

Me Mapping Videos- Transcript

6-8 Years Old (Primary)

| Topic                    | Transcript                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|--------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Your Special Moments     | [0:09- 1:19] Student: Hello guys, the special like the best day of my life was like when my dad told me we're gonna go to swimming. He just told us and I was like, " yay, hip hip hooray, yay!" I was dancing all around until tomorrow, um the day after. He said, "We can't sorry, the person we were supposed to go with his son is sick." And then So it was, it became in the worst day of my life bless you Baba, Dad. And that the tings that make me feel happy are hot dogs, pizzas, ice creams. My friends, my mom, my family. And my special time was like spending time with my friends. Like because, my Banglasdeshi friends because I'm in Canada, I mss them a lot. The most important thing that happened to me is like when I joined my school and I picked a bouncy ball and it became mine forever. |
| Your Linguistic Portrait | [1:20 - 2:48 ] Student: Hello guys, this is like my language picture. I wrote English in my hands because I write English a lot in School. I put English in my brain because I also talk English a lot in my school. I put Bangle because I speak Bangla with one of my friends- he's Bangladeshi- in my school. I love Bangla it's.. And that's why it's in my heart. Hindi, I could speak that's why. Bangla I could also speak, English I could also speak. I like... I love Bangladeshi food, that's why And I put Korean out of my body because like I don't... I only know one Korean word.                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |

|                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|--------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                          | When I... and when I s... I... when I like say like English I feel like white because I feel normal. When I speak Bangla, I feel like red because I love it and when I do Hindi I feel like blue. I also like it a lot.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| Reflections on Language. | [2:48 - 4:22 ] Student: Hello guys, so this is The Alien Next Door chapter five. Like no, like Book Five, like Volume Five. And this is the Alien next door Volume Four. These are The Alien next door books. And so, I got them from the Toronto/ York Library. And this book, the main character is actually this guy, I mean this kid. This kid. And this kid like has alien powers, He's an alie his true form is this. So like, different volumes are different kinds of books This is about trick-or-treat. This is about baseball and this is the third one: Alien Scouts. Like this. And this book, um he, this alien and his best friend goes to scout camp And this is The Alien Next Door 'New dinner' Like the alien dinner. In this book, his best friend and he have like a dinner time. And this is 'The New Kid'. It is about when he came. Bye! |
| My Languages             | [4:23- 6:05] Student: Um, I a... I speak like a lot um different languages. I'm learning like.. I know one word of like one korean word. I know how to say hi in korea only. And I know how to say.. I know how.. I understand Hindi and I can speak Hindi. I can.. I understand Bangla, and I can speak Bangla. I understand English, I can speak English. And, I understand a bit Urdu too because Hindi and Urdu are the same, a little bit. Um and yeah, those are the languages I understand and speak. I speak Bangla with my mom and dad and my family, my brother. And I speak the.. I only say that Korean word to my friend. I speak Hindi to my friend too. And, I also have like... I also speak Pakistani language to some Pakistani peoples; there are a lots of them in Bangladesh.                                                                    |

|  |                                                                                                                                                                 |
|--|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  | And my famil.. My grandma speaks Bangla. My whole family speaks Bangla. I speak Bangla I understand Bangla. “Kooda ofis” it means Bye Bye. |
|--|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|