

Fair of the Spheres in Chignahuapan - Travel Guide

Discover the Magic of the Fair of Spheres in Chignahuapan

Every year, the charming town of Chignahuapan in the state of Puebla dresses up to celebrate the Spheres Fair. This event, known for its vibrant atmosphere and spectacular display of Christmas spheres, attracts thousands of visitors looking to immerse themselves in the festive spirit and enjoy local traditions. Join us in this tourist guide to discover what to do in Chignahuapan during your visit to the Spheres Fair.

spheres_Chignahuapan.png

What to do in Chignahuapan?

1. Visit the Spheres Fair

The Feria de las Esferas is the main event of the season in Chignahuapan. Here, local artisans display and sell their magnificent handmade Christmas spheres. Not only will you be able to buy unique spheres, but also learn about the manufacturing process in the workshops open to the public. Don't miss the cultural activities, concerts and parades that complement the fair!

2. Tour the Historic Center

The historic center of Chignahuapan is picturesque and full of charm. Start your tour at the Plaza de la Constitución, where you can admire the kiosk and the parish church of Santiago Apóstol, famous for its neoclassical facade and baroque interior. Take the opportunity to try the local antojitos at the food stalls that surround the square.

3. Admire the Basilica of the Immaculate Conception.

A must-see in Chignahuapan is the Basilica of the Immaculate Conception. This temple houses one of the largest statues of the Virgin Mary in the world, with a height of 14 meters. The basilica is a pilgrimage site and an impressive example of Mexican religious architecture.

chignahuapan_church.png

4. Explore the Chignahuapan Lagoon

Just minutes from downtown, the Chignahuapan Lagoon offers a perfect natural escape. You can take a boat ride, go fishing or just relax while enjoying the tranquility of the water and the surrounding landscape. This is an ideal place to connect with nature and enjoy a picnic.

5. Relax in the Chignahuapan Hot Springs

balneario_chignahuapan.jpg

Chignahuapan is known for its hot springs. Spas like 'Aguas Termales de Chignahuapan' offer thermal water pools with healing properties. This is the perfect place to relax and rejuvenate after a day of exploring.

6. Visit the Santuario del Honguito

The Santuario del Honguito is a peculiar place of worship that houses a small rock formation in the shape of a mushroom, considered miraculous by the locals. This site is ideal for those interested in the traditions and spirituality of the region.

Did you know.

- Chignahuapan produces approximately 70 million Christmas spheres a year, being one of the main producers in Mexico.

Translated with DeepL.com (free version)

- The name Chignahuapan comes from the Nahuatl language and means In the nine waters.
- The Basilica of the Immaculate Conception was built in 1972 and its statue of the Virgin is one of the largest in Latin America.

Interesting Facts

- The Fair of the Spheres is held every November and December, attracting national and international visitors.
- Chignahuapan is part of the Ruta de los Pueblos Magicos de Puebla, an initiative to promote tourism in towns with charm and tradition.

Chignahuapan offers a magical and unique experience during the Fair of the Spheres. From buying handcrafted spheres to exploring its tourist attractions, this picturesque town has something for everyone. Plan your visit and immerse yourself in the beauty and culture of Chignahuapan.