

MISS, MR, & MX Oklahoma Charity Contests

OFFICIAL RULES & TITLEHOLDER AGREEMENT

Miss Oklahoma Charity was conceived in 2007 by Miss Oklahoma Charity Emeritus, Rozlyn DuBois, as a way to celebrate entertainers who wanted to use their platform to give back, raise funds, and bring awareness to charities and organizations throughout Oklahoma City.

For more than a decade, Miss carried that legacy on her own. Then, in 2018, Mr. Oklahoma Charity was added, marking the first expansion of the Oklahoma Charity title system and giving the legacy a new way to grow and serve.

Now, in 2026, that legacy takes another step forward. Mx Oklahoma Charity joins Miss and Mr., continuing the evolution of Oklahoma Charity and creating a place for another titleholder to use their platform in service to their community and the causes they champion.

TITLE DIVISIONS & ELIGIBILITY

Oklahoma Charity now consists of three title divisions: Miss Oklahoma Charity, Mr. Oklahoma Charity, and Mx Oklahoma Charity. Each division provides an opportunity for entertainers to compete, serve their communities, and represent the Oklahoma Charity legacy. All contestants must be 21 years of age or older at the time of the pageant.

Miss Oklahoma Charity - The Miss Division is open to drag queens, femme entertainers, trans women, and any female-presenting contestants who wish to compete for the title of Miss Oklahoma Charity.

Mr. Oklahoma Charity - The Mr. Division is open to bio-male entertainers, male impersonators (MI entertainers), trans men, and any male-presenting contestants who wish to compete for the title of Mr. Oklahoma Charity.

Mx Oklahoma Charity - The Mx Division is open to non-binary and gender-nonconforming entertainers, including performers whose gender identity or presentation does not fall within the traditional Mr. or Miss divisions, who wish to compete for the title of Mx Oklahoma Charity.

CONTEST CATEGORIES

Contestants in all three Oklahoma Charity Division will be judged in the following categories:

1. Interview
2. Presentation (Not Judged)
3. Talent
4. Creative Evening Wear
5. On-Stage Question

Contestants will be scored using a modified USofA scoring system. Any ties will be broken according to those guidelines.

Contestants are allowed one (1) dresser to assist them backstage. Additional individuals participating in the talent portion will be accommodated as space allows on the night of the pageant.

For Oklahoma Charity Contests, an additional category will award points in five (5) point increments based on the amount contestants receive in tips during both the Talent and Creative Evening Wear categories.

CATEGORY GUIDELINES

Interview

Please dress as you would for a professional interview. Contestants should be prepared to discuss their proposed charitable initiatives, past involvement in community efforts, and their passion for causes impacting the Oklahoma LGBTQIA+ community.

Presentation (Not Judged)

This category serves as an introduction of each contestant to the audience.

Talent

Talent will follow standard USofA guidelines.

- Maximum time limit: 7 minutes
- No fire or liquids permitted

Creative Evening Wear

Contestants should present a polished, creative evening wear look that reflects their personal style and vision.

Each contestant will have a brief moment to model their look before proceeding into the On-Stage Question portion.

Contestants must remain in evening wear following their question for comparative judging.

On-Stage Question

This portion will take place immediately following Creative Evening Wear.

Contestants will be asked both a serious and a lighthearted question. Judges will evaluate sincerity, clarity, and stage presence, as well as the ability to engage with the audience.

There are no wrong answers, just speak from the heart, and have fun with the funny one!

TITLEHOLDER CONTRACT & EXPECTATIONS

All Miss, Mr., and Mx Oklahoma Charity titleholders shall serve as representatives of the Oklahoma Charity pageant legacy and the statewide LGBTQIA+ community for one year, or until the next Oklahoma Charity Contests.

Titleholders are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that reflects respect, dignity and care for the community they represent.

TITLEHOLDER RESPONSIBILITIES

Titleholders are expected to:

- Select a charitable cause and organize a minimum of two (2) events and/or service initiatives during their reign to raise funds and/or awareness within Oklahoma. All funds raised will be donated in the titleholder's name to the organization of their choosing.

- Represent their title at pageants and community events at their discretion, including participation in royalty walks as a state titleholder to further the visibility and impact of Oklahoma Charity.
- Appear at the subsequent Oklahoma Charity Contests to crown their successor.

OKLAHOMA CHARITY PROVIDES

Oklahoma Charity provides each titleholder with:

- Official Oklahoma Charity Crowns + Medallion
- A three (3) image photoshoot from The Circle Photography, including:
 - One official solo promotional image with crown
 - One official reigning group promotional image with crowns + medallion
 - One image of the titleholder's choice.
- Assistance organizing and promoting fundraising events or service initiatives
- Inclusion in Pride parade participation, as funding allows

CODE OF CONDUCT

Titleholders are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that positively represents the Oklahoma Charity title, its legacy, and the LGBTQIA+ community.

Actions that may bring harm to the title or its associated organizations may be subject to review.

REVOCATION OF TITLE

If a titleholder is unable or unwilling to fulfill the responsibilities outlined above, the title may be relinquished or revoked. The 1st alternate may be contacted to assume the title if necessary.

A titleholder will not be stripped of their title without prior notice. The titleholder will be given the opportunity to respond to any concerns and attempt to resolve the issue.

Final decisions will be made by the Oklahoma Charity formers with OKCSPI and are not subject to appeal.

AGREEMENT

This contract is an agreement between the titleholder and the Oklahoma Charity formers with OKCSPI.

By signing below, the titleholder acknowledges that they have read, understand, and agree to the rules, responsibilities, expectations, and terms outlined in this document and agree to fulfill the responsibilities of their Oklahoma Charity title during their reign.

This agreement may be terminated by either party.
