

Kite Runner Bookmark Questions #3

1. Why does Amir want to win so bad? What is he trying to get out of it?
2. P. 68 – 70 is Amir's run through Kabul. What do you learn on this run? What are the streets of the city like? Who does he encounter, and what are they like?
3. Why doesn't Hassan give up the kite? What does this show?
4. What did Assef take from Hassan? Why is this somehow worse than killing him? How is he like the lamb that Amir describes?
5. How does Amir justify his decision not to help Hassan?
6. How does Amir treat Ali now? Why do you think he does?
7. What does Hassan now symbolize for Amir? Why does he want him to go away?
8. What things in our lives do we want to go away? What do we not want to look at? What do we avoid?
9. Assef's birthday present... really? What is it? What does it show? (Oh my gosh! That kid is mean!)

Kite Runner Bookmark Questions #3

10. Why does Amir want to win so bad? What is he trying to get out of it?
11. P. 68 – 70 is Amir's run through Kabul. What do you learn on this run? What are the streets of the city like? Who does he encounter, and what are they like?
12. Why doesn't Hassan give up the kite? What does this show?
13. What did Assef take from Hassan? Why is this somehow worse than killing him? How is he like the lamb that Amir describes?
14. How does Amir justify his decision not to help Hassan?
15. How does Amir treat Ali now? Why do you think he does?
16. What does Hassan now symbolize for Amir? Why does he want him to go away?
17. What things in our lives do we want to go away? What do we not want to look at? What do we avoid?
18. Assef's birthday present... really? What is it? What does it show? (Oh my gosh! That kid is mean!)