

Snow Day Mission: "The International Reporter"

Since the roads are closed, you have a special mission! Today, you are a famous TV reporter from a Spanish-speaking country. Your job is to interview a family member or a friend at home.

Phase 1: Prepare Your Script

Copy these phrases onto a piece of paper so you don't forget your lines.

- Greeting: ¡Hola! / Buenos días. (Hello / Good morning)
 - Introduction: Me llamo... [Your Name]. (My name is...)
 - Origin: Soy de... [Your City/Country]. (I am from...)
 - Emotion: Estoy... [feliz / triste / cansado]. (I am... happy / sad / tired)
 - The Question: ¿Y tú? (And you?)

Phase 2: The Interview

Find a "microphone" (a spoon, a remote control, or even a carrot!) and follow these steps:

1. Be the Teacher: Your family member might not know Spanish! Teach them how to say "Hola" and "Estoy feliz" (I am happy) before you start.
2. Start the Show: Look at your "camera" (or a mirror) and introduce yourself using your script.
3. Interview your Guest: Ask them "¿Y tú?" and help them answer in Spanish.

Example:

- You: "¡Hola! Me llamo Alex. Soy de Colorado. Estoy feliz. ¿Y tú?"
 - Guest: "¡Hola! Me llamo Mom. Estoy feliz."

Phase 3: The Snow Emoji Challenge

Since you are stuck inside because of the snow, use it to practice your emotions!

- Happy Snow: Draw a feliz face in the frost on a window or on a tray with a little snow.
 - Your Choice: Draw another face for how you feel right now. Are you cansado (tired) or maybe triste (sad) because you miss your friends?

Check-off List

- ☐ I introduced myself in Spanish.

- ☐ I said where I am from.
- ☐ I shared how I feel.
- ☐ I taught one Spanish word to someone else.

Stay warm and have fun with your Spanish!
