

CHANGES COMING TO THE MONSTER GIRL TIER...

As most of you know, I will be increasing the price point of the Monster Girl tier on February 1st from $10USD to $20USD. I've had it at that $10 price point for three years now, but with the introduction of commissions and other work that price hasn't been worth the amount of time necessary to put into writing them.

And so after analyzing the offerings of other writers in this field, I decided to go with $20USD, which I believe is fair for the work amount and is still significantly cheaper than getting a commission / is lower than what most other people offer custom stories at. Of course, I wouldn't increase the price without sweetening the deal a little bit...

WHAT IS CHANGING IN THE REQUEST TIER?

Anyone in the request tier can probably attest to the limitations put in place currently, and with the price increase I will be doing the following so that it is a little less restrictive, while still trying to keep the content fresh and varied for the lower tiers:

- A 2500 WORD MINIMUM GUARANTEE. Right now you are only guaranteed 1500 words at minimum. This will be increased to 2500 words to be comparable to a $30USD commission in length. This means you can either have a longer narrative segment or...
- INCREASED NUMBER OF SUBJECTS. Presently you can only TF one character per story. So long as it remains around the word minimum going forward, you can TF two or even three subjects so long as you are okay with the descriptions being a little shorter.
- INCREASED NUMBER OF TF TYPES PER STORY. Right now I keep things fairly limited. Like just a TG or just an expansion. I make exceptions for twinning stories because I consider that a TF type of its own, but going forward you can incorporate as many things as you would like provided it fits within the limit.
- MORE COMMUNICATION FROM ME. Because there will be more freedom in what you can request, I will be more proactive in ironing out your idea so that it works. That means that if I think your request needs a little something extra added, needs to have elements removed to fit, or may work better in multiple parts, I will communicate that to you. If there are months where I am burned out on certain topics I will also make sure to include them in the monthly request post so people are aware.

ARE THERE ANY CHANGES TO LIMITATIONS?

While I will be opening things up so that more varied content can be requested, there are still some limitations that will remain in place - either unchanged, or looser. You can find those listed below along with my reasoning for them.

- NO NSFW FOR CHARACTERS WHO ARE MINORS. This one is pretty self-explanatory. I will not write NSFW of characters who are under eighteen unless they are first APed or are taken from a point in time narratively when they are already eighteen. In cases where characters are ARed below 18, they will remain clothed in a capacity that keeps their naughty bits hidden.
- NO FEMALE-TO-MALE TG. I've gone back and forth on this, but I think for the time being I'm going to take them off the table. I have a personal reason for this related to my own gender identity that makes visiting this type of TF a little upsetting for me, so I don't think I should force myself to write content that has that kind of effect on me.
- SELF-INSERT YEARLY LIMITATION. Right now you are permitted one self-insert request per year. I will be bumping that up to two per year, but no higher. When I recently polled the community for what they liked to read, self-insert content did not place highly and I do not want to drive away patrons who come here to read these stories.
- MONTHLY XIV OC LIMITATION. Similar to the self-insert limitation, XIV OC stories polled very low. That said, I enjoy writing them and as a player myself I never find myself short on motivation. I will be bumping up their cap to four per month, however I ask that you make a point not to constantly request them so that there is some variety in your requests.
- CHARACTER VARIETY. Right now, if someone requests a TF into a character, you cannot request a story TFing one character into that character for six months. I'm going to shorten that to three months so long as the scenario is one where I can write the TF in a way that was different from the last. Likewise, please do not request stories featuring the same character every single month. It can wear on my own motivation and the interest of patrons in the tiers that subscribe just to read the requests!
- COLLABORATIONS. You're still free to combine your requests with another person, but please keep in mind it may be less than the 5000 words you'd get from having two separate stories. The reason for this is that it is hard for me to focus on a single piece for that long.

I'M CURRENTLY IN THE MONSTER GIRL TIER. IS ANYTHING REQUIRED OF ME?

Because of how Patreon works, on February 1st I will need to create a new tier and create slots one at a time to slowly move you into the new one if you choose to stay in this tier. Because of this I need to know if you plan on staying. If you could either send me a message on Patreon or a DM on Discord to let me know, we can arrange to set up a time on the 1st to do this before the end of the month. That said, if you do not contact me by the end of the day on January 31st, I will assume you don't want your spot anymore.

Even if you are leaving, if you could reach out to let me know so I have an idea of how many slots will be open, that'd be a help! It's a steep price increase so I do not blame anyone for deciding to step away from it. You can also leave your spot before January 31st. I have it set so those slots cannot be refilled and you've already been charged and received your benefits for this month!

ARE THE NUMBER OF SLOTS REMAINING THE SAME?

As of now, I plan on reducing the number of slots from 12 to 10, because these requests will be longer and I have two new monthly stories to write for the $12USD tier.

WILL SLOTS BE OPENING UP TO THOSE WHO AREN'T ALREADY IN THE TIER?

Some individuals have already expressed that they will be leaving the tier with the changes and so, if there are more than 2, that means the excess slots will open up for new individuals to take them. Because of how moving people into a new tier is done though, they will not be open until either February 2nd or 3rd.

I will be making a post before then with the number of available slots and a specific date and time that I will be opening them. This is so that everyone has a fair shot, and there are no cases of someone currently in the tier trying to get a spot for their friend.
