My Reflective Process (answer prompts 1-5 below in English to help you process your French learning this week):

1. Why did I select this particular artifact? What is the significance for me?

I selected this artifact because it has to do with my future career. Learning french will open so many opportunities and i could even take my career to a french speaking country.

2. What did I learn from this artifact?

I learned that an elementary school teacher in France can make up to almost 53,000 euros (about $60,000). I also learned an interesting point that in France, your gender can affect your pay. Similar to the US, as you progress, you make more and more each year.

3. How does the artifact reflect my strengths and interests? What have I done well? Name 1-3 items related to this artifact that you are proud of this week.

It does reflect my interests because I could take my teaching career to France in the future.

4. What was my biggest challenge when completing this artifact? Would I have done anything differently?

Nothing was challenging and i wouldnt change what i did.

5. What can I improve on moving forward in my French learning process?

Implement it more into my everyday life.
