CONNECTING THROUGH SIGN
INFORMATION AND RESOURCES

Coursework resources we are currently using:

ASLU (American Sign Language University)
http://www.lifeprint.com/

ASL Home/Self-study course (lessons)
https://www.lifeprint.com/asl101/pages-layout/syllabus-selfstudy.htm

Dr Bill Vicars' YouTube channel *
https://www.youtube.com/billvicars

Lifeprint Library - Topics on ASL and Deaf Culture
https://www.lifeprint.com/asl101/pages-layout/topics.htm

 if you need help to figure out slowing the video speed, please let me know*

Additional useful links:

All ASL University lessons (includes curriculum topics and resources such as practices, PowerPoints and quizzes)
https://lifeprint.com/asl101/lessons/lessons.htm

Vocabulary practice:

PowerPoint files that Dr. Bill Vicars uses in his YouTube lesson videos- (great for flashcard practice, but will use a lot of ink to print black slides with white words)
https://lifeprint.com/asl101/curriculum/powerpoints/index.htm

Excel spreadsheets for practicing common sentences- useful to make flash cards for review

https://www.lifeprint.com/asl101/curriculum/curriculum-excel-sheets.htm