Aug 8: Wk 1	Joshua had a big idea	In many cultures around the world, traditions are transferred through generations through singing and dancing. Sports teams create chants, countries create national anthems that they are know up. Joshua in the bible made it clear to all who cared to listen ""But as for me and my household, we will serve the Lord" – Joshua 24: 15 May I ask, what song represents You? And what happens when we do not worship by ourselves but our entire family? Many leave their children, spouses and friends out of their worship experience. You may even start a worship altar in your home. Let your friends, relatives, children find an atmosphere around you that can only be attributed to worship. – 10 WEEK Countdown to the Evening of Worship 2026

Aug 15: WK2	Why do we gather?	While trying to expound on this topic on why we gather, this scripture came to my mind; not sure entirely why but I believe someone needs to hear this today. Deuteronomy 32:30, which reads: "How could one man chase a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight, unless their Rock had sold them, and the LORD had given them up?" While there is no wrong in worshipping alone, what could happen when two or more people gather to worship? Here are some things you can do in groups; - Be an example to others on how to worship - Believe in group prayer for something - Pray for someone else or receive prayers - Be encouraged when you hear others singing

		Sometimes, we do not feel like singing but when we give ourselves the opportunity to worship in group, we may receive the grace and encouragement we need in time of need. – 9 WEEKS Countdown to the Evening of Worship 2026
Aug 22: WK 3	What is your song?	I really want to know, what is your top 5 songs on your Spotify playlist? Some may point to their wedding song as being memorable, others to one that plays on the radio on the morning commute. What is more important is this – do you have a song for situations that come up in life? Maybe you feel weary, burdened, in a moment of thanksgiving or just wanting to lift up the name of Jesus. I challenge you with this verse: Phillipians 4:8 "Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things" – NIV. When you bring worship into your playlist, you offer your spirit a chance to dig deep and find the right songs when you need it the most. – 8 WEEKS Countdown to the Evening of Worship 2026

		At the Evening of Worship 2026, you get the chance to add a few new songs to your repertoire, be there!
Aug 29: WK 4	There is so much water in the Bible	Draw from the wells of salvations There is a river of life that flows from the city of God He makes me lie down in still waters All of these reference God's presence is such a beautiful yet powerful way. As we meditate on these scriptures, may we find his presence in such a beautiful, calm yet powerful way. Stay blessed today, friends. – 7 WEEKS Countdown to the Evening of Worship 2026
Sept 5: WK 5	"Jesus, our brother is dying..."	This was the cry from both sisters of Lazarus, Mary and Martha to Jesus. This is what he replied; Jesus said, "This sickness will not end in death. No, it is for God's glory so that God's Son may be glorified through it." When we pass through the phases and troubles of life we are reminded that this is not how the story ends. We are reminded to hope out of hope, and our worship is a cry out to the Father's heart that is spite of it all, he remains lord of all.

		All Glory Be to the name of Jesus! – 6 WEEKS Countdown to the Evening of Worship 2026
Sept 12: WK 6	Close your eyes in prayer, open your mouth in worship.	Remember that time when God shut the mouth of the future father of John the Baptist? The prophet Zechariah went dumb for a season, and his voice was only restored after the birth of the promise. God has promised that your end will be better, that this spirit will rest upon you and many more promises! When you come to the place of worship, remember today that the words that we speak are spirit and life. Remember to sing back his word back in faith believing! And may the God of all flesh perfect all that concerns you today. Amen. Bring all your burdens to his feet at EOW, 2026. – 5 WEEKS Countdown to the Evening of Worship 2026

Sept 19: Wk 7	Hannah's song	Hannah had prayed for many years for a child, and when God finally answered, her heart burst out with worship, some of you may even know this song (sing it with me!) 1 Sam 2: 2 "There is no one holy like the Lord, Indeed, there is no one besides You, Nor is there any rock like our God." What is your song of Thanksgiving, today? Has God done something for you? Did you wake up this morning with food on your table? Do not forget to give him thanks and worship! – 4 WEEKS Countdown to the Evening of Worship 2026
Sept 26: Wk 8 Email only	The breaking point	What is the right time to praise God? In the Acts of the apostle, we find that the disciples Paul and Silas were arrested, and worshipped God all night long. My charge for you today is questions to you today: Do we worship when all things are going well? Do we worship when nothing is going well? What is the right time to worship God? Psalm 34: 1-3 says it best:

		"I will bless the Lord at all times: his praise shall continually be in my mouth. My soul shall make her boast in the Lord: the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad. O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt his name together. My admonition for you today is that praise is not even/rarely is about us at all. It is all about who he is. Praise the Lord! Shalom. – 3 WEEKS Countdown to the Evening of Worship 2026
Oct 3: Wk 9 Whatsapp + Email	A call to worship	There is so much noise in our atmosphere: Car horns, TV always on, social media, multiple zoom meetings, you can possibly name a few more. In many Eastern religions, you will find one man assigned with the tasks to ring a bell, blow a horn, a make a loud cry, anything to call the town to worship! What are you doing to break through the noise? King David said in Psalms 63: 1-3 O God, thou art my God; early will I seek thee: my soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is; To see thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary. Because thy lovingkindness is better than life, my lips shall praise thee. Oh, what a glorious picture. Let us take a 5 mins break to worship God today, as a people who are seeking to know him and hear his voice. This is your reminder today. Stay blessed, brothers and sisters. – 2 WEEK Countdown to the Evening of Worship 2026

Oct 10: Wk 10/Whats app + Email	A worship challenge for you	We close our eyes in church. We lower our voices in church. We sit still in church. But David danced. Paul and Silas sang loudly in prison at midnight. The early church worshipped with everything they had — boldly, publicly, unapologetically. Somewhere between then and now... worship got quiet, contained and comfortable. This October, we're asking — what does uninhibited worship really look like? Come with an open heart. Eyes open or closed — as long as you worship. I leave you with this reminder: Make a joyful noise unto the LORD, all ye lands. Serve the LORD with gladness: come before his presence with singing. Know ye that the LORD he is. (Psalm 100: 1-3a) - 1 WEEK COUNTDOWN TO THE EVENING OF WORSHIP 2026
