story. She put me in a position where I would look weird if I said “no” after she just told them the details of my trauma.

3:53 PM

I've noticed that Cyber is saying recently that Derp claimed to be high as well during the rape. Despite what I stated here, I honestly was too high to remember if Derp took an edible or not. I don't remember them taking one but I'm not 100% as I was under the influence. Regardless, I definitely remember Derp did NOT ask me for consent BEFORE giving me the edible.

Cyber confirmed that Derp pressured sex onto them too.

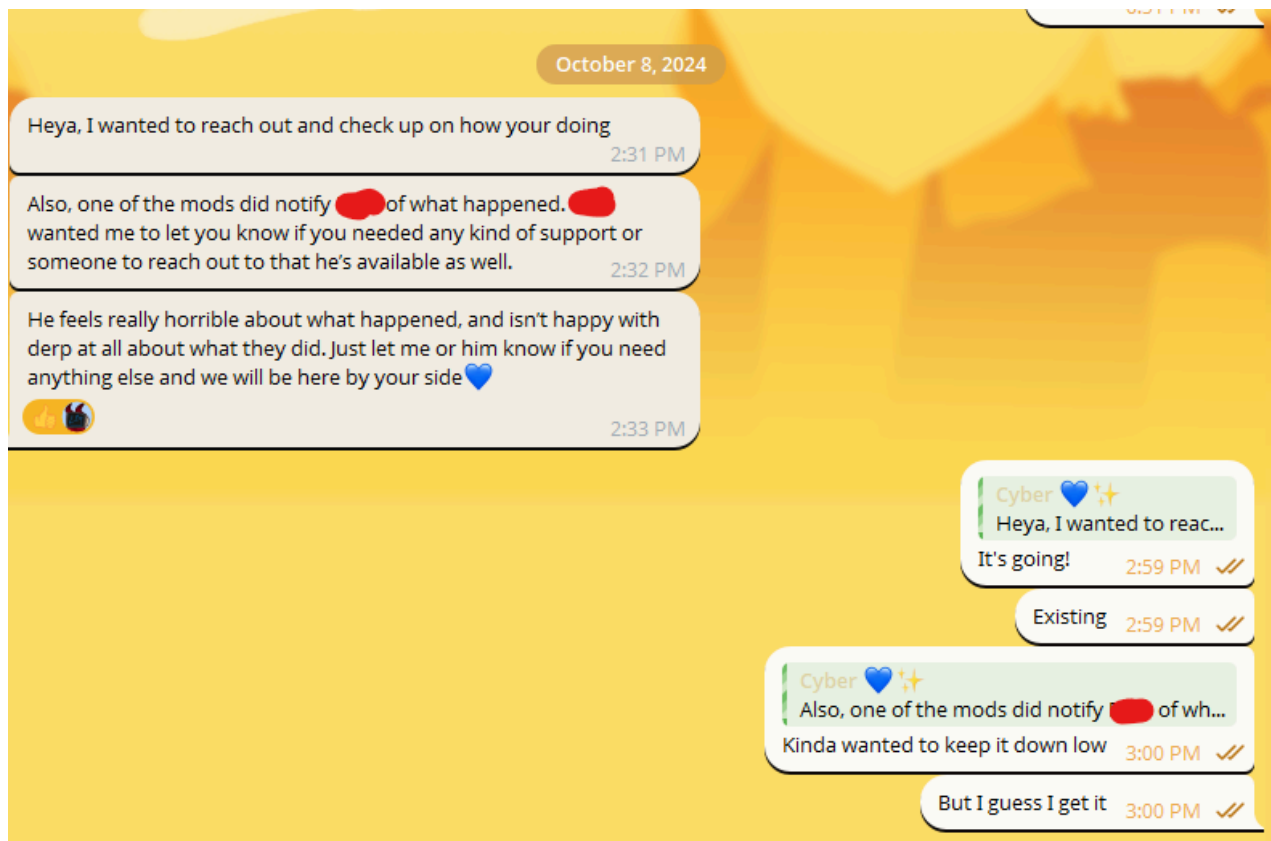

They gave me information and resources in case I wanted to report this to the police. In between this screenshot and the last, I didn't feel the need to include those messages.

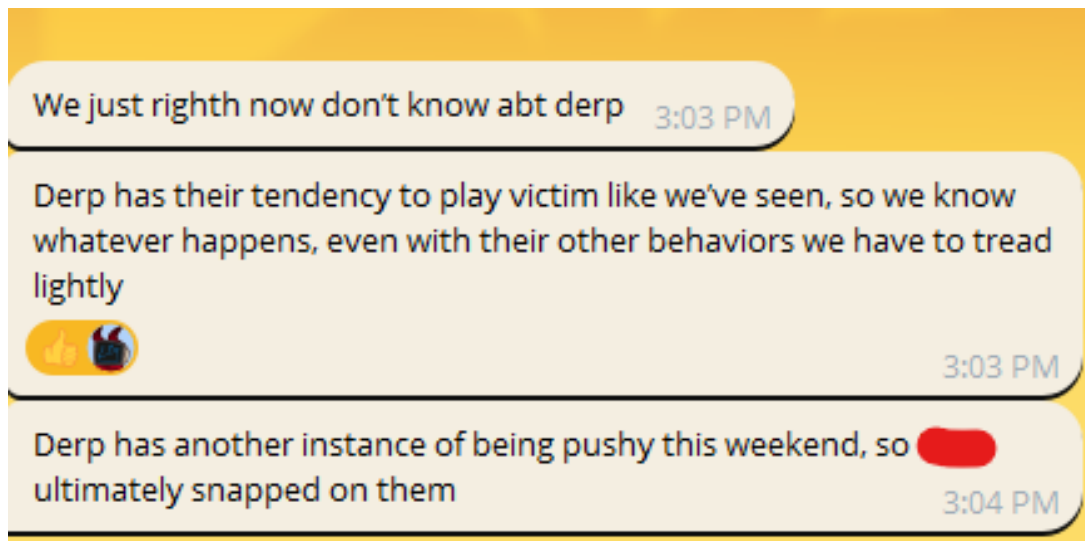

I proceeded to send the screenshots shown in the “Third Sexual Experience with Derp” section of this document to Cyber.

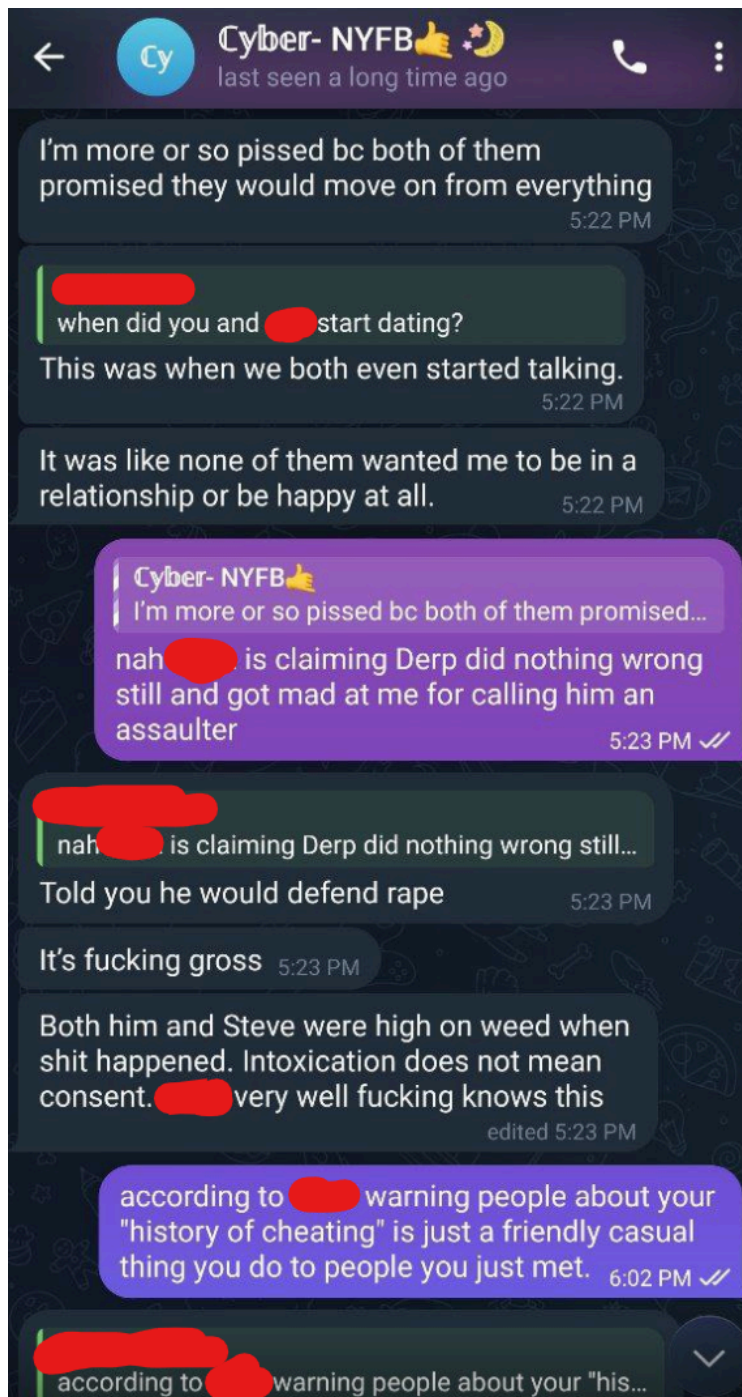

She confirmed that the “sex pushing behavior” seen in these screenshots was something she experienced with Derp.

She reached out again on October 8th, 2024.

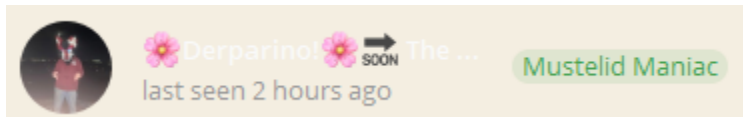

This is about where Cyber's DMs with me that are relevant to Derp end.

In this screenshot Admin Anon is talking to Cyber about the leader of a 180+ member local furmeet group who defends Derp and put them in a staff position. Yes, a staff position where Derp can have more access to potential victims and a potential power imbalance over them. It's also worth noting Cyber agrees it's still rape even if Derp claims she was high at the time. We will come back to this.

One more thing to note, Cyber actually misgenders Derp, who uses they/she pronouns. Cyber has been very close to Derp and has no excuse to misgender her. However for the most part, she knew when to stay respectful about certain topics with certain people.

Admin Anon didn't know Derparino as closely as Cyber but would like to extend an apology for misgendering her here.

Derp in her staff position of the group in question as of 04/11/2026.

Cyber mentioned on July 24th, 2025 that the staff of this 180+ member local meet up group all know what Derp did.

CYBER MESSAGES ADMIN ANON

I reached out to Steve simply bc derp had been rubbing dirt ...
This dirt happened prior or during the stuff with steve? 8:40 PM

Once again, Cyber said they dealt with Derp's pattern of pressuring people for sex, alongside claiming there's another victim as well.

Admin Anon was confused at this point and was just trying to understand the situation.

I don't blame Admin Anon for protecting Cyber at this time, as he was trying to be a good friend and thought he was protecting someone from a predatory ex.

Once again, Admin Anon does apologize for misgendering Derp. He wasn't close to Derp but still doesn't find it okay regardless.

Now, it's important to point out that Cyber said we're both at equal faults. She saw Derp at fault here for being a rapist and me at fault for not going to the police. I will let you determine which is worse.

The reason I didn't go to the police is covered in the introduction under the section about my medical phobia and lack of health insurance. This reasoning was also told to Cyber at the time. Admin Anon also stated he believed my story and logic seems consistent.

Admin Anon doesn't actually believe I hold any fault, but he didn't want to completely upset Cyber and was still investigating the situation at the time. Notice how Cyber completely disregarded my feelings here and just wanted me to "cooperate" and "solve the issue." According to her, victims aren't allowed to be upset after being raped.

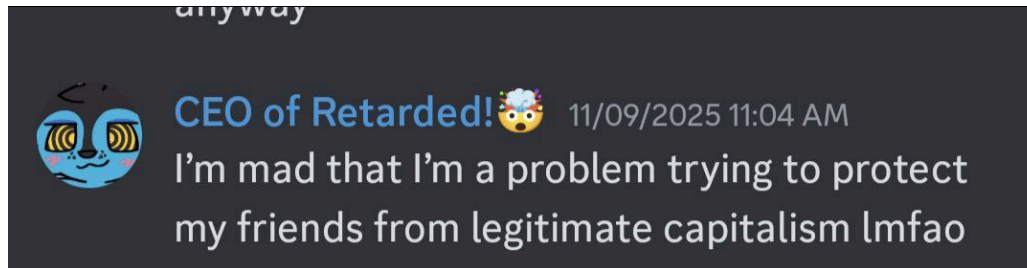

Apparently victim blaming goes back to 2024 where Cyber ran to Derp's roommate to tell him how I also "hold some fault" for my own rape. According to Admin Anon, Derp claimed the sexual acts happened six to seven hours later so we couldn't be high still. I remember them happening maybe at most an hour later.

- Cyber, 2025

For some more background, Cyber and I were staff together in a local furry meet up group. I wasn't as close to Cyber for quite a bit of months as I had partially distanced from furry due to feeling terrified over things I had experienced with multiple furries. However, Admin Anon in this group we staffed for and Cyber had seemingly become good friends. They were hosting meets together and going to them together.

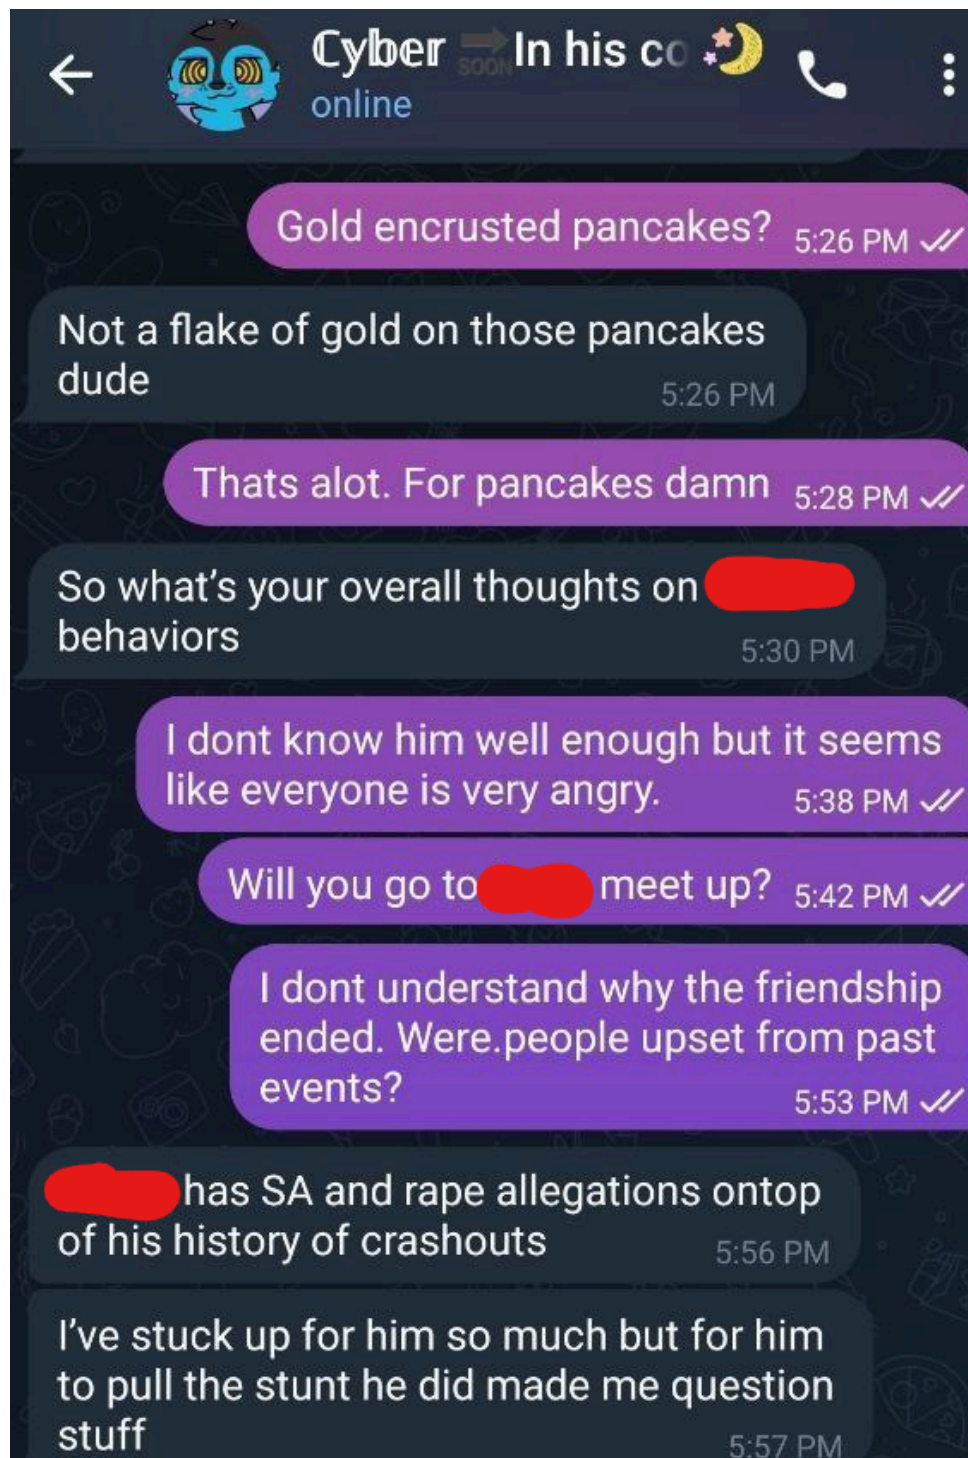

However, a huge problem arose during a November 8th, 2025 hangout where (allegedly) Cyber threw a tantrum over the price of pancakes at a diner. I have clipped the exact pancakes from that diner's menu so you can see how capitalist these pancakes are. I say "allegedly" as although this was the incident that made Cyber begin to target me, I wasn't actually there!

According to Admin Anon, he and Cyber had carpooled together. He made it clear before the event he wanted to stay the whole time, but later Cyber wanted to leave early. At some point, another furry suggested going to a diner. Admin Anon agreed. Cyber was upset as she wanted to control where they went, even though it's Admin Anon's car and got even more upset in the restaurant. She saw the prices of this diner's menu, specifically the pancakes, and made a scene, yelling "Scam! Scam! Scam!" at the waitstaff. Everyone's fursuit heads were visible on the table.

The aspect that made her mad was I wouldn't side with her, as I wasn't there and honestly the situation didn't seem that serious when I had other things happening. However, Cyber then sent me a message that seemed like it had been resolved. From my point of understanding at the time, it seemed like a two sided thing I didn't want to be a part of.

They were quietly demoted shortly after this situation as Admin Anon felt it wasn't appropriate that someone who caused a scene in front of restaurant staff with everyone's fursuit heads on the table should represent the group. Cyber also had a bad habit of trying to manipulate other staff into banning people they didn't like.

She was eventually banned from the group as we tried to let her stay, but they insisted on harassing Admin Anon and spreading false claims about him to try to isolate him. I think it's fair that Admin Anon banned them when Cyber didn't want to remain neutral and was saying a lot of awful things about him. This included making up SA allegations as she has done to other people.

CEO of Retarded! 🤪 Yesterday at 7:05 PM

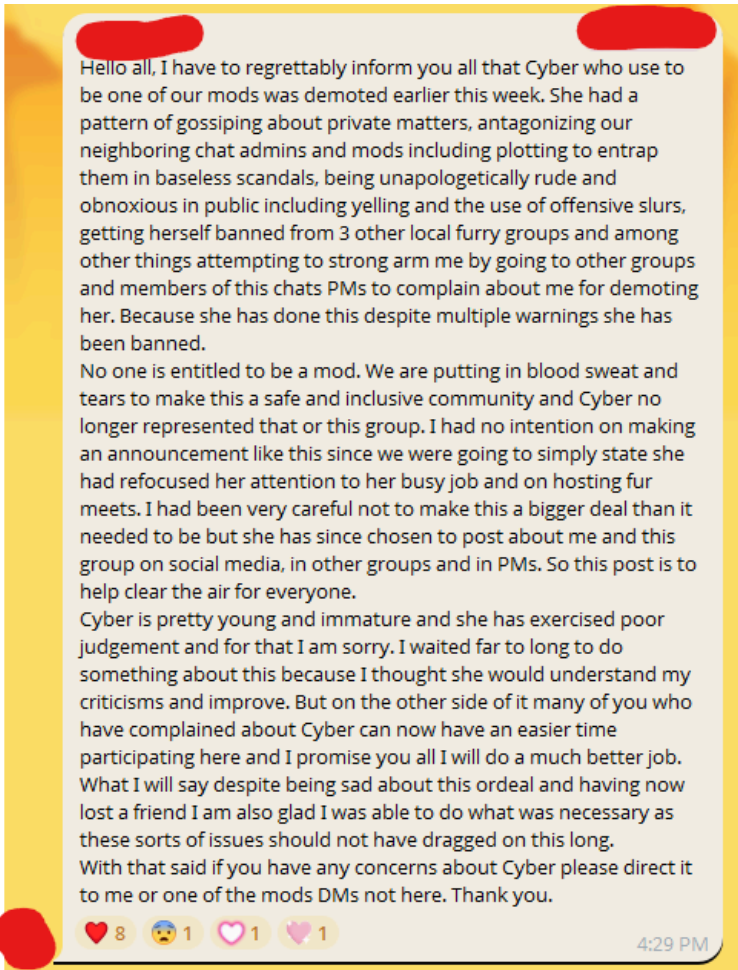

And even with this guy, he was falsely accused of so many horrible things, I got an entire group of people to investigate his claims of SA and even found out with that entire investigation everything was false and people made up horrible things abt him. Blood sweat and tears into doing so much for people, and this is how I get paid out. I care abt everyone around me a lot, but if this is genuinely how I'm personally gonna get treated, I'm done helping and playing the good cop

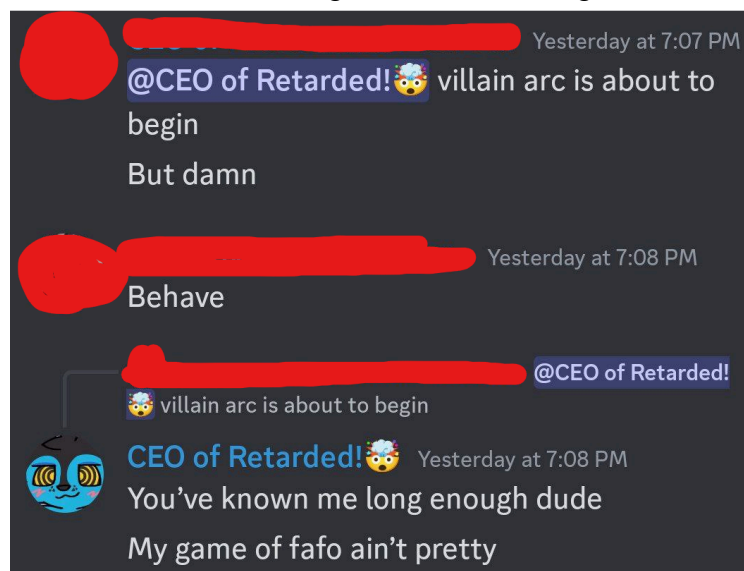

I will enter my god damn villain arc dude 🥲

However, she also admitted this in the Discord server, which contradicts her implication of Admin Anon being a sexual predator.

You can see she repeats this pattern as well in the aforementioned "Cyber Files" where her victim 0poxxum had to defend himself from their false rape and criminal accusations, all to cover up her breaking her partner's trust. Luckily Cyber lost the court case, but it still shows that this is a pattern.

We really didn't want this to become an issue in the group, but Cyber had made it one. We didn't escalate things, we were willing to let them stay.

Here she vows to throw a game of “FAFO” over capitalist pancakes and being demoted from the group we staffed together due to how they acted, as well as other small events before this.

More details on this event and the aftermath between Cyber and Admin Anon can be read in the “Cyber’s Motives Against Me” tab.

A LEADING EVENT TO DEMOTION

On May 26th, 2025, @ M4GGU / @ M4G55 / MagpieMadness joined our group for hosting local furry meets.

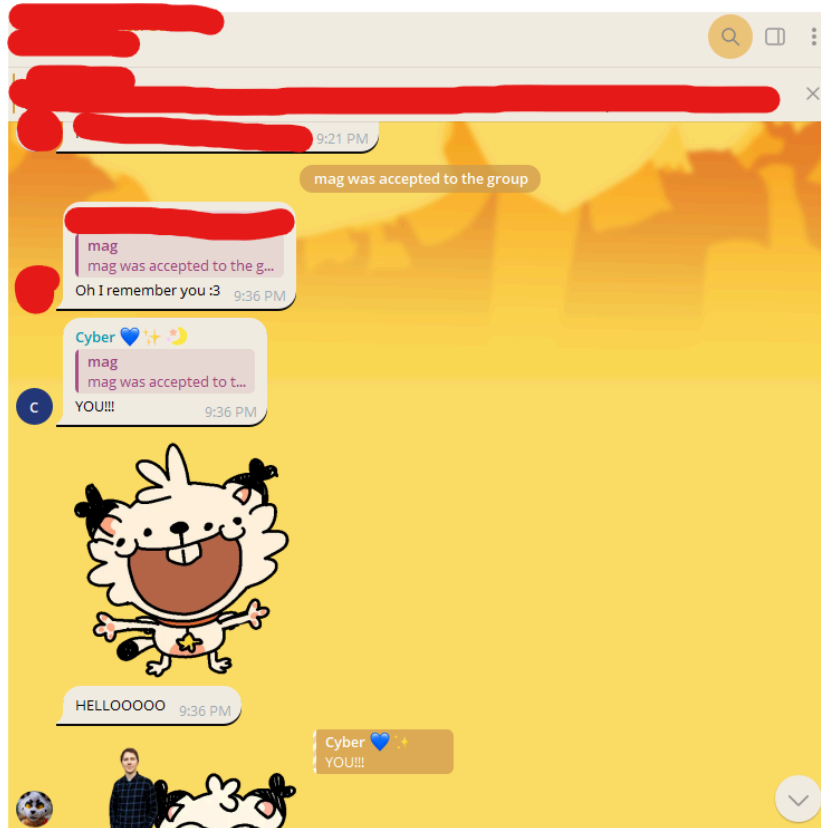

Mags has been exposed for things including creating art with pedophilic themes, talking about CSEM material, being racist, and cumming on their cat.

Here is the channel of evidence that was gathered by another individual over on Telegram.

There is also a YouTube video here if you’d prefer to watch that.

They did make an apology here, but the comments and quote retweets point out that the timelines do not match up.

This matters as I was a staff member for this group and as such, I feel it's important I protect the group from possibly malicious individuals. This should be a priority for people running groups and meets, because when you let predatory people stay in your group, you leave them an outlet to possibly hurt someone again.

So, I took to our staff group chat as I thought Mags' doings were definitely something to be aware of and discuss. I didn't accuse anyone of knowing, a lot of local furries actually don't know this about Mags or have forgotten about it. Immediately, Cyber took on a defensive tone.

I was trying to be non confrontational and I wasn't jumping to say "we should ban them." I believe every staff member of the group should be allowed to speak on a decision or concern, including Cyber at the time. Here in this screenshot, I was saying if this were true of those individuals too I'd point them out as well. I do not hand out special treatment as a staff member, especially when it comes to the safety of my community.

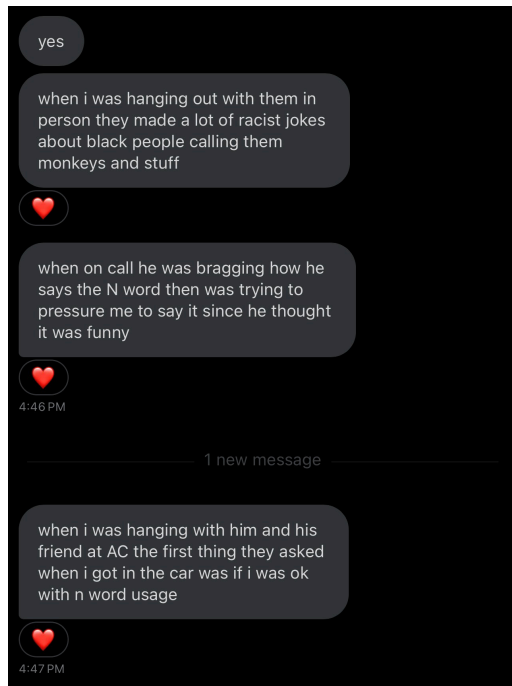

Cyber deflected and made it about "cancel culture" and those who have called out Mags. I didn't believe Mags' apology at the time still but I wanted to take into account Cyber and anyone else's feelings while remaining calm and professional.

This entire exchange proved that Cyber was willing to hide information from us and invite potentially dangerous people to the group. I think this is a good reason to feel someone isn't a good fit for being in a staff position.

I ended up talking to Admin Anon later in DM's where I gave him the evidence and we decided to keep an eye on Mags. According to Admin Anon, Cyber later ranted to him in person about how she felt Mags did nothing wrong. Where no trace could be left behind.

It's worth mentioning there are testimonies as recent as 2024 that claim M4G55 was still being racist as well.

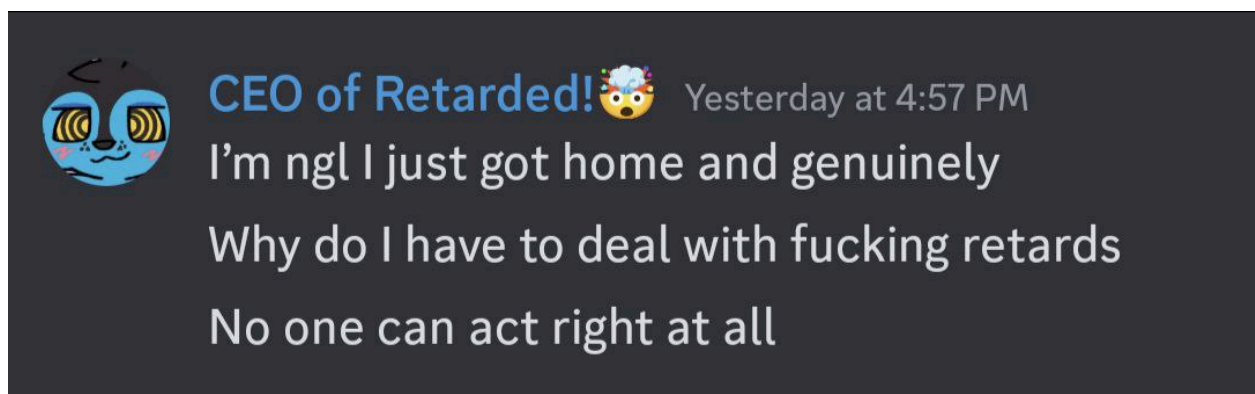

This also establishes a pattern of the people Cyber is surrounding herself with and what she is okay with sweeping under the rug, this will matter in the next section as well.

RACISM AND SLURS

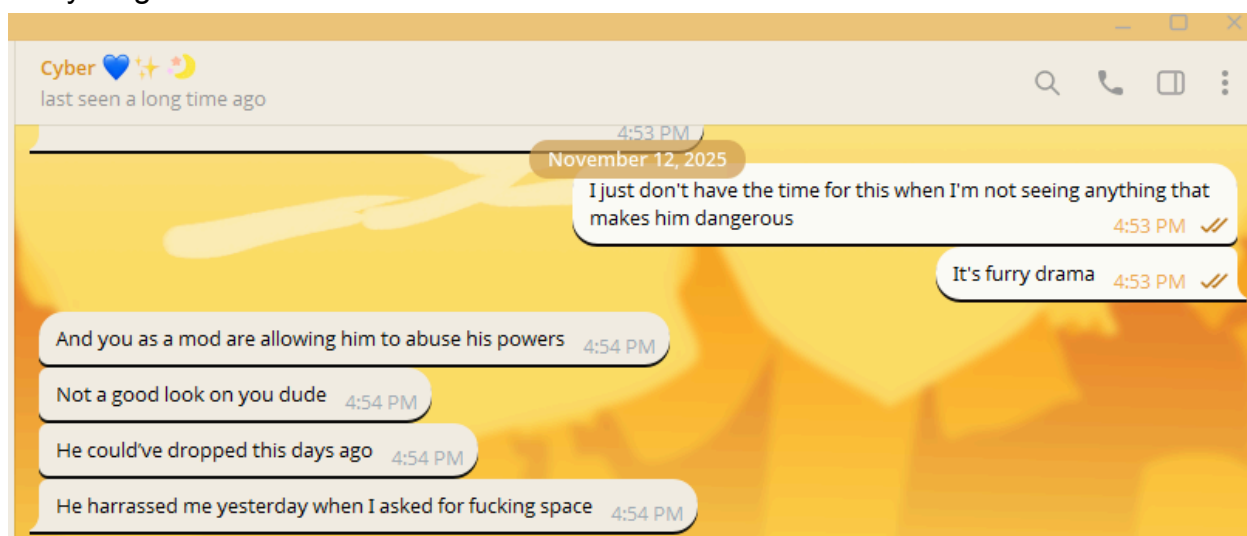

Apparently they had some beef with another fur, and they and their friend in the above screenshot decided it was appropriate to use an anti-Asian racial slur. I put this tweet here, as you can see that's Cyber (who is white) in the Gumpy McGumperson account's profile picture. She also posted a photo of herself online. But this is only one of a few instances and testimonies, this will become a pattern.

I was able to screenshot this while I was still in the server. This was in reference to me and Admin Anon. Admin Anon and I are autistic. She sent this after I refused to side with her in the capitalist pancakes incident as she wasn't sending me evidence for Admin Anon's supposed abuse. I will show this one screenshot for this below right now just for the timestamp. I will go over all of the DMs after this section and what everything is.

I may have seemed irritated as I was very annoyed that I was being dragged into what felt like pointless drama. During this time, I was just getting my life back together. I had more happening in my career and personal life. I didn't have time for Cyber's tall tales about Admin Anon suddenly being an abusive predator right after the capitalist pancakes situation.

Here's another testimony from an ex-friend of Cyber's, showing her penchant for the n-word (once again, Cyber is white). I will explain that the "macho" part is because Cyber claimed the word "macho" is racist as Admin Anon used it against her Hispanic friend. This friend, Saint Civillain, harasses people on their behalf. You can read more about him in "The Cyber Files" and how he has threatened and harassed people.

Saint Civillain 11/23/2025 10:44 AM

Any friend of a racist is not a friend of mines. Wish it could be different. Goodbye steve.

Saint, interestingly enough, never harassed me and left it at this.

