ABSTRACT

Uniska Law Review is a scientific journal that aims to publish and disseminate legal ideas and discoveries. Therefore, this template was created to make it easier for authors to compile articles according to the characteristics of the Journal. Abstract consists of two types (English and Indonesian), contains a brief presentation of ideas on legal issues, research objectives, research methods and research results. Abstract is written in italics with Times New Roman font, font size 11, 1 space and not more than 250 words.

Keywords: minimum of 2 and maximum of 5 keywords alphabetically and separated comma (,).

1. Introduction

Uniska Law Review uses a general organizational structure (document format) IMRAD (Introduction, Method, Result, and Discussion) in writing journal manuscripts. The introduction consists of several components, namely a description of legal issues, problem formulation, research objectives and ends with previous research for comparison of research conducted with previous research (originality). (made in narrative form).

2. Research Method

In this research method, the researcher describes the types of research used (legal research or socio legal research), approach methods (laws, cases, comparisons, conceptual, historical, etc.) data sources (primary data, secondary data), data collection techniques, research locations and also provides data analysis techniques. (made in narrative form).

3. Discussion and Research Results

The discussion contains a brief theoretical study and research results. Subtitles are made in the form of numbering.

4. Conclusion

The closing contains conclusions from the results of research that has been carried out.
