

Breakout Session Number: 18

Breakout Session Day: Thursday

Breakout Session Number: II

Breakout Room: Salon D

Department/Discipline: Employee Onboarding and Development Department

Session Title:	The Belonging Blueprint: Increasing New Teacher Retention and Engagement
Session Description:	Discover strategies to boost new teacher retention and engagement with The Belonging Blueprint . Explore the critical concept of belonging as you navigate five interconnected pillars of workplace connections. Uncover research-based insights, practical strategies, and transformative approaches to creating a supportive educational environment where every educator feels truly valued at the district and school levels.
Facilitator Bio:
Bio: Jessica Bouchte has 22 years of experience with the Clark County School District (CCSD). She currently serves as a coordinator in the Employee Onboarding and Development Department where she has the privilege of providing high-quality, differentiated support to all beginning and experienced new teachers with an emphasis on increasing teacher credibility, classroom management skills, and a sense of belonging. Before this role, she worked as an elementary literacy project facilitator, literacy specialist, and classroom teacher within CCSD.
Picture: Photo Link
Bio: Jennifer Fisk is currently a coordinator for Employee Onboarding and Development for the Clark County School District (CCSD). In this capacity, she plays a pivotal role in..." fostering a sense of belonging among new teachers within the CCSD community by overseeing new teacher mentoring and professional growth initiatives." Prior to her current position, Jennifer served as an Education Programs Professional with the Nevada Department of Education, and a Career and Technical Education Teacher for CCSD.

Picture:

Photo Link

Bio:

Picture: