Days, weeks, or often months...

That's how long it takes most entrepreneurs & marketers to set up a sales funnel.

To only later discover it's not converting...

The problem is online business owners like you NEED to consistently launch money-making products and offers in the market.

They need it to survive and thrive.

But with all the copy, content, lead magnets, structure, messaging, strategy and so on... it becomes really hard to generate a good sales funnel on the fly.

Well, fear not!

I am about to give you the process I've been using with my team to build online funnels in 1/4th of the time.

Once you know how it works, you will be able to speed up the process and write a brand new funnel in just one day - whether you're building a lead magnet, low-ticket offer, or high-ticket program.

You see, I've created a number of successful online offers, with the most recent ones generating multiple 6 figures and 7000 sales in just 5 weeks.

During this LIVE workshop:

I'll break down my entire process, prompts, and templates for how to create an entire online funnel with ChatGPT that grows your email list, sells digital products, and attracts new clients.

The best part is that you don't need any prior experience with sales funnels.

You don't even need experience with AI and ChatGPT – if you have, even better.

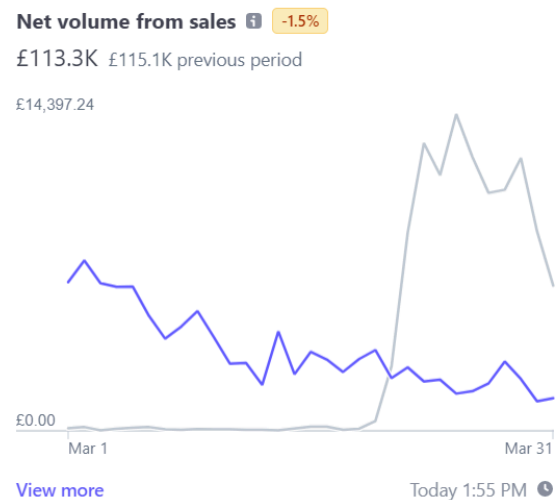

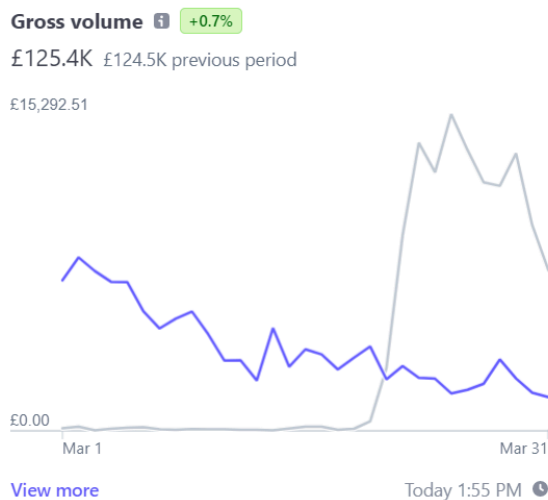

I will provide you with easy-to-follow frameworks and prompts – which you'll use LIVE during the workshop!

Even if you've never written a Facebook ad or sales page before, you can simply copy the frameworks and prompts I provide...
