

What are SERPs?

Search Engine Result Pages (SERP) are the pages displayed by search engines like Google or Bing after you type in a query. They're like digital maps guiding you to the most relevant websites based on your search.