

CORUNNA HIGH SCHOOL ANNOUNCEMENTS

February 12, 2020

8th grade Shiawassee Scholars: Please meet in Mrs. Zeeman's classroom (226) upstairs on Friday during Advocacy.

Are you a senior interested in the Navy? The Navy Career Center is offering to meet with you to interpret your ASVAB scores. Please see Mrs. Svrcek if you are interested.

Attention all FFA Members: State convention delegate applications are due today to Mr. Kiesling or Miss Forbush. In addition, all banquet applications are due Friday as well to Mr. Kiesling or Miss Forbush. Lastly, senior FFA members: There are a handful of scholarships available on our FFA Schoology page. Please check these out, as some of them have fast approaching deadlines!

Attention Students: Today through Friday we will be selling "Relay for Life" (American Cancer Society) donation tags and Luminary Bags during all lunches. The tags are $1.00 and the Luminary Bags are $10.00. At this Friday night's basketball games we will be dimming the lights and displaying the Luminary Bags in honor of those who have lost their lives or currently are fighting cancer. The donation tags will be displayed inside of the gym during the game. Please consider donating.

ATTENTION ALL SENIORS: Are you planning on pursuing an agriculture-related field in college and looking for scholarships? If so, there are hundreds of dollars of scholarships available for you to apply for through the CORUNNA EDUCATION FOUNDATION. The application is due February 21st for the students applying for agriculture-related scholarships and March 13th for all of the other scholarships. Please stop in the guidance office for an application today for your chance at some FREE MONEY FOR COLLEGE!

Boy's track members who ordered jerseys please pay $15 in the office, then take your receipt to Coach Sawyer in the team locker room before or after school to get your jersey.

Shiawassee Scholars—Freshman, Sophomores and Juniors—You have less than 3 weeks to get your summer scholarship application into the SRES D for consideration for a summer camp experience. Don't wait until the deadline, get it done this week! Ask other Shiawassee Scholars who have taken advantage of this great offer. They will tell you how great it is! Need help? Call Renee at SRES D.

Are you interested in showing off your basketball skills? Sign up for March Madness 2020! It's a 3 on 3 basketball tournament, and you can join with your friends. It is $15 per person, but included is a shirt for participating! Teams of three or four will do. Check out the fliers in the hallways to get more information, or contact any Class of 2022 student council member. Go to the office to find a sign up sheet. All sign up sheets are due Tuesday, February 18th.

Boys Varsity Bowling bowled against Owosso and fought back, but in the end they couldn't pull off the win. Points were contributed by Jeremiah Davis and Brady Cornell. High games went to: Lucas Cunningham 191 and 201; Brady Cornell 205; Jeremiah Davis 197; and Michael Daniels 203.

This is a reminder to the 8th grade boys basketball team: Please get a snack after school, wait until 2:25, then walk over to the middle school and enter through the side locker room doors. You need to be dressed in your game uniforms by 3:00 for a Shoot-Around before tonight's game. Let's make it another great night!

The varsity boys basketball team lost a hard fought battle last night against Swartz Creek by a final score of 56-47. Carson Socia led the way with a game high 27 points. He also had 5 steals to go along with it. Cole Mieske dropped in 13 and Caleb Stahr added 8 rebounds. Please come out Friday night to support the team as they take on the Clio Mustangs here at home at 7:30.

The Varsity Swim team was creating waves last night at OE. The team overcame a slow start to win 164-121. Xavier Staubs, Grant Kerry and Jeremiah Davis broke things wide open going 1,2,3 and Kai Heck added a 5th place finish. Fisher Morris and Michael Costello finished 1, 2 and Josh Edwards swimming in his first meet of the season helped the team by placing 5th. Grant Kerry, Xavier Staubs and Jeremiah Davis struck again going 1,2,3 this time getting help by Hailie Hall who added a 7th place finish. Jackson Reid and Fisher Morris went 1,2 and Kai Heck placed 4th and Hailie Hall added another 7th place. The win improves the team to 5-2 and 1 with two meets remaining both are at home. Tomorrow and Tuesday against cross town rivals.

At this time, Shiawasseee Scholars in grades 9th-12th: Please report to Mrs. Zeeman's classroom upstairs (room 226).
