

Interstellar Overdrive

By Urf, Wind & Fire

(Welcome aboard)

An educated man gets effects from books

All these things are saved in his brain

And are saved in his unconscious

(Our destination is the stars)

The history of a nation has its strong hold on personalities

(Fractal universe)

A person is related not only to the members of his family

But the whole universe

Urfspace

Poetry has worked wonders

It has changed the scenes of wars

It has enlightened the dead bodies

With their power of rhetoration

(Scaling dimension, infinite divisibility)

And the real forms of society are found in society

(biocentric universe)

The rulers have their influences

In practical forms, their witness can be seen

Get on board

Equality is about all events

Incidents taking place all around have deep effect

These affect other people unconsciously

And its bad effects are faced by the whole human race

It's gonna be a ride

[Om]

[Reincarnation]

No good work should remain restricted only to a region or particular people
But its benefits should be availed by the whole of humanity
There is one brotherhood in the entire world

Blurb:

Urf, Wind and Fire isn't a band I'm afraid. It's a bloke. Ol West offered to write an opening track for the Urspace album when chatting to his old friend Chuck Whelon about the books. They were neighbours in their teens and early 20's, up a hill on the edge of a sleepy village in England. They became friends down the pub after trying to sell double-glazing to the kind of people who will become tourists on the Urspace Express.

Now imagine taking your place on that package holiday to the stars. Settle into your seat in the space vessel destined for Urf while calming music plays and the captain's voice speaks words of wisdom instead of safety instructions. Interstellar Urfdrive is a creepy reminder of our place in the universe, a preparation for what may come, and the opportunity it presents. Through absorbing culture, we can reflect and reset. Maybe Chuck's Urspace series will do this for you, maybe it won't. Whatever happens, enjoy the ride.
