

Writing Fiction Reviews

Prewriting for Conflict and Theme Details

Student: _____ Date: _____

Identify the theme.

A theme is a big life lesson that relates to everyone. The theme usually isn't stated outright in a book. You have to infer it from the characters' actions and words. Ask questions like these.

- What important thing does the main character learn?
- How does that lesson apply to everyone, including me (theme)?