

Look at the bold word in each sentence. Write in the word form. You can use the following code:

Noun=N

Verb=V

Adjective=Adj

ancient: Sequoias are the ancient giants of the forest. _____

catastrophe: A major natural catastrophe led to the end of the dinosaurs. _____

develop: Some dinosaurs weren't able to develop skills they needed to survive. _____

diameter: T. rex's eyes were more than nine centimeters in diameter. _____

enormous: Most dinosaurs were enormous compared to animals that live today. _____

exception: There were smaller dinosaurs that were exceptions to the rule. _____

extinction: Like dinosaurs, many animals of today face extinction. _____

frightening: With its enormous teeth, T. rex was a frightening predator. _____

heart: Scientists compared T. rex's heart with that of modern birds. _____

huge: Argentinosaurus was so huge that the Earth shook when it walked. _____

jaw: T. rex had powerful jaws and sharp teeth. _____

prehistoric: Dinosaurs lived in prehistoric times. _____

stomach: Crushed bones have been found in T. rex's stomach. _____

weigh: Argentinosaurus weighed as much as ten elephants. _____

carnivore: A carnivore is an animal that eats mostly meat. _____

gigantic: Spinosaurus was a gigantic, meat-eating dinosaur. _____

herbivore: An herbivore is an animal that eats only plants. _____

massive: Most dinosaurs were massive creatures. _____

Answers:

ancient: Sequoias are the ancient giants of the forest. adjective catastrophe: A major natural catastrophe led to the end of the dinosaurs. noun develop: Some dinosaurs weren't able to develop skills they needed to survive. verb diameter: T. rex's eyes were more than nine centimeters in diameter. noun enormous: Most dinosaurs were enormous compared to animals that live today. adjective exception: There were smaller dinosaurs that were exceptions to the rule. noun extinction: Like dinosaurs, many animals of today face extinction. noun frightening: With its enormous teeth, T. rex was a frightening predator. adjective heart: Scientists compared T. rex's heart with that of modern birds. noun huge: Argentinosaurus was so huge that the Earth shook when it walked. adjective jaw: T. rex had powerful jaws and sharp teeth. noun prehistoric: Dinosaurs lived in prehistoric times. adjective stomach: Crushed bones have been found in T. rex's stomach. noun weigh: Argentinosaurus weighed as much as ten elephants. verb carnivore: A carnivore is an animal that eats mostly meat. noun gigantic: Spinosaurus was a gigantic, meat-eating dinosaur. adjective herbivore: An herbivore is an animal that eats only plants. noun massive: Most dinosaurs were massive creatures. adjective