

#1 USAGE and SPELLING

THEIR

Possession (Belonging to them)

Their car is the latest model.

THERE

Location (over there) or any meaning not covered by the first two.

There are many people who want that job.

THEY'RE

Contraction for "they are."

They're going to the movies later.

YOUR

Possessive (Belonging to you)

Your house is on fire!

YOU'RE

Contraction for "you are."

You're absolutely right!

TOO

(1) "Too much, too little" [an excess of]
or (2) Also.

(1) It was too cold for an outdoor concert.

(2) Andy wanted to go, too.

TO

Short for "toward" or any meaning not covered by the others. Ex: As they walked to school, she told the whole story to Oswin.

TWO

The number 2.

There are two free tables right now.

THEN

At that time.

He missed the bus and then had to run to school.

THAN

Comparative (more or less than)

She was faster than the others.

WHO

For people.

She was a person who was hard to please.

THAT

For non-human things.

There's a cat that is way too judgmental.

WHERE refers to a location

The time where these characters live is the Renaissance.

Would have, should have, could have:

Thru is not a real word; the proper word is through.

SPELLING: SEPARATE; DEFINITELY; RECEIVE; ENVIRONMENT; GOVERNMENT, ANYWAY – no S

WHEN refers to a time

INCORRECT: where should become when
NEVER use OF after these words!

A LOT is two words!

1. Theirs a definite but annoying part of being a lazy student at School One and its known as midterms.
2. Students think there getting away without doing work but than theyre parents see theyre midterm reports.
3. However less students then you would think recieve groundings and harsh looks when midterms arrive at home.
4. If their are less students in trouble its because they learned to do theyre work on time and get impressive reports.
5. If theirs people that Erin didnt tell about how much better her students are this year then last i dont know them.
6. Midterms are the time where we seperate those that can walk the walk from those that just play video games.
7. If youre midterms werent to good you still have almost six weeks to really improve youre work.
8. No matter how much youre whining annoys us youre still going too have to do all of youre work to actually earn credit.
9. Your definately lucky teens too have all of this support bestowed upon youre somewhat disorganized self.
10. When youre superb work habits seperates you from others that apply to the same jobs and colleges you will thank us.
11. Untill the time where your in college we will recieve youre bitter looks and moans of pain with secret ecstasy.
12. Your correct we are sadists and theirs nothing the government will do to stop us because Biden truely beleives in hard work.
13. Actually Trump beleives in hard work for others but only for himself if hard work is comprised of lying and playing golf.

14. Once youre midterms are glowing youre going to have alot of fun listening to all of youre parents praise.