A. Multiple Choice

Choose the correct answer by crossing a, b, c or d.

The following dialogue is for questions 1 to 3

Rina	: Hi, Dika. What do you think about the new school rule about wearing complete uniforms every day?
Dika	: Honestly, I think it's good. It helps students look neat and disciplined.
Rina	: Hmm, I see your point, but I think it's a bit too strict. Sometimes we have special activities that don't require a formal uniform.
Dika	: That's true. Maybe the school could make exceptions on activity days.
Rina	: Yes, I agree. I think flexibility is important too.
Dika	: Right. So maybe we can suggest that students wear proper sports uniforms when there are school events.
Rina	: Good idea! I think the school will listen if many students share the same opinion.
Dika	: Let's bring it up at the next student council meeting, then.

1. Which of the following sentences shows the expression of giving an opinion?
 - a. "What do you think about the new school rule about wearing complete uniforms every day?"
 - b. "I think it's good. It helps students look neat and disciplined."
 - c. "Let's bring it up at the next student council meeting."

- d. "Sometimes we have special activities that don't require a formal uniform."
2. The word strict in the sentence "I think it's a bit too strict." is closest in meaning to
- fair
 - flexible
 - severe
 - simple
3. What can be inferred from Rina's statement, "I think it's a bit too strict. Sometimes we have special activities that don't require a formal uniform."?
- Rina disagrees with all of the school's uniform rules.
 - Rina wants the rule to be removed completely.
 - Rina suggests that the school should be more flexible with the rule.
 - Rina thinks students should wear casual clothes every day.

The following dialogue is for questions 4 and 5

Lina	:	Hi, Budi. Have you ever been to the new city park?
Budi	:	Yes, I went there last weekend. It's really clean and green.
Lina	:	Really? I haven't gone there yet. What do you think about the park?
Budi	:	I think it's great! There are many trees, a jogging track, and a small
Lina	:	playground.
Budi	:	Sounds nice! Do you think it's a good place for studying in the afternoon?
		Maybe not. It's quite crowded in the evening. But in the morning, it's peaceful
Lina	:	and quiet.
Budi	:	I see. I'll try to visit it this Sunday, then.
		Good idea! You'll love it there.

4. The expression of asking opinion from the dialogue is
- I think it's great! There are many trees.
 - Have you ever been to the new city park?
 - What do you think about the park?
 - You'll love it there.
5. From the dialogue, we can conclude that Lina and Budi are most likely
- teacher and student
 - classmates or school friends
 - park officers
 - siblings
