

Make the subjects and verbs agree.

Underline the correct verb.

1. The photos in this exhibit (is, are) fascinating.
2. Neither the artist nor the drawing (is, are) well known.
3. All wallets (is, are) made of leather.
4. Each of the games (requires, require) concentration.
5. There (is, are) several problems.
6. The price for dinner and the show (is, are) ten dollars.
7. Either Julie or her friends (write, writes) the songs.
8. Where (is, are) the camera and the film?
9. Several of the racers (build, builds) their own cars.
10. (Don't, Doesn't) she have an extra ticket?
11. Neither of the houses (is, are) old.
12. Everyone at the game (know, knows) the risk.
13. A hamburger without ketchup (tastes, taste) bland.
14. Most of the fire (has, have) been put out.
15. It (don't, doesn't) make any difference.
16. Debra, along with her friends, (enjoy, enjoys) baseball.
17. Somebody (want, wants) to speak to you.
18. Not one of these lids (fit, fits) the container.
19. My grandmother, as well as my cousins, (live, lives) nearby.
20. Neither the dog nor the cats (was, were) fed today.
21. Everything (costs, cost) too much these days.
22. The marching band (rehearse, rehearses) daily.
23. Each product (claim, claims) to be the best.
24. Complaints about the product (needs, need) investigation.
25. The pants and jacket (match, matches).
26. The two programs (is, are) on at the same time.

27. The suit, including the vest, (cost, costs) 100 dollars.