

Crisis in the Google Earth Lab!!!

Last night someone broke into the computer lab and erased your group's script for your google earth project!!!! It is your job to recreate the script so your group can meet their deadline. In your own words, create a narrative script for what your group has done.

Rubric:

Characteristic	4	3	2	1
Focus	Narrative is clear and maintained throughout. Establishes Clear Setting and Point of View	Adequate setting and point of view are established. May require more details.	Inconsistently establishes setting and point of view throughout narrative.	May be very brief. May lack focus. May drift from topic.
Organization	The narrative is complete: has a beginning, middle, and end. The narrative transitions in each paragraph.	Narrative has beginning, middle, and end nearly all sections transitioned.	Inconsistent transitions and sections are unclear or missing.	May include outside ideas, lack of transition, or missing sections.

Definition of Narrative Writing: Telling a Story

The primary purpose of narrative writing is to describe an experience, event, or sequence of events in the form of a story. Purpose is to tell.

Your Task!!!

Details of this Piece: What, When, Where, Why

Order: First, Then, Next, Finally

Create a story plan that describes your Google Earth Project and the rock cycle!

Your series of events has a beginning, middle, and end.

Develop the writers voice!

Length: No more than four paragraphs.

