PRINCIPAL

Objective: To make the students understand the importance of the ugadi festival and promote the culture of the state. To mark the beginning of a new era and a new hindu lunar calendar.

Outcome: Students got to understand the importance of the ugadi festival and about the culture of the state.

Venue: KGR CET Campus

Summary:

Ugadi marks the first day of the creation of the universe. According to the hindu scriptures, one of the names of Lord Vishnu is Yugaadikrit, which means the creator of the Yugas or ages. In view of this auspicious day the KGR CET DSA has organised the ugadi celebrations in the campus. As a part of the celebrations students were asked to dress in the traditional attire. The celebrations started at 3:00pm and a “Ugadi pachadi ” competition was held . The students and faculty of KGR CET participated very actively in the competition and made some delicious ugadi pachadis. There were 2 winners in the competition 1 from the boys and 1 from the girls. The celebrations was completed by 4:00pm.
