

Hi Anita,

I recently came across your website while searching for a personal trainer on Yelp. I was impressed by your approach to fitness, particularly your emphasis on making clients feel comfortable and providing programs for all ages. In addition, it is great that you also offer the option for clients to bring a partner.

However, I noticed that your reach is limited compared to some of your competitors. I believe that leveraging online platforms will expand your reach and attract more clients. As a full-time copywriter, I know exactly how to create a lead magnet and entice new clients to sign up for your email list.

Once we have a solid list of people willing to take actions, there are only a couple of steps left to make them purchase your products.

Thanks let me get ot research on their socials
