Eyes are captured from soaking and reflecting lights over there. Instinctually, body follows the trace of eyes with all senses. Attractive, firing, in-between alluring colors of the light surrounded me and penetrated into my scentless dry skin.

The closer I get to the source, the more I feel hollow, hidden and gone. I stopped at the point where I couldn't catch anything and enlightened that the thing is empty.

As soon as the my vessel became full of floating gas, I turned back. Then the light rimmed me from the back. Now, I see lines folded and unfolded, wrinkles layered and inscribed I haven't seen.

I was blind.
