

Day Trips - Reading/Sioux Falls

NOTICE: REGARDING CANCELLATIONS/WEATHER RELATED SITUATIONS**

This is a difficult issue for both the Reading Bus Line & those who are scheduled to take the day trip or extended tour. We regret to say that full refunds cannot be guaranteed in the event of icy/snowy road conditions. Our weather policy is the tour is to go unless the event is canceled. Reading staff decides whether the conditions are not safe for travel and/or if the State Patrol closes the roads. Every effort will be made to recover whatever costs we can & refund those involved. Often times, event tickets are non-refundable because they have to be paid in advance. Those tickets then become your property once you reserve space for a particular trip. If a tour is canceled by Reading for reasons other than those weather related, full refunds of monies paid will be reimbursed. * We take any major credit card as payment for your tours. * A minimum of 30 people is required to take each tour. * Shuttle service is provided from your area with 12 or more passengers & pickup available if location is en route to our destination for the tour. * Cancellations involving "non-refundable tickets" may result in a full or partial loss of your payment (theater & other performances). * Occasionally tours are subject to slight changes due to unforeseen situations that are out of our control. We do what is best under the circumstances & assure you that the tour will still be rated #1.
