

Originally Released: 5th Jan. 2021. Updated: 30th Mar. 2024.
Delinard Presents:

Turnabout Lawn

An alleged murder in what appears to be a simple neighbourhood.
Difficulty: 6/10 Average Length: 40 - 100 min.

Defendant
Ini Miney Bank Accountant
	On trial for murdering her boyfriend. Claims that the night before the day of the murder, she heard somebody inside the house while arguing with her boyfriend. Also claims some of the items in the Court Record were stolen. She practiced shooting a week ago. (Pleads Silence).
Victim	Detective
Doug Swallow Army Sergeant	Jake Marshall Homicide Detective

The Defendant's boyfriend. Legally owned guns in his home. Was shot in the head.	Experienced Homicide Detective in charge of this investigation. He also happens to be Defendant's ex boyfriend.
First Witness	Second Witness
Valant Gramarye Stage Magician	Richard Wellington First Rate Singer

Lives across the street. Witnessed the victim get shot. Defendant attempted to frame him. Complained about the couple before.	Lives next door and heard the crime being committed on the 2nd floor. Acts rich and well. Dislikes the couple next door.
These profiles are evidence submitted by the police.

Map

The positions of everyone is not 100% accurate. But Defendant admits to being in the backyard.
All windows in the living room and the kitchen are open. The fences are quite short.
(In the country this case takes place; 1st floor is the one on the ground where you can see inside.)

Court Record

	Autopsy Report	Time of Death: 10:25 AM Cause of Death: Gunshot wound to the head. Shot in the back of the head. Death was instantaneous.
	Victim Photo	The Victim was found slumped over the TV with his head facing down. It's suggested that he leaned over the TV to check it's behind before getting shot.
	Colt Single Action Army Revolver	Was found thrown near the Victim's body. Bears the Defendant's and Victim's fingerprints. Has traces of a small scope being attached at some point. Missing 3 bullets out of possible 6. Defendant claims that it was stolen. Slightly Dented.
	.22 LR Bullet	Found inside the victim's head. The killing blow. The Ballistic Markings match.

	Remote	Was found thrown near the Victim's body. Wide Signal. Was used to distract the Victim to check the TV. Bears the Defendant's and Victim's fingerprints. Defendant claims that it was stolen. Slightly Dented.
	Lawn Mower	The defendant admits to using the lawn mower. The handle bears Defendant's and Victim's fingerprints. This old model has an irritating sound. If not used, the engine is still on unless it's turned off.
	Neighbor's Report	7 days ago, the couple practiced shooting outside. 3 days ago, the couple had an argument. Loud argument during the night in the kitchen, before the day of the murder. The argument was quite long. These unrelated neighbours were at work during the murder.
	Suburban Report	Several distant residents who were at home during the murder heard dog barkings/lawnmower and then a single gunshot at 10:25 AM. Most residents can also confirm that some magical old guy gets really mad at the Lawn Mower.
	Victim's Dog	Was in the back yard with the Defendant. Gets triggered by annoying noises, very territorial. Barked during the argument between Defendant and Victim. Barked during the murder. Nothing ordinary about him.
	Lockpick	The main door appears to have a lockpick inside it. It was stuck and caused by sloppy lockpicking experience but it was still successful. No fingerprints. Seems Irrelevant. Enough dust suggests it was not used during the murder.

Defense DocProsecution DocWitness Doc

Achievements

Not Guilty: 4 Mistrial: 19 Guilty: 49

Fastest Guilty Record	34 minutes
Fastest Guilty Prosecutor	Omar, Bin, Judge Maya
Fastest Guilty Judge	Username
Fastest Not Guilty Record	135 minutes

First Not Guilty Defense	Serrt
First Not Guilty Judge	Heroine
Best Opening Statement	Distant
Not Guilty List	Serrt, under, Tayfun, Bloodlust/Solid Snake
Guilty List	Infinite
Feel free to message me any feedback you have or any cases you did with this turnabout. Want to check the doc on mobile? Send this to the mobile user.	