 Today at 4:49 PM

I really am uncomfortable with the usage of these words as insults. If you want to use them as a reclaiming(if you're queer or autistic) then yeah sure go for it, or with friends that you have the established level of comfort with using said words. But I do not like them being used in a derogatory way or to inflict harm. Saying those things can have very real consequences.

Usage of slurs

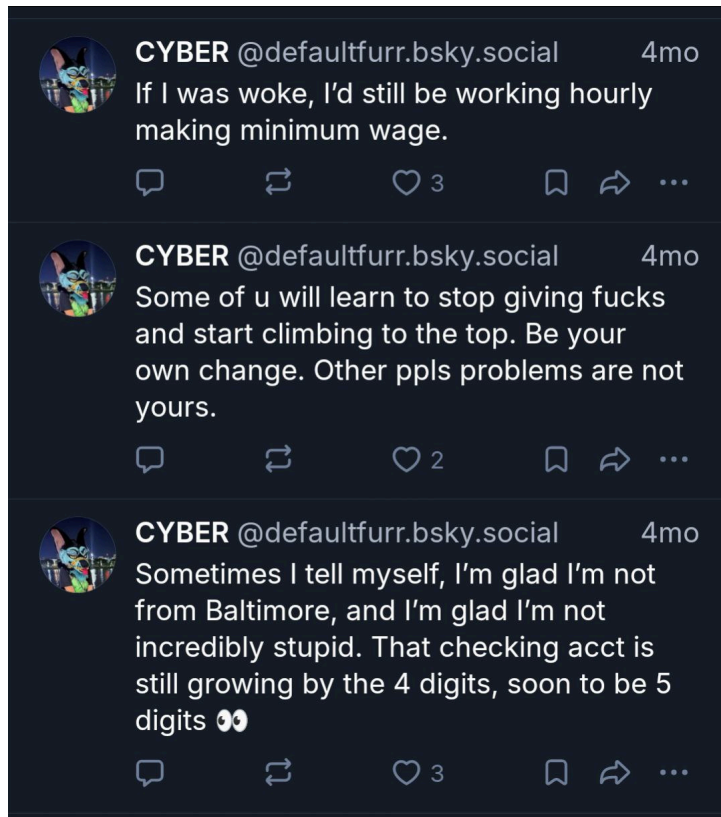

I will be putting these screenshots here from another conversation as it pertains to this document. This anon has been a witness to Cyber's slur usage. I will point out that this anon and Saint are both Hispanic.

There are a lot of furs who know what she's doing and often stay quiet. Racism is still a serious problem in this fandom, even if it's become more friendly to POC.

Saint tried to downplay many of the things Cyber has said and done. This is a tactic of manipulation and he was trying to make this anon feel sympathy for her.

These were pulled from Cyber's Bluesky, where she acts more mask-off. It's worth noting that things like "I'm glad I'm not from (x) city" are VERY common and VERY subtle racist dogwhistles. This is because they're often used in connotation with racial diversity in cities and the poverty racial minorities face there. As of 2024, 59.2% of Baltimore's population is Black. Considering their previous issues regarding racism, the context of this being earnings, and the screenshot below, this was most definitely meant in a racist manner.

Also, Cyber. What the HELL do you mean by "if I was woke"????

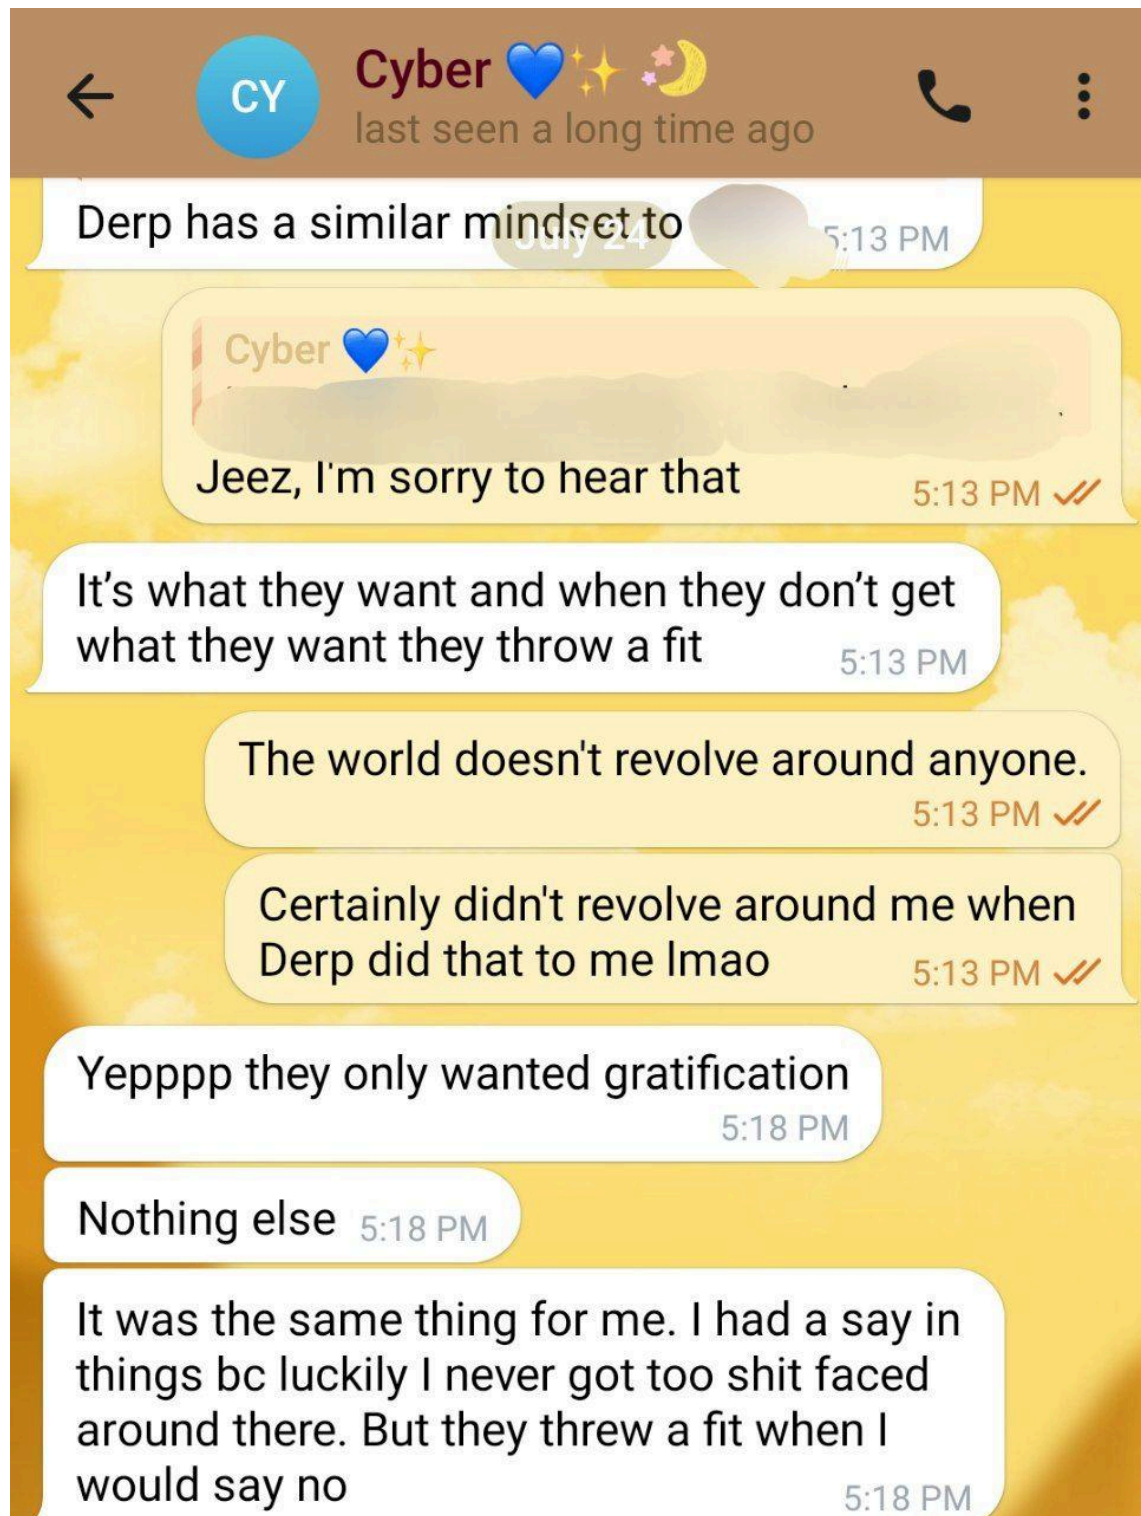

She also had a public freakout at that restaurant claiming Baltimore was the city of murders right in front of the black waiters who was super nice and the food there was really good.

12:53 PM

Ah, I guess that's what she means by "I'm glad I'm not from Baltimore", according to an anon who was at a public Baltimore meet.

Cyber's racism and slur usage is also touched on a bit in "The Cyber Files", albeit not the focus of that document.

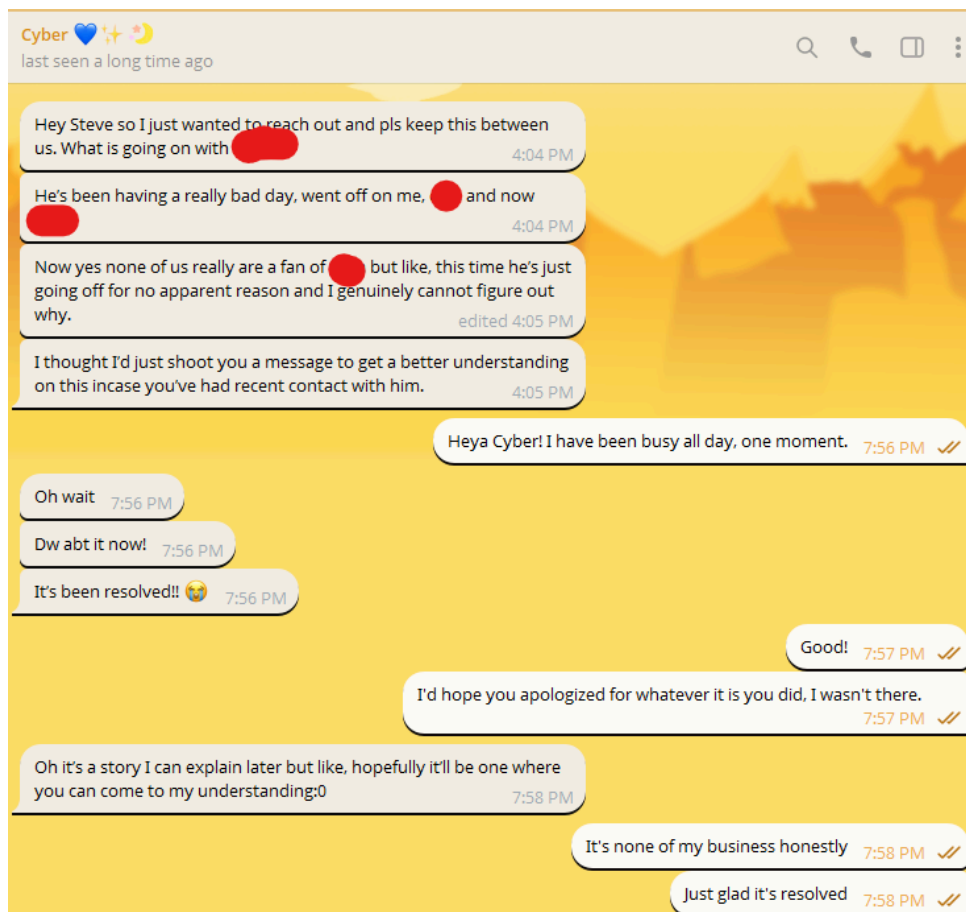

THE 180 BEGINS

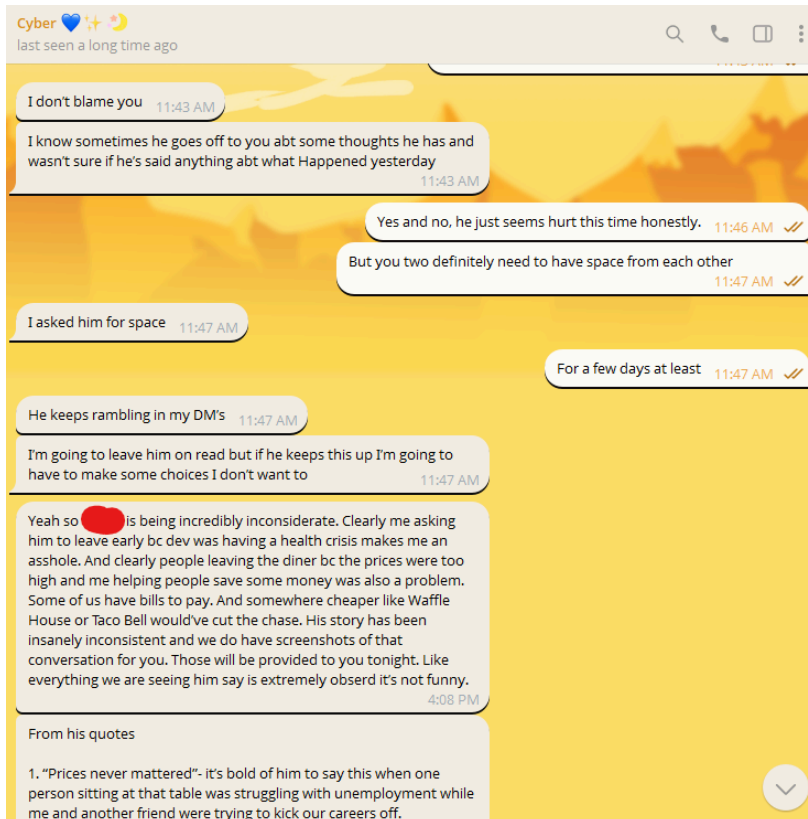

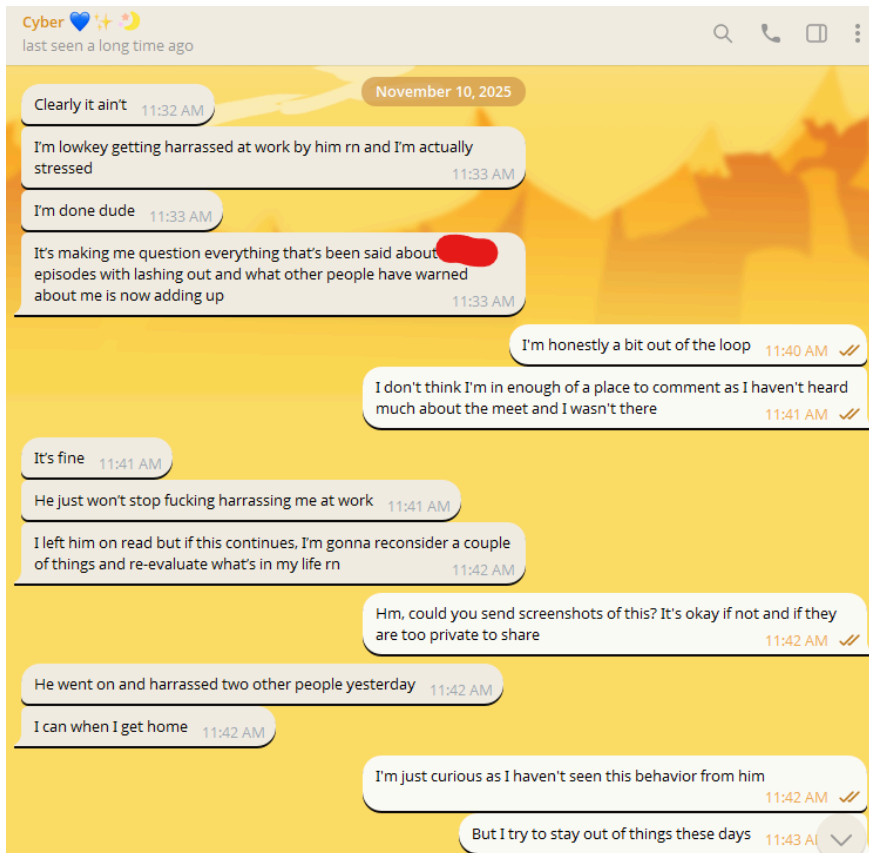

As of July 24th, 2025, Cyber still had this to say about Derp. I censored the one message from Cyber as it doesn't pertain to this document.

