

UNIVERSITY of ALASKA

Many Traditions One Alaska

Position Job Duties

530991_Assistant Professor of Art

100% Engage in teaching-related responsibilities, including:

Teaching foundational and advanced courses per departmental need following established course content.

Preparation of course materials (syllabi, schedules, projects, assignments, etc.).

Facilitation of critiques, assessment, and course evaluations.

Holding regular office hours.

Developing and delivering new and innovative curriculum.

Conduct ongoing scholarly or creative research relevant to area(s) of expertise.

Coordinate and maintain a program area within the department, including collaboration with adjunct or term faculty, curricular planning, and studio/lab oversight as applicable.

Serve on departmental and university committees, attend recruitment events, support program assessment and accreditation, and participate in faculty meetings, convocation, and commencement.

Participate in gallery programming and exhibition planning; opportunities available to serve on the Gallery Exhibition Planning Committee.

Support student engagement and community outreach, including student club advising and collaborative or interdisciplinary initiatives.