Please note: I know people wanna see me play mario maker 2 so I'll give them what they want but just letting you know it won't be all the time. if your just there for Mario maker and nothing else than I would rather if you unfollow

Please note 2: the reason why i dont play mario maker 2 that much is because i know those people that are only there for mario maker are not there for me and only there for there level to be played so i may ignore you or not acknowledge that your there.

Its not because its you, its just me