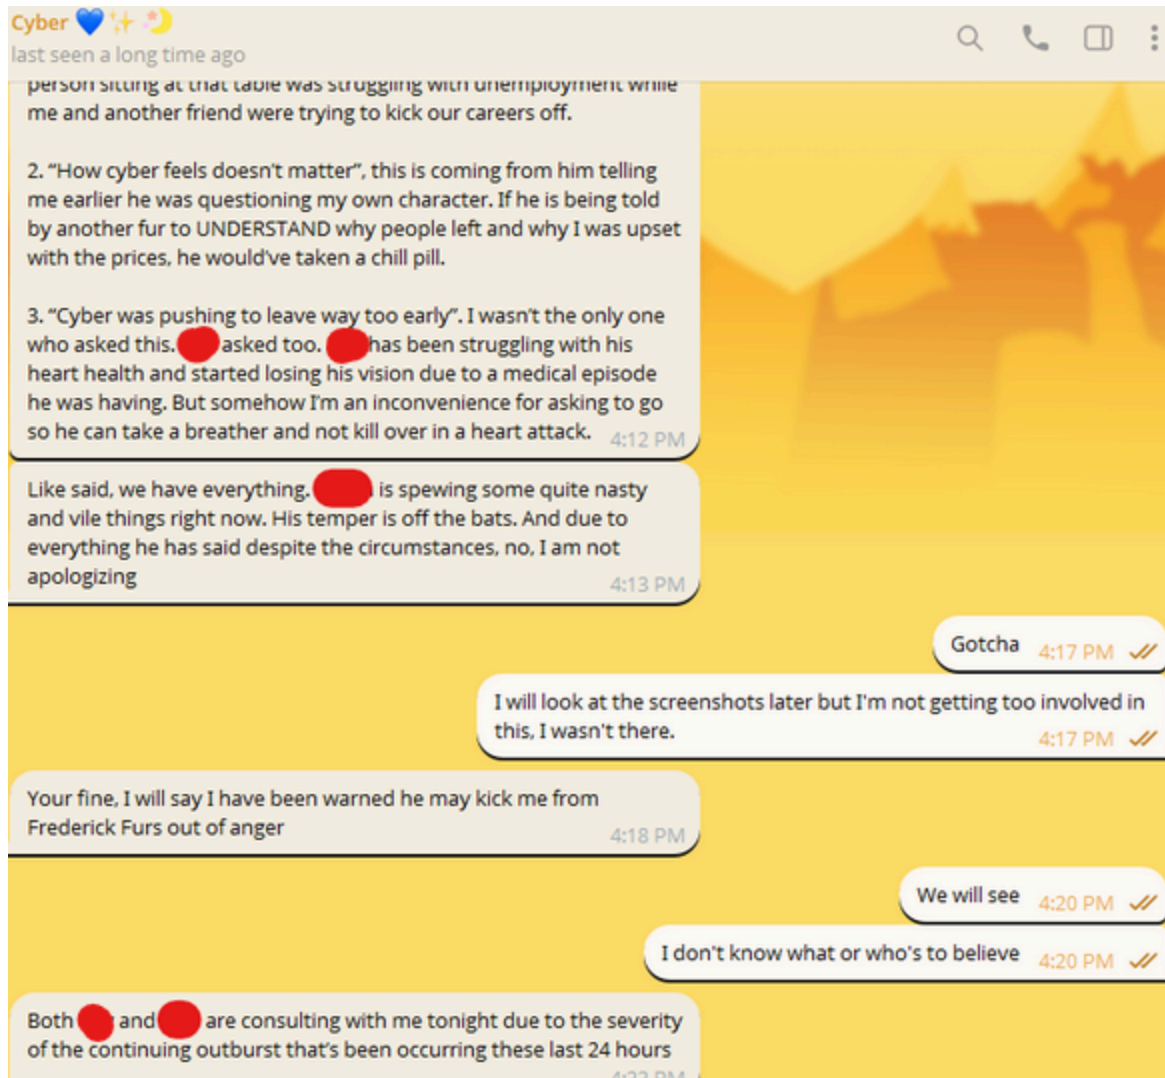

Around November and December 2025 she began to talk about my kinks to people she invited to her apartment, according to this person who DMed me. I originally thought this was some sort of joke as it sounded so out there and ad hominem.

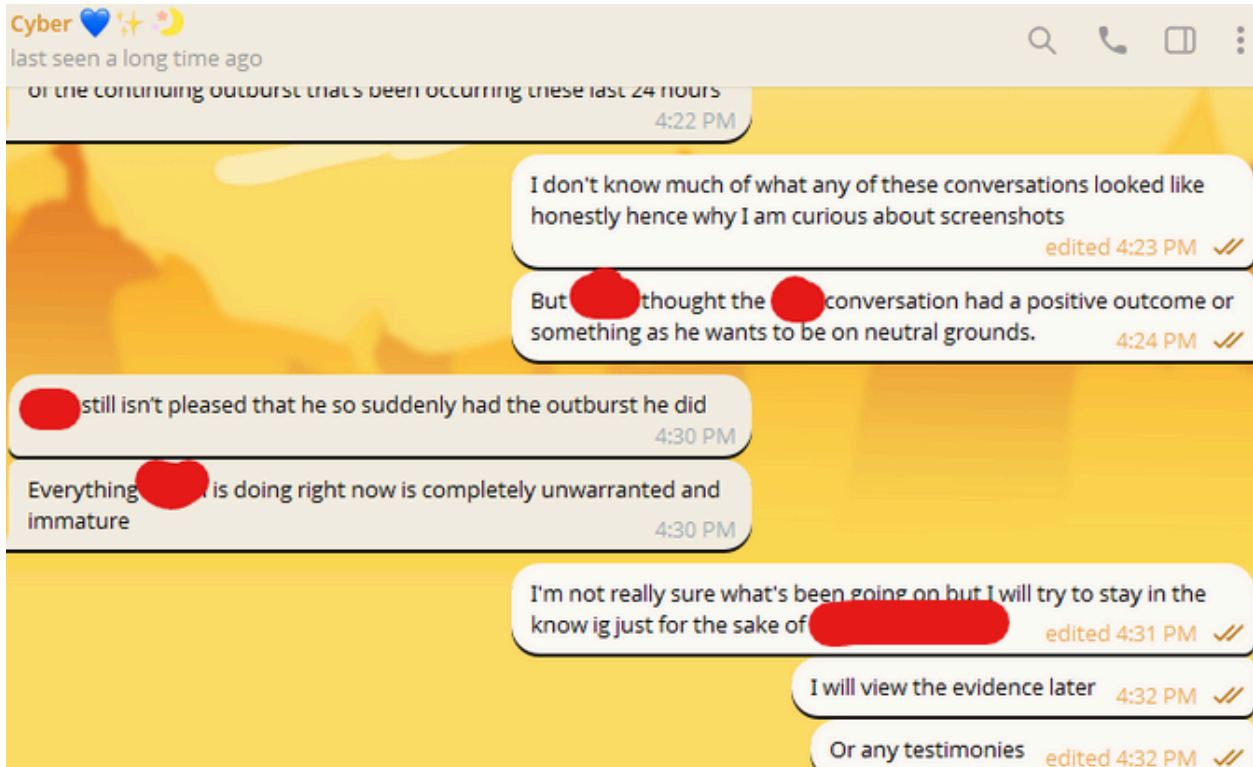

This was the first time Cyber messaged me in regards to the capitalist pancakes incident. I wasn't thinking too hard as I had been busy. I knew something had happened and Cyber had done something wrong just from the few things I heard from Admin Anon. However, I didn't know the full extent of it, so I figured it was just an overreaction or a misunderstanding between friends. I was hoping Cyber apologized as it sounded like a lot of emotions were high, but I like to see the best in people. I figured it was resolved when Cyber told me it was, not sure what happened there.

Notice here, she says Admin Anon is the one spewing some quite nasty things. I tackle a lot of these things in the next tab called “Cyber’s Motive Against Me”, if you want more information on the situation between her and Admin Anon that made her lash out at me.

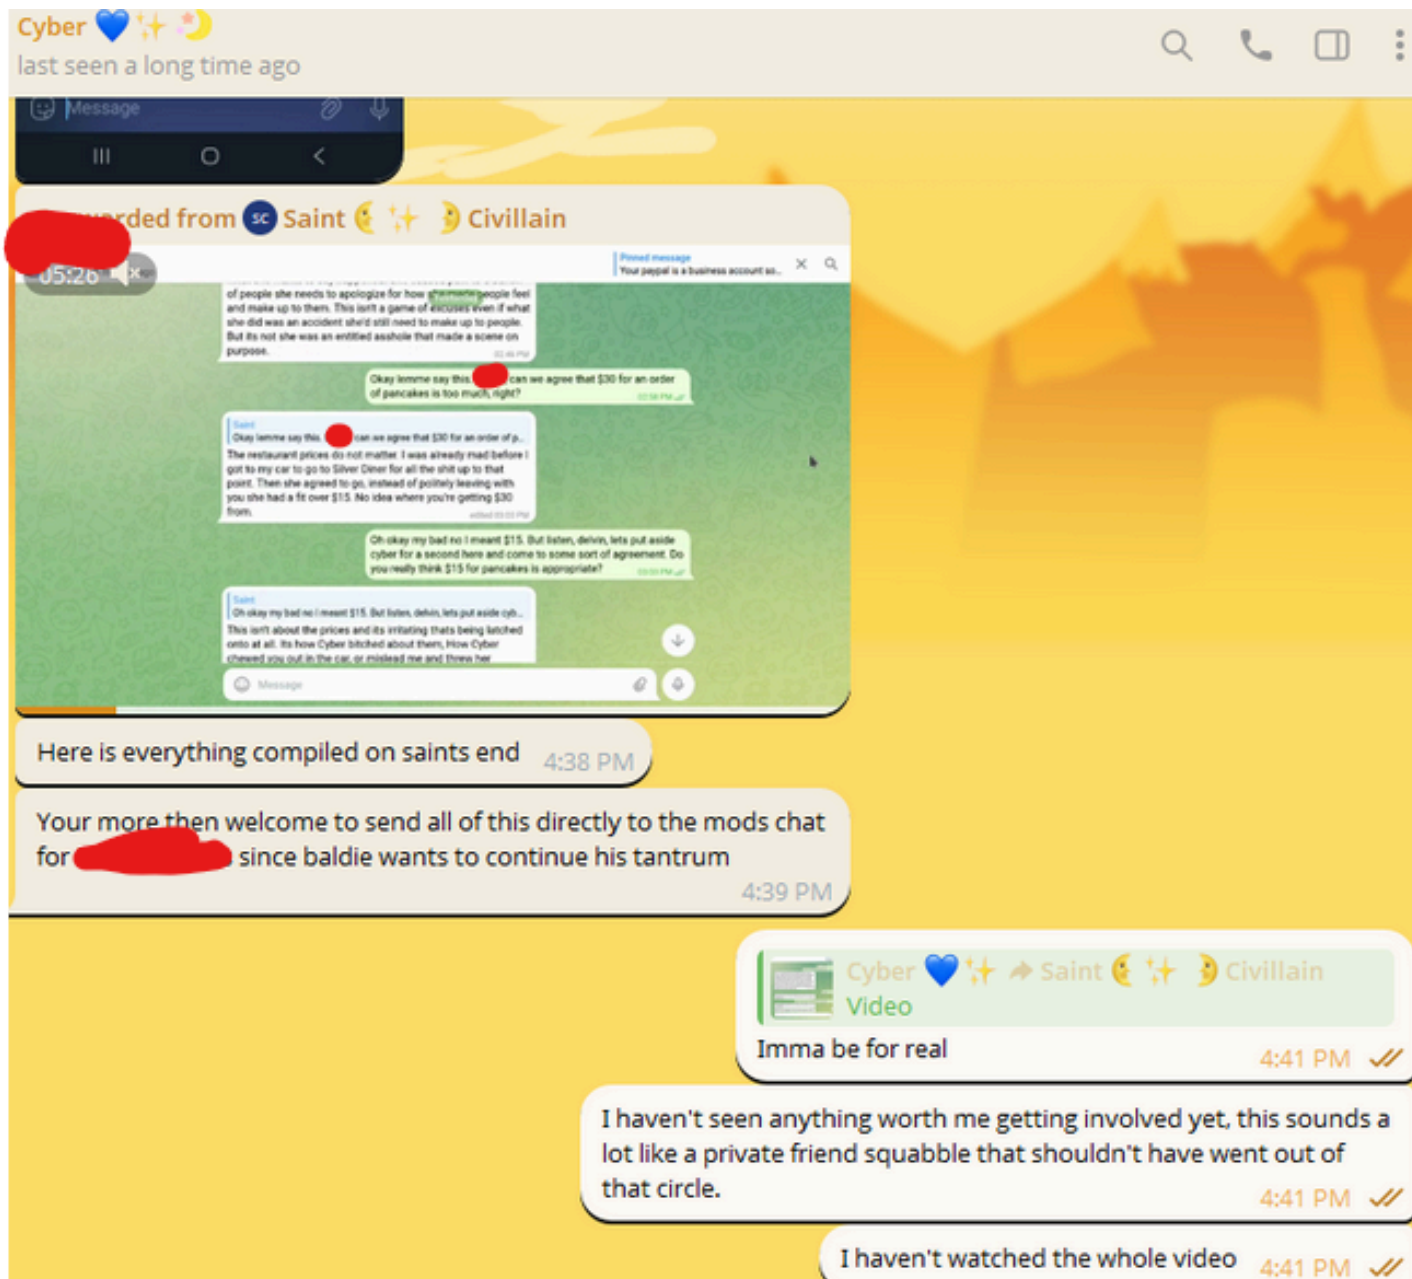

I was confused at this point as I wasn't at the event Cyber kept referring to and I didn't want to just take their word for it.

This is what Cyber sent me as evidence concerning Admin Anon's supposed abuse and outbursts from her friend Saint Civillain's DMs. If you have not read "The Cyber Files" by this point, there's a lot concerning Saint there if you want a bigger picture of some of the other things he's done outside of my own experience.

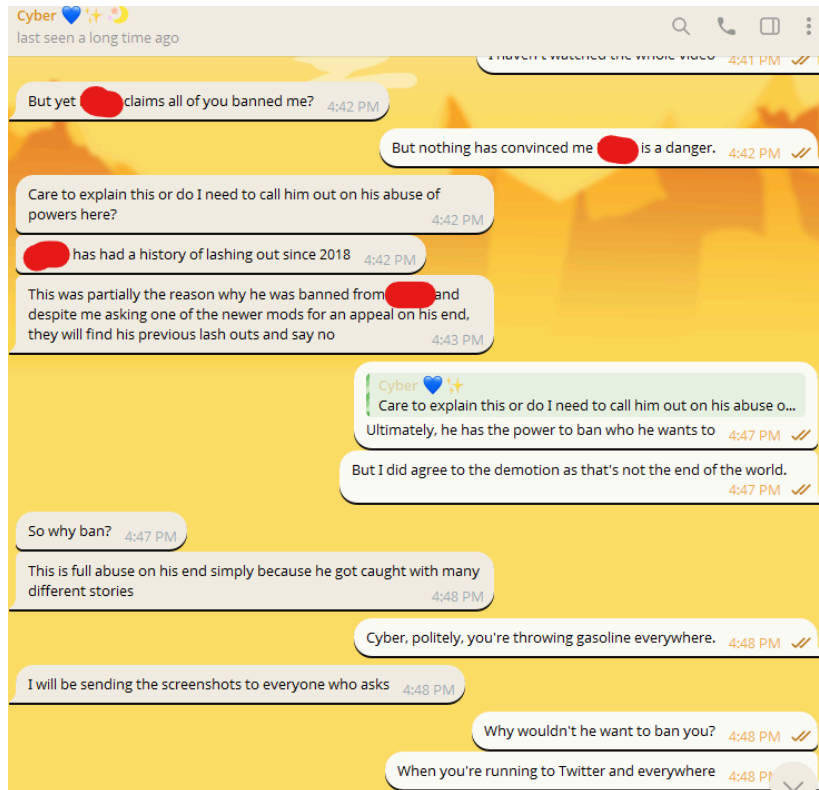

I talk about and show the screenshots in more depth in the "Cyber's Evidence" section of the "Cyber's Motive Against Me" tab.

From here, she sent me a video of the entire conversation, which I saw as a nothing burger. I also saw a man who was hurt by his friendship with multiple people ending this way. I didn't see a scary abusive man with outbursts. I'm not posting the video as it'd be really difficult to censor Admin Anon out of a six minute video Cyber expected me to watch.

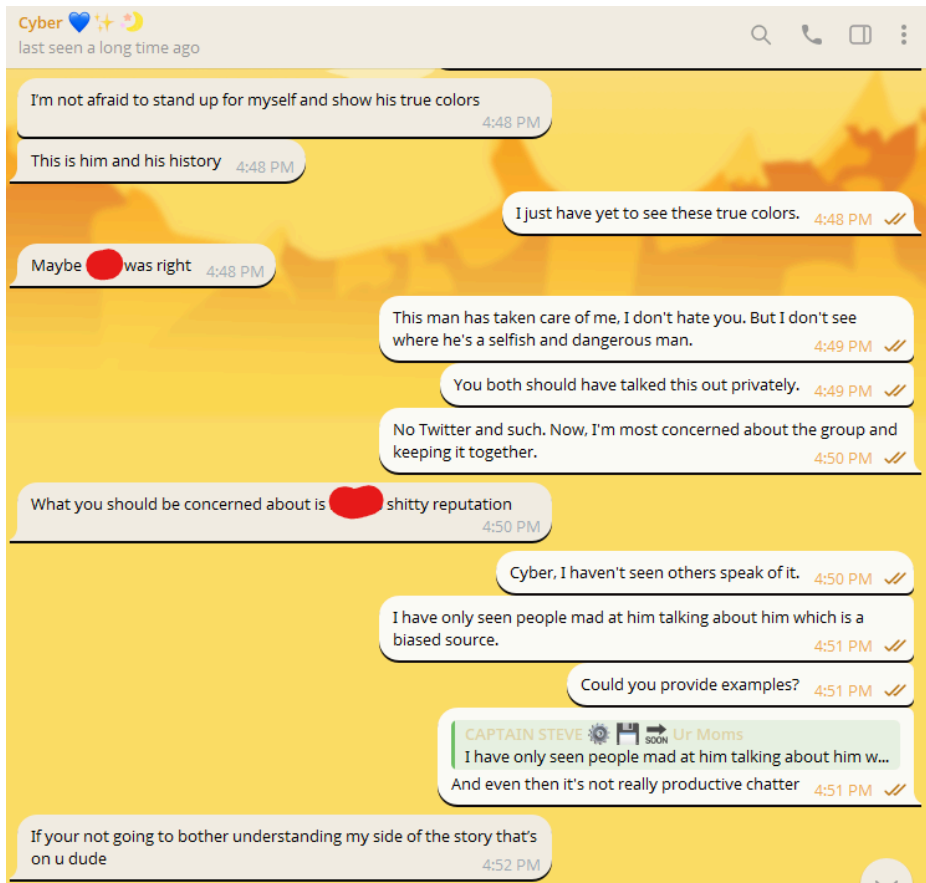

Notice, she makes fun of his appearance instead of just sticking to facts as well. We can already see Saint just talking about those pancakes again from the thumbnail.

