

A Bill Requiring a Written Summary of the Status of the Nation
- MARSHALL STALIN and THE PARTY OF WORKERS AND PEASANTS

WHEREAS: The People and Senate of England deserve to know what is happening.

WHEREAS: The People do not always have time to participate or watch each session in full.

IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED AND SHALL BECOME LAW THAT:

1. At the end of each gameplay session a designated representative of the Government shall compose a summary of the game and post this to SENATE DISCUSSION.
2. This post shall be pinned.
3. The post shall include, but not be limited to:
 - A list of which in-game technologies are in effect
 - A report on the strength and disposition of our military
 - A report of credible threats
 - An economic report
 - All other information deemed noteworthy
4. The list and reports outlined above may be omitted or restricted if there are no changes from the prior report.
5. This report shall be posted within 72 hours of the conclusion of the previous gameplay session.
6. In the absence of another representative being designated, this duty shall fall to the Speaker.
