SLU Course Description

This course's primary focus will be to concentrate on Latin as it exists in the Classical, Vulgar and Medieval written prose corpus of narrative, history, epistolary and fiction. It will review Latin grammar at the intermediate level, expand knowledge of Latin vocabulary and examine advanced Latin syntax to achieve reading comprehension of texts written in original prose Latin.
Pre-Requisites: LATN 1020

Additional Description

<<OPTIONAL. Insert HS course description info/additional descriptive info>>

Course Learning Outcomes:

SLU Course Learning Outcomes:

These learning objectives are in addition to the Course Learning Objectives of LATN 1010 and LATN 1020.

1. At the end of LATN 2010 students will be able to discuss Latin language in classical literature; evaluate varying conditionals; explain advanced syntax of the case system; distinguish types of independent subjunctive verbs.
2. At the end of LATN 2010 students will be able to analyze, translate and interpret complex sentences found in unadapted original Latin tests.
3. At the end of LATN 2010 students will be able to use Latin to investigate, explain and reflect on the nature of language through comparisons of the language studied and their own in order to interact with cultural competence.

Statement prohibiting the use of generative AI

Generative AI, including but not limited to [ChatGPT, Gemini, Microsoft Copilot, Midjourney, DALL-E or Github Copilot] may not be used for work in this class. The use of such generative AI tools may compromise your learning by undermining your ability to [ideate, fully understand how to structure an argument or narrative or formulate/create nonderivative creative work.]

You may not use generative AI to [brainstorm, compose theses or arguments based on theses provided by generative AI.] You may not use generative AI to in any way [augment your original work.] For example, asking an AI [to polish a piece of work you have written, debug code you have written or change art you have created] is not allowed. You may not use generative AI to compose work as a whole or in part for any assignment in this course.

Please review item three in the section labeled Plagiarism in the Saint Louis University Academic Integrity Policy.

Academic Integrity Syllabus Statement

Academic integrity is honest, truthful, and responsible conduct in all academic endeavors. The mission of Saint Louis University is "the pursuit of truth for the greater glory of God and for the service of humanity." Accordingly, all acts of falsehood demean and compromise the corporate endeavors of teaching, research, health care, and community service through which SLU fulfills its mission. The University strives to prepare students for lives of personal and professional integrity, and therefore regards all breaches of academic integrity as matters of serious concern. The full University-level Academic Integrity Policy can be found on the Provost's Office website at: <https://www.slu.edu/provost/policies/academic-and-course/academic-integrity-policy.pdf>. Additionally, each SLU College, School, and Center has its own academic integrity policies, available on their respective websites.

Students participating in the 1818 Advanced College Credit Program are held to and should be familiar with the 1818 Program Academic Integrity Policy, which is an extension of SLU's academic policies. Students may consult the Handbook here: 1818-student-handbook.pdf \(slu.edu\)

<<REQUIRED: SLU Disability Accommodations

Students with a documented disability who wish to request academic accommodations must formally register their disability with the University. Once successfully registered, students also must notify their course instructor that they wish to use their approved accommodations in the course.

Please contact the Center for Accessibility and Disability Resources (CADR) to schedule an appointment to discuss accommodation requests and eligibility requirements. Most students on the St. Louis campus will contact CADR, located in the Student Success Center and available by email at accessibility_disability@slu.edu or by phone at 314.977.3484. Once approved, information about a student's eligibility for academic accommodations will be shared with course instructors by email from CADR and within the instructor's official course roster. Students who do not have a documented disability but who think they may have one are also encouraged to contact CADR. Confidentiality will be observed in all inquiries.

<<REQUIRED: Title IX Statement

Saint Louis University and its faculty are committed to supporting our students and seeking an environment that is free of bias, discrimination, and harassment. If you have encountered any form of sexual harassment, including sexual assault, stalking, domestic or dating violence, we encourage you to report this to the University. If you speak with a faculty member about an incident that involves a Title IX matter, that faculty member must notify SLU's Title IX Coordinator that you shared an experience relating to Title IX. This is true even if you ask the faculty member not to disclose the incident. The Title IX Coordinator will then be available to assist you in understanding all of your options and in connecting you with all possible resources on and off campus.

Anna Kratky is the Title IX Coordinator at Saint Louis University (DuBourg Hall, room 36; anna.kratky@slu.edu; 314-977-3886). If you wish to speak with a confidential source, you may contact the counselors at the University Counseling Center at 314-977-TALK or make an anonymous report through SLU's Integrity Hotline by calling 1-877-525-5669 or online at <http://www.lighthouse-services.com/slu>.