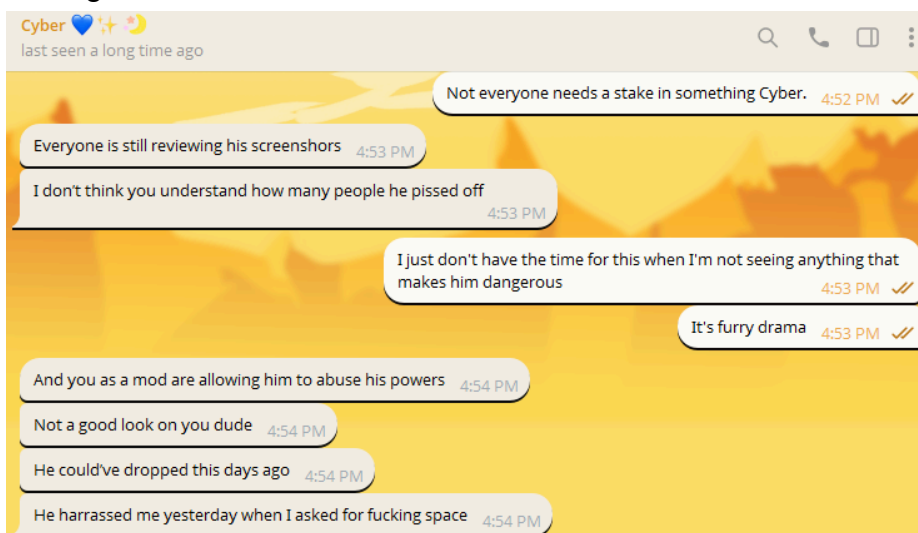

I didn't watch the whole video. After about a minute I felt like it was a waste of my time, as there was nothing incriminating and I had better things to do at this time of my life than run into friend squabbles. Now, I did watch the video while compiling this document and still failed to see anything incriminating against Admin Anon.

I was firm but polite to Cyber that I didn't see how Admin Anon was being abusive. It's his right to ban her from his group when they're saying these awful things about him and going to everyone he might know about it.

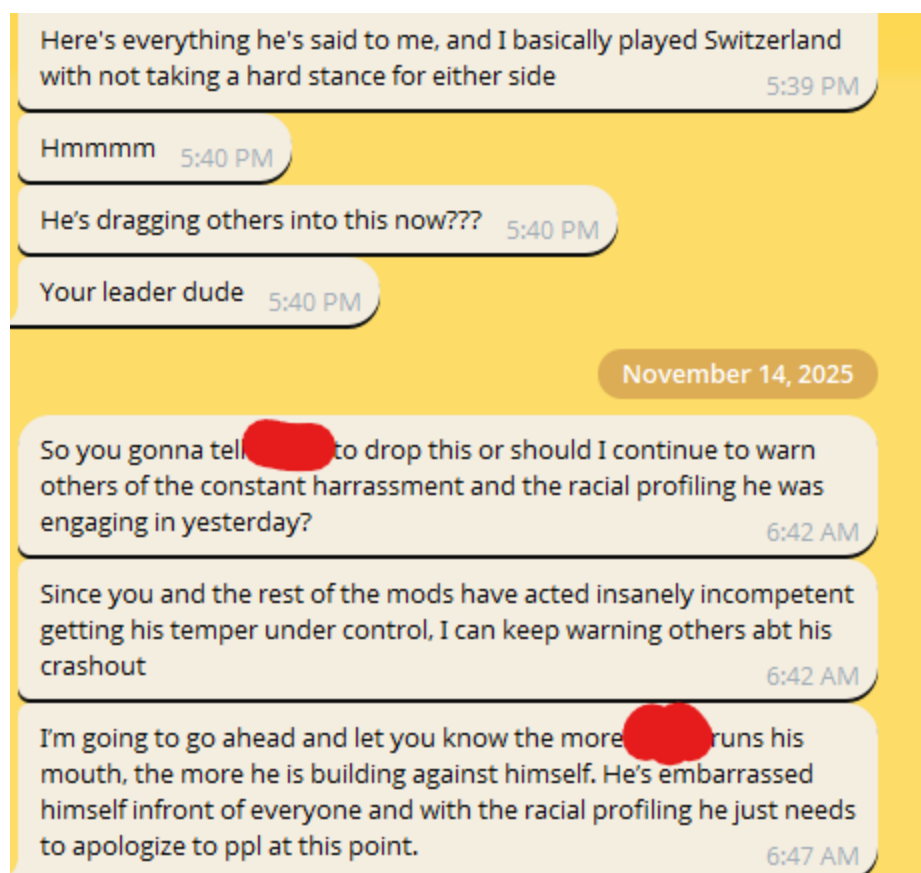

Cyber immediately became defensive after I showed I wasn't feeling inclined to fully side with her and said "Maybe (Derp's anon apologist who runs the 180 member group) was right."

Whenever Cyber is upset, she always mentions having numbers of people on her side. It's an intimidation tactic.

Notice they tried to manipulate me by saying things like “Over 12 people have come to my defense.” and “I know you’re better than this.” I review these screenshots Cyber sent as evidence in further depth in the “Cyber’s Evidence” section of the “Cyber’s Motive Against Me” tab.

These are the last messages she sent to me after sending those screenshots of evidence of her case against Admin Anon. I ignored her admittedly as I understood she wasn't engaging in good faith and it was her way or the highway.

VICTIM BLAMING

Cyber has been telling the story of my rape to people and either saying it wasn't rape because we were "both high" or "there's fault on both sides". Saying there's "fault on both sides" is an easy way for sexual predators to get out of consequences. Even if Cyber is not Derparino, Cyber is speaking for Derparino, who is my rapist. Here is a simple page on some common victim blaming examples that you can view if you'd like to read up on them. Here is another page with more information on understanding SA, victim blaming, and how to be a good ally to survivors.

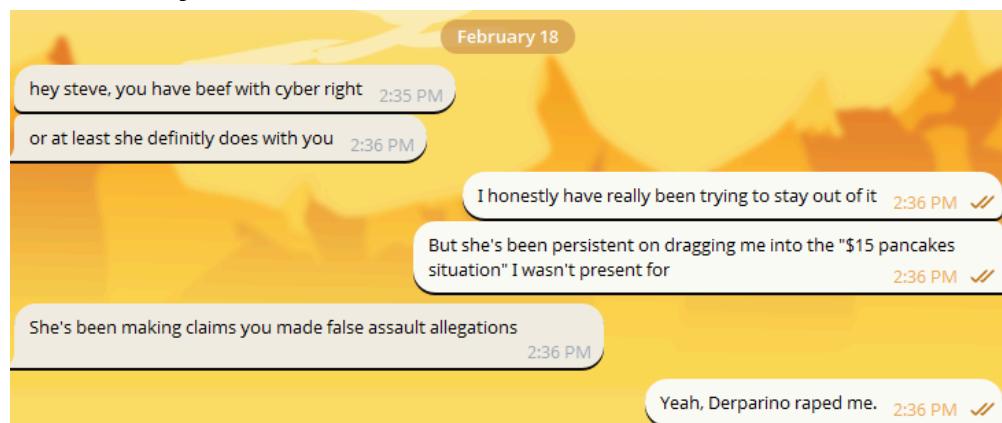

Victim Blaming Examples

The first step in stopping victim blaming is recognizing when it occurs. Examples of victim blaming may include thinking or saying things like:

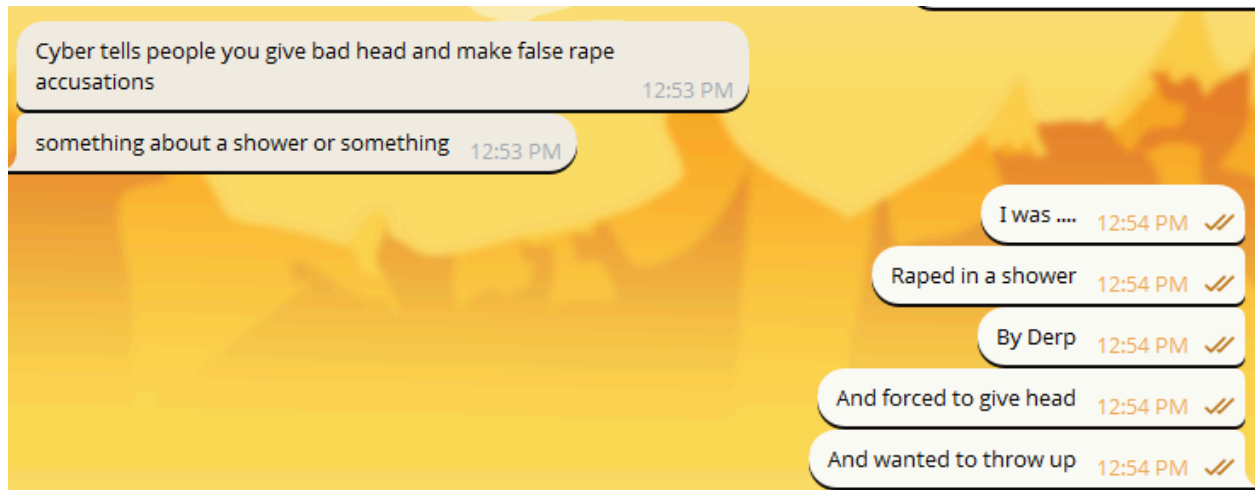

- “You had to know what was going to happen if you went up to that person's apartment.”
- “You shouldn’t have been drinking.”
- “You must have sent mixed messages.”
- “Was your door even locked?”
- “What were you wearing?”
- “How hard did you try to stop it?”
- “Why didn’t you come forward sooner?”

There are many ways people either outright blame victims or subtly imply they must have provoked the predator (or not tried hard enough to make it stop). Victim blaming occurs any time someone says or implies that a sexual assault was the victim’s fault.

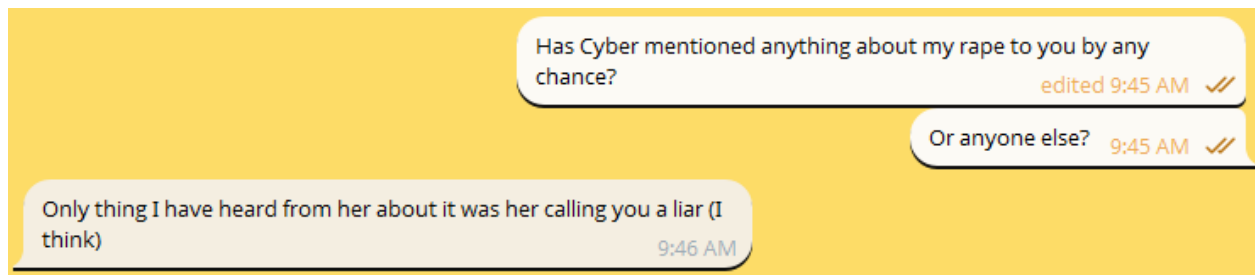

On February 18th, 2026, I received this DM:

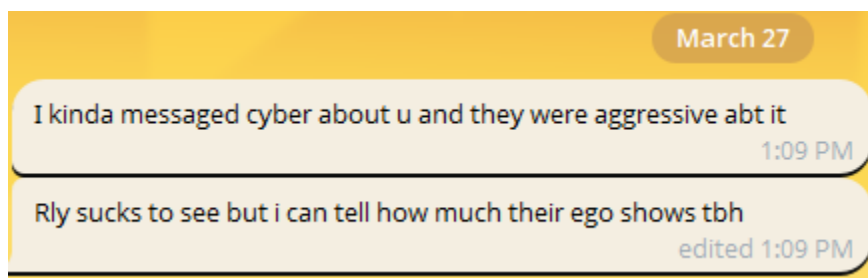

At this point I had been feeling alone and low due to events in my personal life. I also felt like other local furries were avoiding me due to the things people claimed Cyber was spreading. I just said it straight, because at this point I was exhausted.

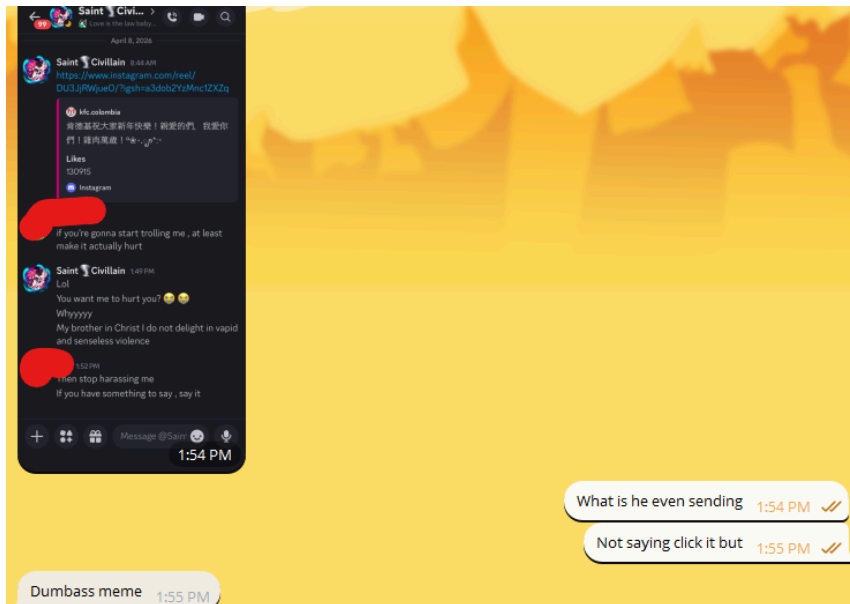

This person told me this in text, this was something I was already asked about and told in person by other people. However, I had only heard that she was saying they were false allegations before. Not that she was describing a vivid memory of mines from that day to say I give “bad head”. After this, I was shaking a lot. As a C-PTSD survivor it can be difficult when I get vivid flashbacks like this. I wasn't expecting to have someone I didn't know recall such an awful memory of mines.

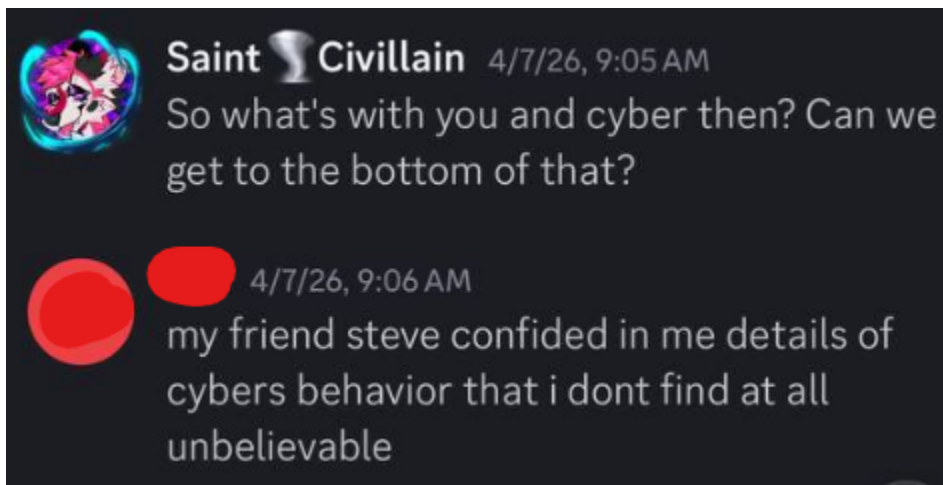

Here's another screenshot from another person who also heard them allegedly say I was lying about my experience with Derparino.

This screenshot is from an anonymous friend I recently reconnected with who was more in Cyber's circles. Upon hearing about what was happening as we were catching up, he wanted to ask Cyber about it. He was met with aggressive responses allegedly. Cyber's friend, Saint Civillain, harassed him after this and demanded he apologize.

About a week later, my anon friend started sending me screenshots from Saint. I will be putting the important ones as they pertain to this document here.

Saint Civillain 4/7/26, 9:07 AM

I wonder what inclines you to believe such a story without any evidence 🤔

4/7/26, 9:07 AM

maybe cyber isnt the most controversial when it comes to what they say or do but from what i already saw i know they can be loud, impulsive, and kinda arrogant hearing what they say privately just reinforced that

Saint Civillain 4/7/26, 9:08 AM

Being loud and arrogant is one thing, and perhaps thats the correct assumption at times, but something as serious as 🍇 requires more than just bad vibes yk that right?

4/7/26, 9:12 AM

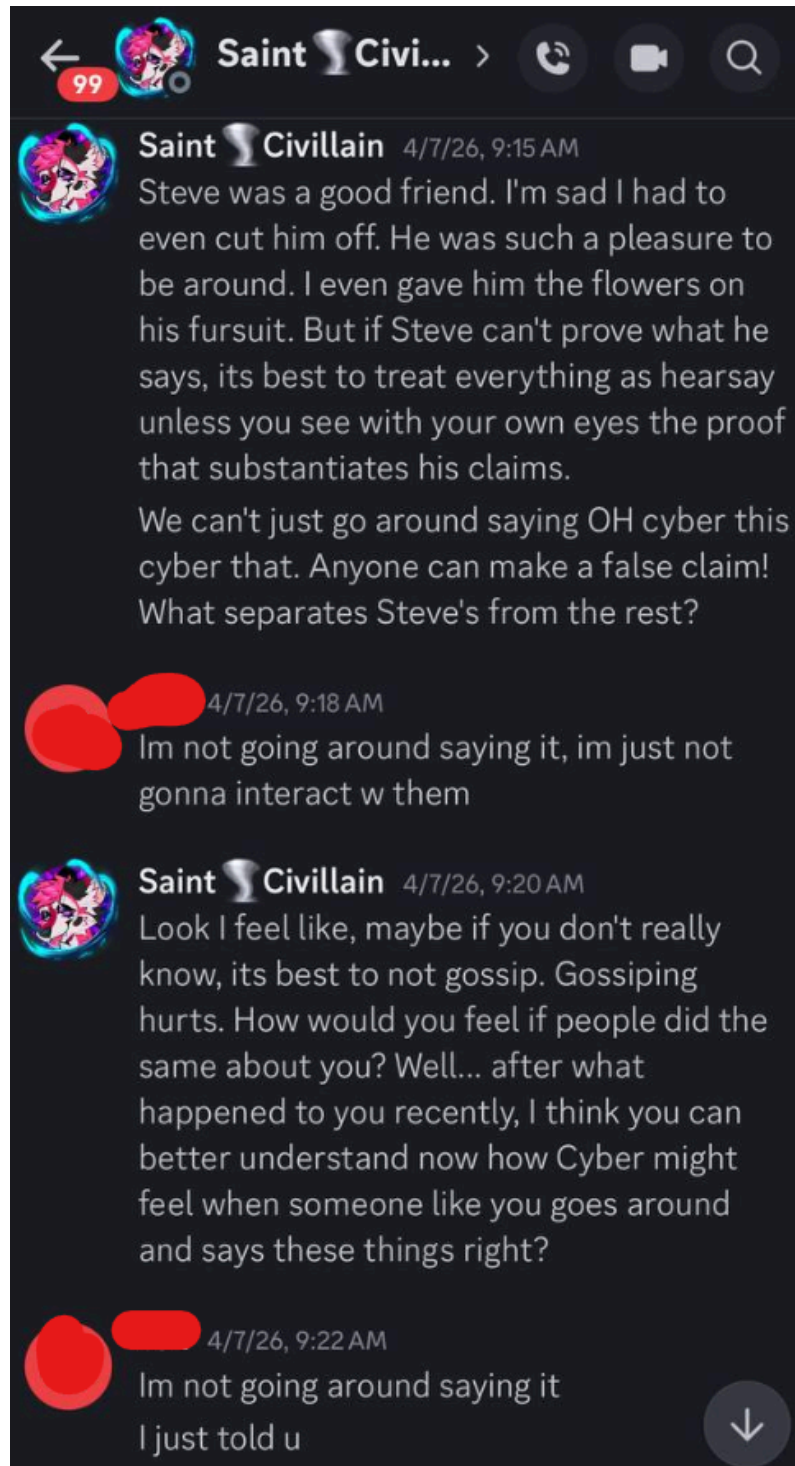

thats what steve shared w me and they've always been honest about the good and bad people they meet

Cyber on the other hand continues to talk and make friends with people kinda regardlessly (edited) sure they're more social but that also means opening their space to the wrong people and either getting hurt or defending them it wasnt surprising to hear

It's important to note here that Saint wasn't asking what my friend knew in good faith. Saint is what's known as a "Flying Monkey" in psychology terms. In short, this term refers to people who act on the behalf of an abusive individual by defending them, manipulating others, and starting rumors.

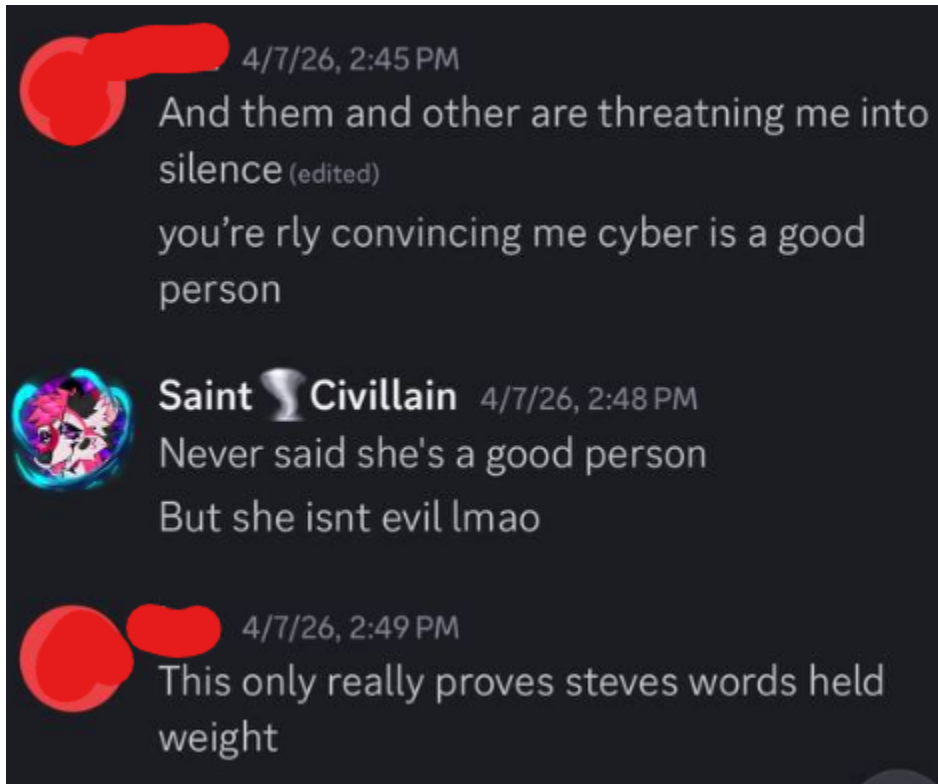

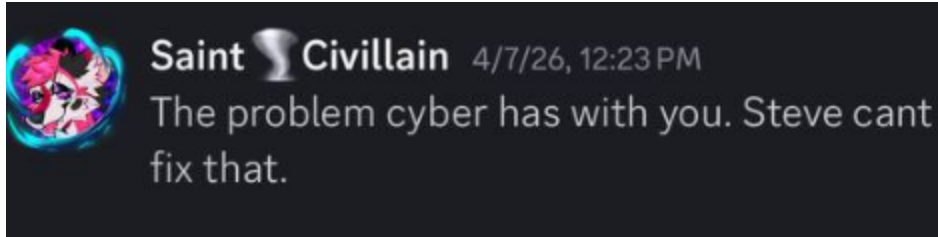

Once again, Saint came in with the manipulation tactic of “Think about Cyber’s feelings!” and then took on the common victim blaming tactic of saying “anyone can make a false claim”.

At this point, Anonymous was tired of this.

Later, Saint tried to convince this anon to just talk to Cyber and made a passive aggressive comment with the “that’s noble” message. This pattern of making vague threats if someone doesn’t do what Saint and Cyber want is also seen in “The Cyber Files” towards 0poxxum.

Wait, she isn't a good person? What kind of person is she then, Saint?

WHY DID I COME FORWARD ABOUT CYBER?

I believe I deserve to tell the events of what happened in my own trauma, especially since I'll live with it for the rest of my life. I don't deserve my trauma being told to everyone and being blamed for what happened to me.

Many people in my local furry community are scared to tell her "no" or to stand up for themselves after what she's done to people like me and 0poxxum. Cyber has no problem stalking, blackmailing, and running harassment campaigns on their victims to isolate them from a source of community and companionship.

she's been targeting [REDACTED] as well recently bc she knows they're talking to me

12:41 PM

She made sure to execute her tactics in places not all publicly viewable, such as at local furmeets in-person, people's DMs, and in her friend's Discord server. She only puts what she wants you to see on Twitter, TikTok, Threads, and in public Telegram groups. I care about my local community and I'm tired of seeing people stressed, anxious, and scared because of her. People do not deserve to be scared of an individual within their hobbies' local scene.

After this document is out, Cyber, Saint, and Derp may try to take measures to harm my personal life. Cyber may even try DARVO tactics in court again. Cyber and their friends have been caught doxxing people's employers and family members as well.

👏👏👏 Bravo. Seriously, bravo. You singlehandedly undid your entire livelihood by your own hands. How hilarious! I won't play nice - you're a cowardly bitch and a lobotomite. Not only can you not be a proper man and keep a promise (you reuploaded ur silly little doc again x_x), you changed so many things. Now it's no longer doxxing and extortion I'm apparently blackmailing and bribing you? Hahaha! Very funny accusations. Still untrue, but you aren't man enough to admit to yourself when you've made a mistake. Might as well ask ya daddy for help. You need it. I want you to realize how much of a weak little punk you are. You're below even a common thief. Let this be a lesson you will never forget. You never cyberbully people. I've seen you hacking discord accounts like the little shitstain you are. May you never touch another computer professionally ever again. May you realize the hand of poverty and the bite of despair upon yourself.

Put this in your little document. Frame these words. Cyberbullying will NEVER make you tough, or bring you peace, or give you prosperity. Bullies never win. Ever. And in the end? Justice has won. You have failed to convince the world that cyber or I are the bad ones. You have failed when you openly admit your various mistakes which we all know you are not truly sorry for. You thought you could bully cyber into submission? You thought you could defame me? You are 26 years old - get a fucking life already. You're a disgrace and an embarrassment to your family.

Edited

Also let Captain Steve know I said FUCK A YOUUUUUUU!!!! 🙌👏👏

For example, on April 29th, 2026, Saint messaged 0poxxum. Saint boasted about him and Cyber managing to doxx 0poxxum and get him terminated from his job to silence him. This escalated despite Opoxxum not contacting either Cyber or Saint for over a month.

I'm tired of always living with a heavy head and being scared of other furies when I think of these people and the power they hold.

I almost took my life recently during one of my episodes that Cyber caused.

I decided enough was enough. Derp and Cyber do not deserve to have control over my life and tell my story, no matter their wealth or social power.

CYBER'S INNER CIRCLE

Cyber's inner circle is mostly made up of opportunistic folks and emotionally vulnerable people she can manipulate. The opportunistic people in Cyber's social circle will blindly do things for her and defend her if there is more clout, parties, and the status of being friends with a popufur involved. However, these individuals will also be ready to gain clout if Cyber's exposed and go against her. If these people had morality, they would've spoken up before this document when she was talking about my trauma. They only turn a blind eye and agree with her as she has contact with popufurs and can get people into parties.

As for the emotionally vulnerable people in Cyber's circle, they love to prey on people at lows in their life. They will raise them high, promise them things, take them to meets, and make these people feel good about themselves. However, whenever she gets into a spat with someone or otherwise wants to start a harassment campaign, these people must agree with her or else. She can also resort to blackmail using the vulnerable person's secrets from venting, as seen in "The Cyber Files".

If you're one of these people, you're being manipulated. Cyber wants to use you, you can choose better for yourself. You can find genuine friends, maybe even reach out to a trusted person if you believe you're in a manipulative friendship. A healthy friendship isn't about always siding with your friend and doing what they ask.

Cyber's Motive Against Me

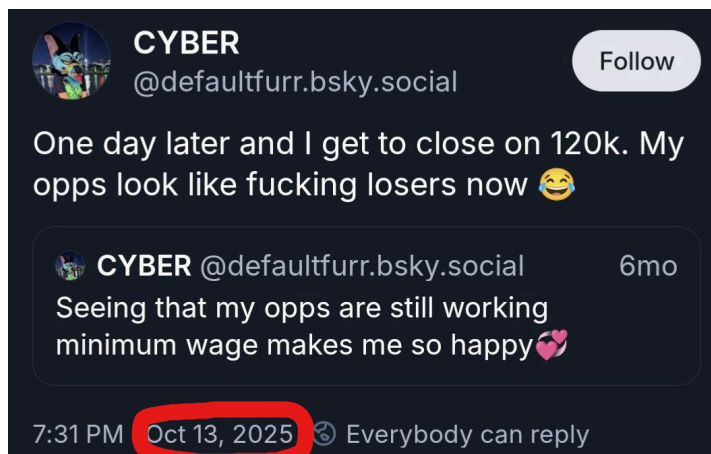

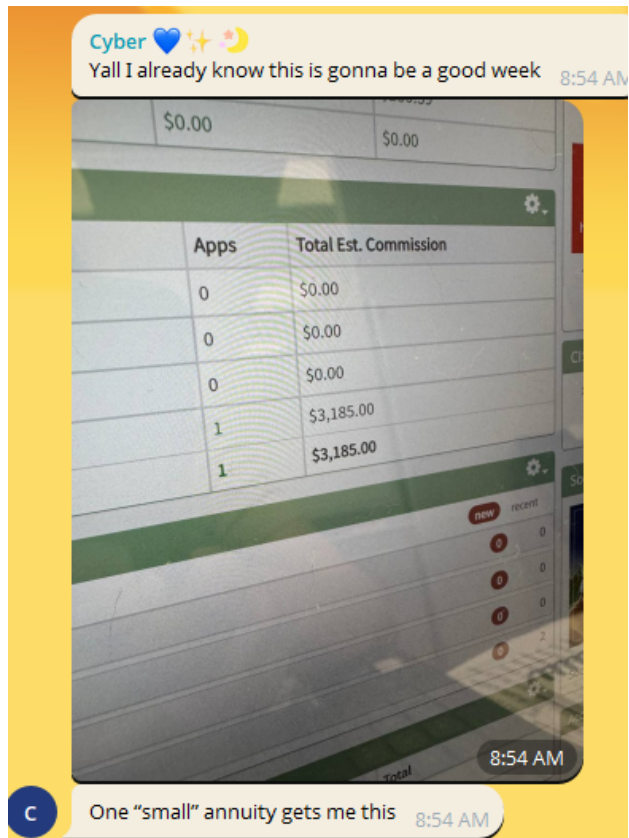

WHAT IS THIS SECTION?

This section is optional reading and evidence if you'd like to know more on what occurred between Cyber and Admin Anon. I split this off for easier readability and to keep Cyber's section more on topic as it pertains to Derp.

CYBER FRAMES HERSELF AS STRUGGLING

I will note that while she was talking about how inconsiderate this diner was with her starting her new career, she was bragging about all of the money she was getting from her new job in other places. I'm left wondering how they couldn't afford these capitalist pancakes or to even pay for their friend without a job to eat. The screenshots I'm presenting now are of her bragging about her income before the capitalist pancakes incident. Much of them come from Cyber's Bluesky, where they are more openly their true self.

Notice the date on this Bluesky post. Interesting, because the capitalist pancakes incident happened that November.

So, I think we've made a point. Cyber could have afforded those capitalist pancakes and if not, I'm not sure why they're posting all of this about their supposedly great job.

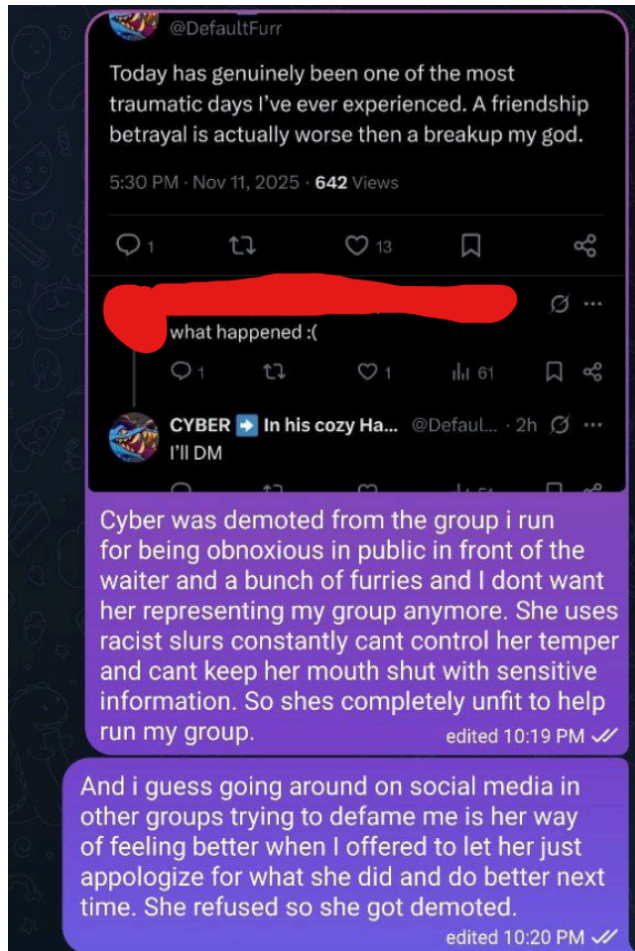

TWITTER SYMPATHY

Cyber likes to post vague tweets either being angry as seen in “The Cyber Files” or claiming something traumatic has happened and she usually makes her victim out to be the worst person for anyone willing to hear. She does this as she likes to isolate victims and will throw a fit if you don’t agree, as seen by how she is treating me now in relation to not agreeing with her on the capitalist pancakes.

Here’s another example of this behavior in relation to Admin Anon’s experience.

Admin Anon did tell his side of the story to the person as well.

This was the “awful and terrible” reasoning that Cyber was demoted from the furry meet group we staffed in.

CYBER  FWA!!!! @DefaultFurr · Dec 31, 2025

They also posted this about Anon Admin, who is vegan, hence the last sentence. This is ad hominem and an odd thing to say about people who choose a different diet. There are disorders and illnesses that can cause a lack of vitamin B12 as well, this is incredibly insensitive.

As of 04/11/2026, those Capitalist Pancakes seem to still have hands.

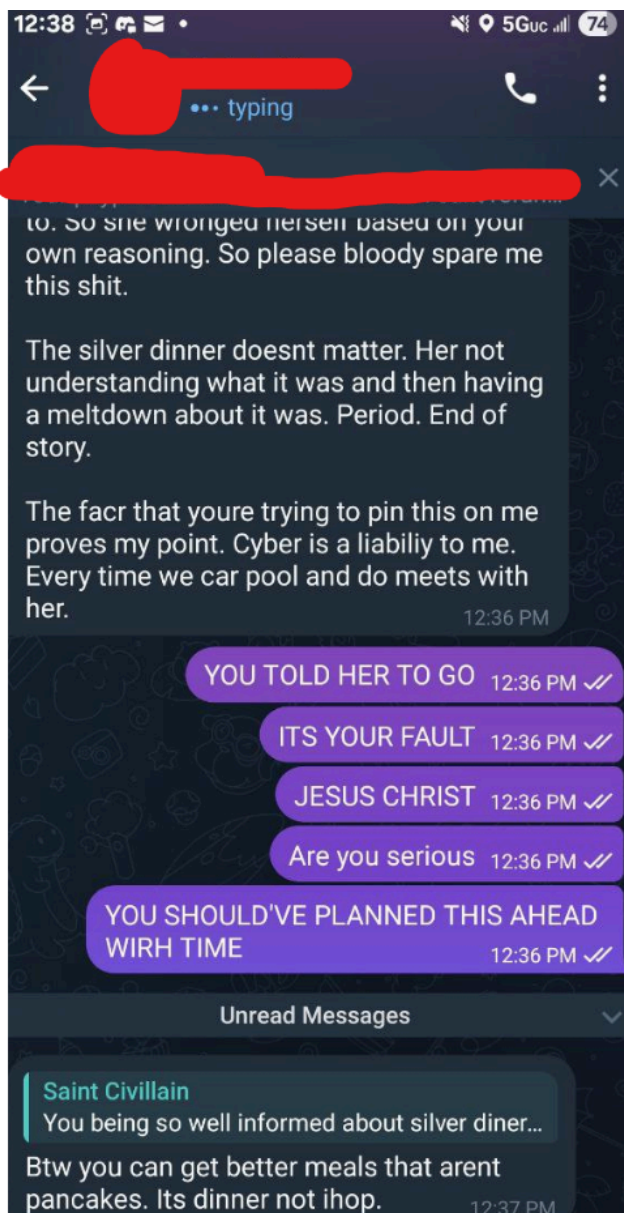

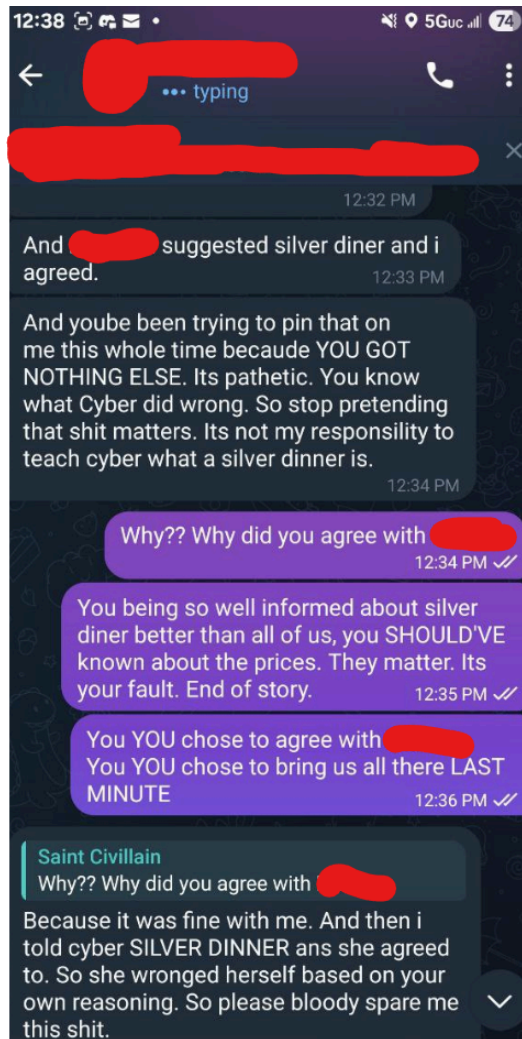

CYBER'S EVIDENCE

The screenshots here are the “evidence” that Cyber sent me against Admin Anon in “The 180 Begins” section in the previous tab. I’ve placed these here since I wasn’t present at the diner when this occurred, even though it led to Cyber spreading my trauma and victim blaming me because I didn’t immediately side with them. It doesn’t have much to do with me except for it being a part of her motive against me.

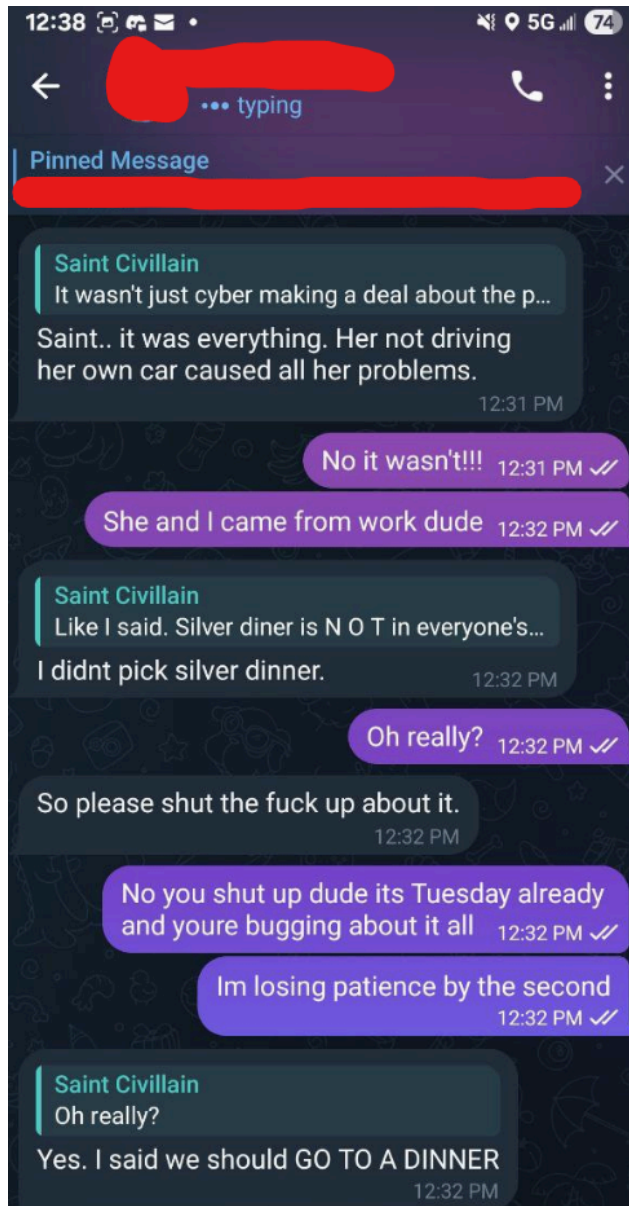

I want to lay out everything I can, so I will show them here. To get the context for these screenshots if you haven’t already, read the “Capitalist Pancakes” section in the previous tab.

I will note, Admin Anon has stated it was Cyber's idea to carpool and he wanted to stay at the meet the whole time, but Cyber didn't. He was still nice and carpooled her to the meet.

Notice here, Admin Anon wasn't the one who made the suggestion to go get capitalist pancakes, it was another furry. Also, why can't Admin Anon agree with someone else's suggestion? The area they were in also has a higher cost of living, so restaurants there have to charge more.

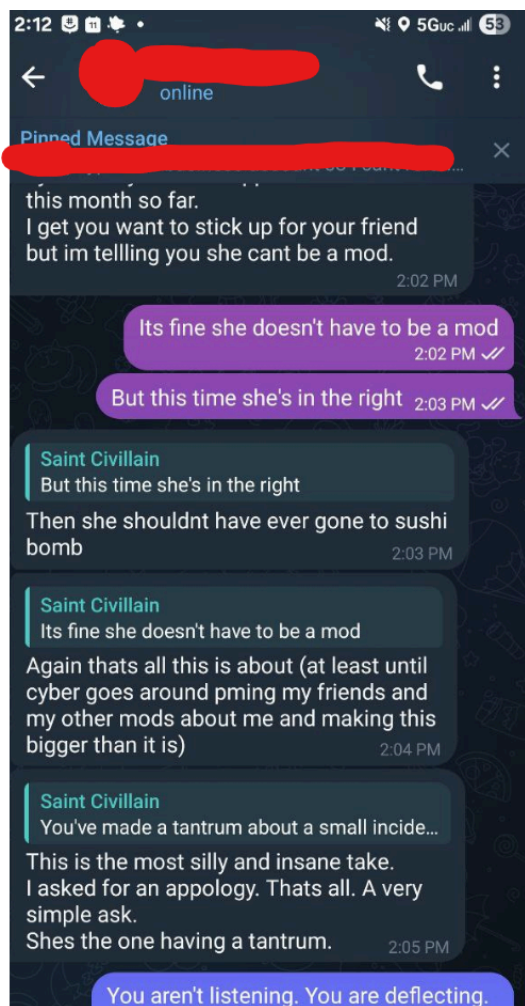

Admin Anon did begin to lose his patience, but at that point Cyber was sowing seeds of doubt into people's heads that he was a rapist and had anger issues. He also kept getting messages over this situation, everyone has a limit.

Notice, Saint began to try to say she was acting like this towards Admin Anon because she cares, which is a method of manipulation. Also note Saint dropping an ableist slur while talking to Admin Anon, who as stated before is autistic.

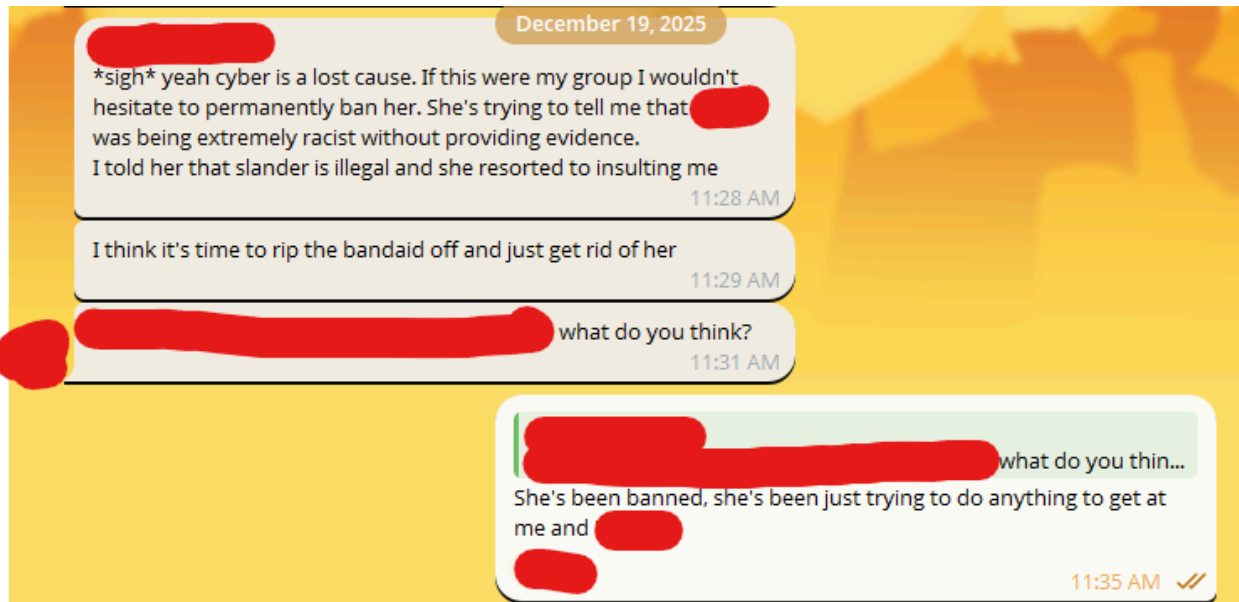

Cyber was bragging about her income beforehand, as seen in previous screenshots, and had been going to more expensive restaurants often weeks prior. She made the staff at the restaurant uncomfortable as she yelled "Scam! Scam! Scam!" with everyone's fursuit heads on the table, according to Admin Anon.

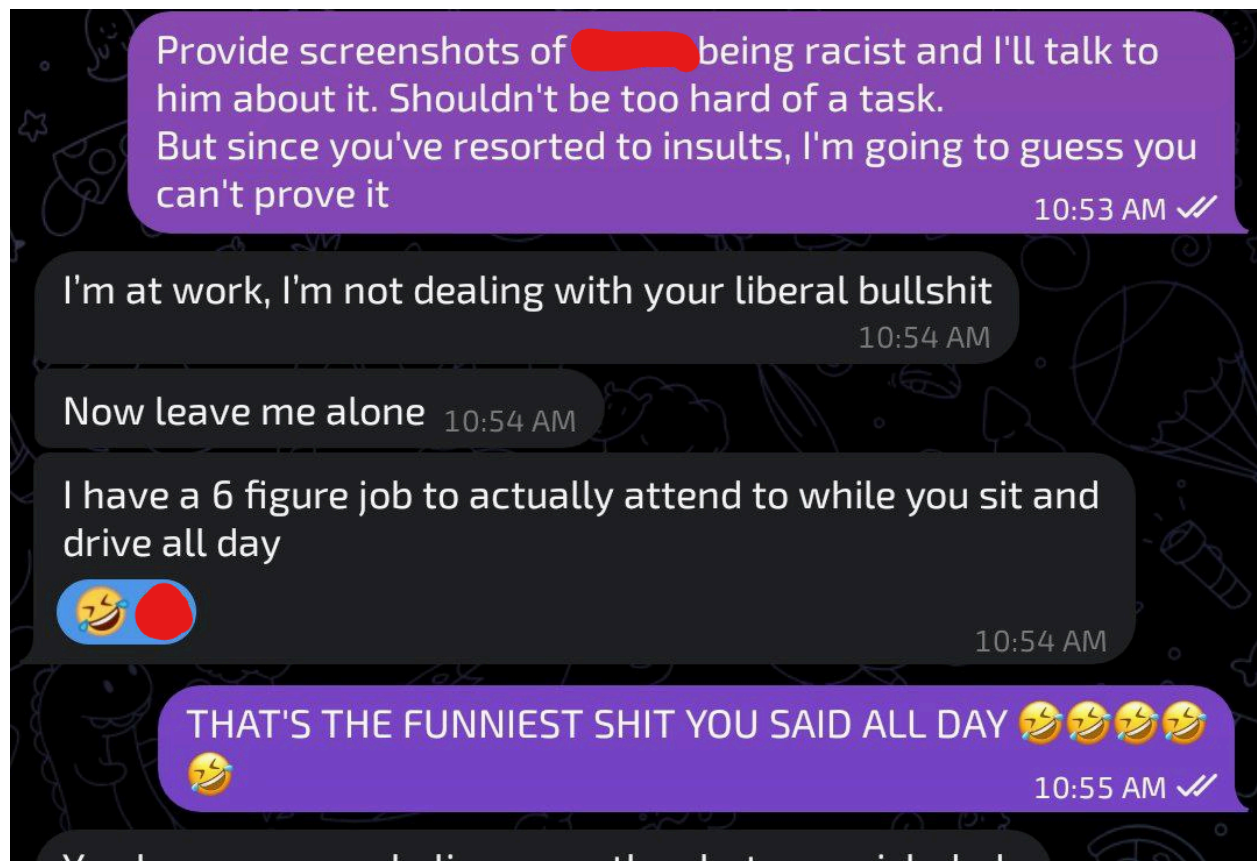

Admin Anon did try to keep this issue more private as, ultimately, it was just a friend dispute. I myself tried to stay out of it as I wasn't there at the meet. However, Cyber insisted on messaging a few different staff members of the group we staffed for and his friends about the situation and tried to get them to side with her.

She made claims to his friends such as saying he was racist for using the word "macho".

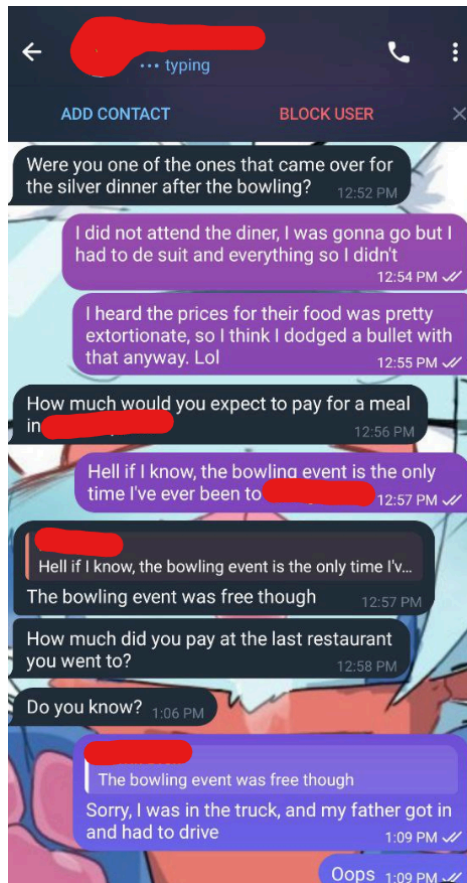

Here's one of our staff members coming forward about Cyber's attempt to slander Admin Anon to them.

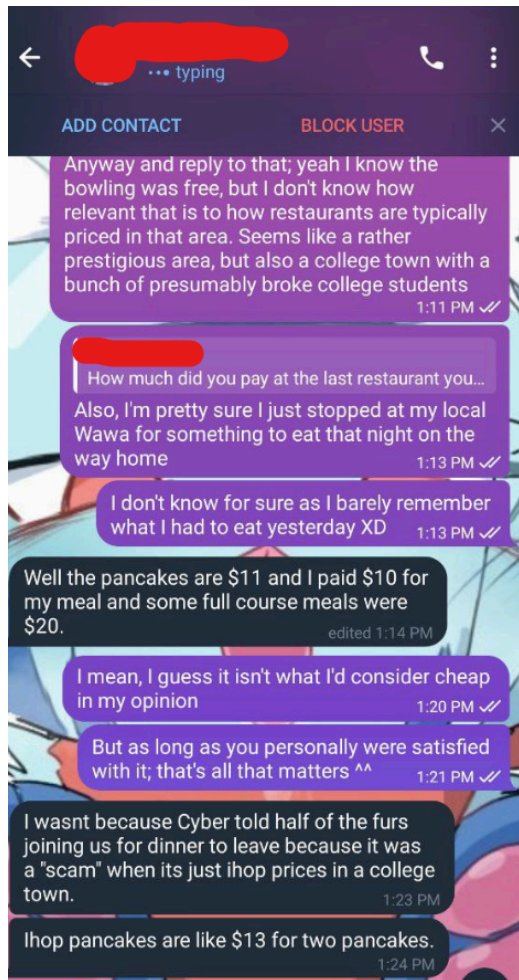

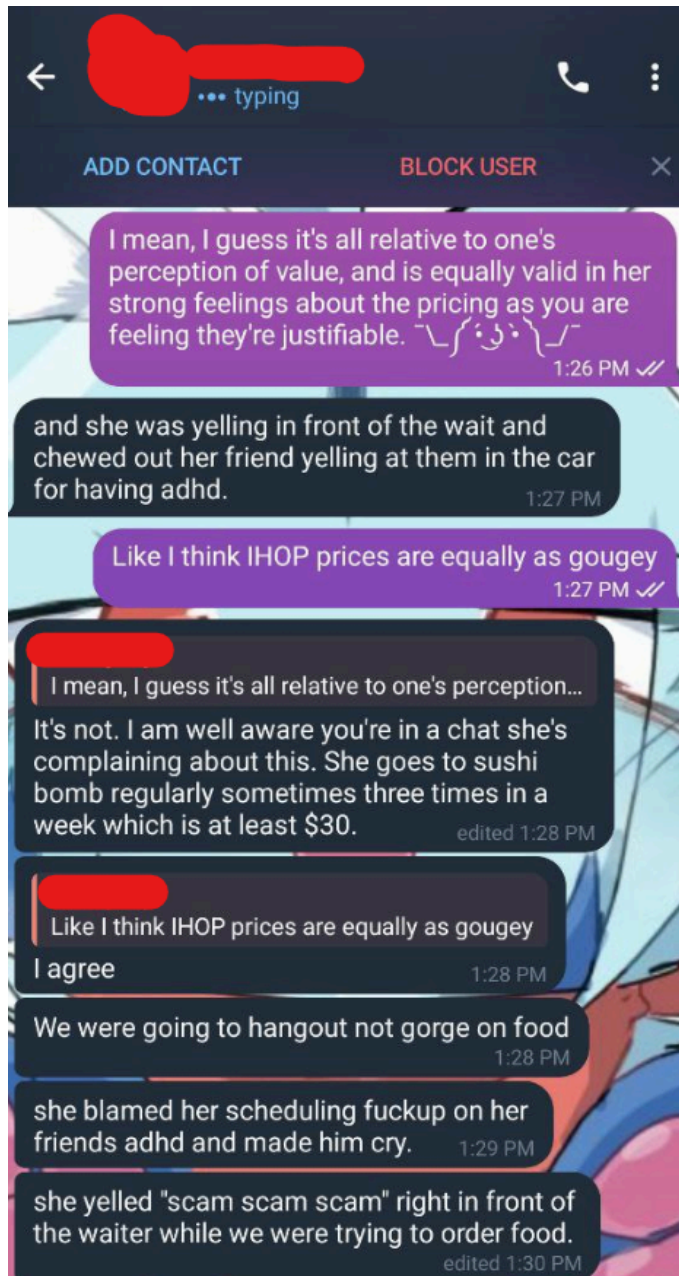

Not immediately jumping to Cyber's side is "liberal bullshit", apparently.

Presented next are the second round of forwarded screenshots from another friend of Cyber's that they've claimed is incriminating evidence against Admin Anon. Their friend is the purple messages and Admin Anon is the dark blue messages.

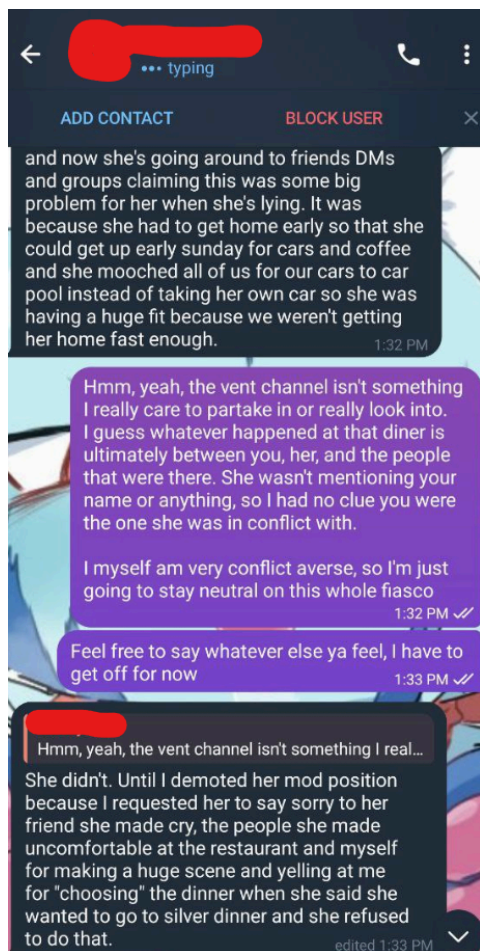

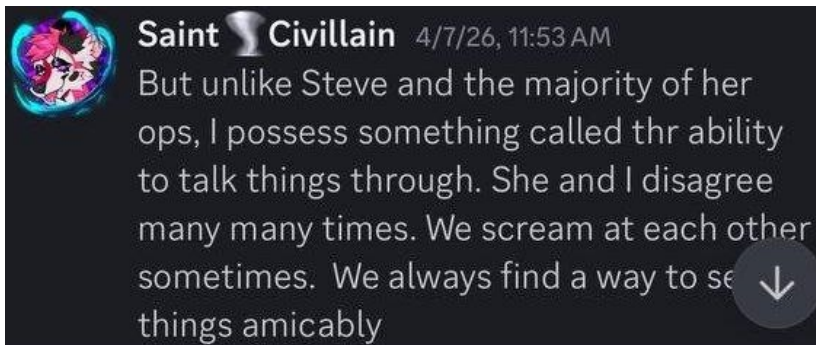

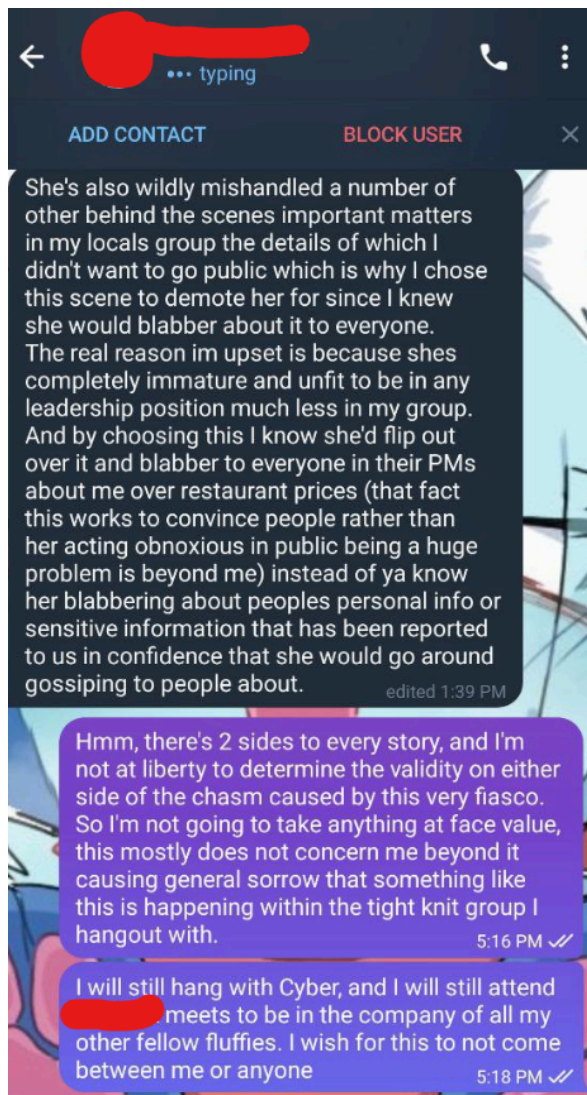

Admin Anon was feeling alone and upset at this point and turned to another furry that's closer to Cyber and might have gone to the diner. He did vent a little and asked the person how much they usually pay at restaurants.

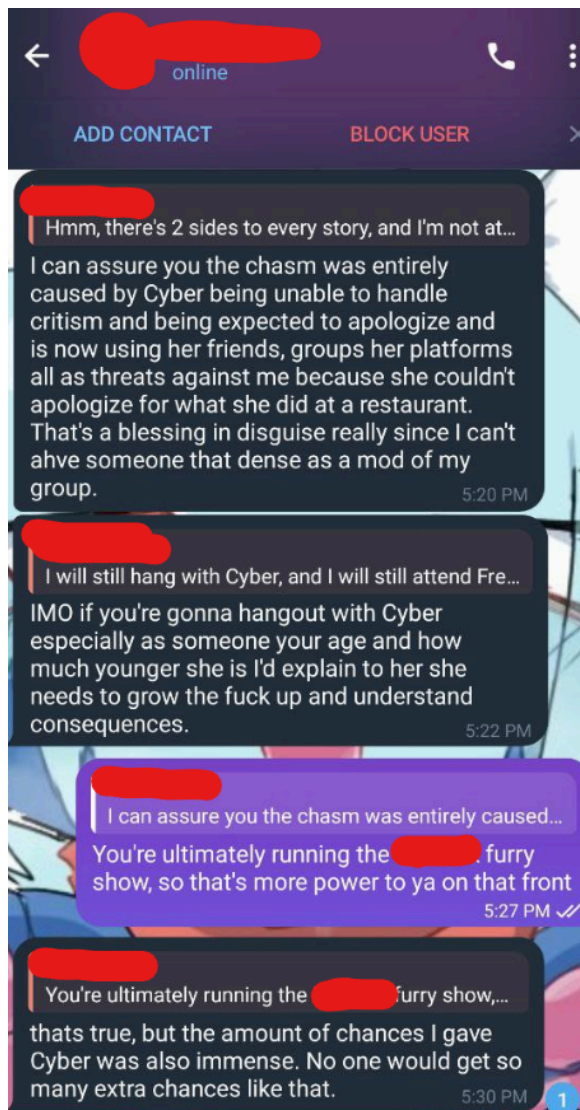

It's important to note that the friend Admin Anon claimed Cyber was screaming at for having ADHD was Saint Civillain, who has made statements like this that do back up the idea that this happened.

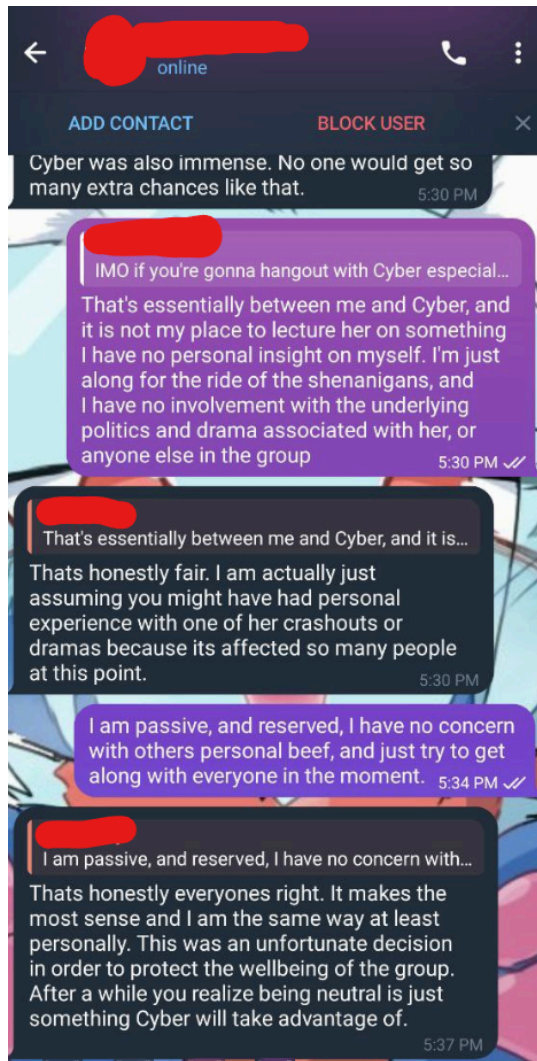

It seemed more like Admin Anon felt alone and was venting rather than this being evidence of him being malicious.

Admin Anon reiterated that he'd given Cyber chances for many things and I've seen it myself. He believed in them becoming a better person and they blew it. The other person in the screenshots tried to imply Admin Anon had more power than Cyber because Admin Anon was running a local furry group.

In the end, Admin Anon said “that's fair” to Cyber's friend and didn't press more nor slander them. These screenshots were sent to me as evidence by Cyber for her side, these were not sent by Admin Anon.

Closing

TO THE PEOPLE WHO BLAMED ME

All of you know who you are. You all manipulated things behind the scenes, gave Derp access to more potential victims, isolated me, and blamed me. The fact you lied to me about caring but then laughed about my trauma in private is disgusting. This says more about the type of people you all are than me.

I'm supported by my friends, my roommate, and acquaintances. I'm not alone in my pain like all of you have tried to make me feel. I'm loved by the people in my life and it's due to them that I want to live. I want to be able to conquer my trauma with Derp and truly live. I will not be silenced anymore by anyone.

ACCOUNTABILITY

Derp and Cyber thought that I could be silenced and isolated through the weaponization of my trauma. They thought I'd be too afraid and stressed to come forward.

For a long time, I didn't know what self love and self worth was. I saw myself as having to please others and give into others and just accept everything bad that happens to me. My friends have made me realize how much I deserve better and that I can fight to lead a better life. It can be better. I can fight to enjoy my interests again, / deserve to really live.

Derp lays low and lets Cyber talk for them. Derp and Cyber both don't like taking accountability for their actions. They need everyone to feel sorry for them and defend them blindly. I'm done with that.

I realize that these individuals probably won't ever accept that what they've done to me is wrong, but that's okay. Everything that happened to me, I still remember and will for the rest of my life. It was very painful and traumatic, but now it doesn't hurt as much anymore. I have had the time to process and cope with it for almost 2 years.

As much as it hurt recently, ever since writing this document I've been feeling better. My mind feels less heavy now, it's felt heavy and exhausted since 2024.

Thank you for reading this entire document.

UPDATES

UPDATES (LAST UPDATED 6/18/2026)

5/6/2026 - Cyber noticed this document and made this tweet with a gif from The Fresh Prince of Bel-Air.

5/8/2026 - Cyber / Defaultfurr has made these Bluesky posts in response to this document.

I will also mention, here's that DARVO method of manipulation we talked about before:

Deny - She denies that my document is true.

Attack - They are threatening to use the legal system.

Reverse Victim and Offender - She says I'm the one being manipulative towards people.

5/25/2026 - Cyber has updated their bio to taunt me after the local furry community has once again done nothing about her behavior in groups and such. Apparently doxxing people, calling cops to meets, and being an awful person to people is A-okay.

I hope I see the same energy when a furry with fifty followers and no fursuit pulls similar stunts.

6/18/2026 - Word on Cyber / Defaultfurr's private is apparently we're (possibly Poxsum and I) the f slur and she's gonna suck thousands of dollars from us in court to "teach us a lesson." Yeah, that sure sounds like a legitimate use of the American legal system, again.

Cyber 🔒 @BrainFogDog · 29 May

I fucking hate drama so much dude but these fucking bitches can't stop riding my fucking dick. Constant fucking victim play online but never does anything legal. My fucking turn I guess. I'm ready to put this fucking fag in jail and sue the shit out of his friend for libel.

Cyber 🔒 @BrainFogDog · 29 May

I don't mean to be a dick to financially ruin someone but it's been years of this person not shutting the fuck up. If it means sucking thousands of dollars from them to teach em a fucking lesson, I will.

8/9/2026 - One of Cyber's best friends, @SaintCivillain in retaliation, has decided to make up a rumor that I apparently, according to him, killed my kittens who had feline leukemia.

They passed from feline leukemia which is a fatal disease.
